

JUNE BRIDE—A very lovely wedding of the month took place in Corvallis, when Donna Belle Mitchell, above, became the bride of Milton Zan Dickinson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mitchell of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Dickinson of Corvallis. The wedding was an event of June 15. (Picture by Hise Studio, Corvallis).

One of the loveliest weddings of the year took place June 15 when Miss Donna Belle Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mitchell of Roseburg, became the bride of Milton Zan Dickinson, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Dickinson of Corvallis. The ceremony, a double ring, was performed at the Good Samaritan Episcopal Church in Corvallis. The Rev. Charles Neville officiated.

The church was decorated with pink gladioli in white baskets on each side of the altar and on each side of the entrance to the sanctuary. Mrs. Charles Neville played the organ softly preceding the ceremony. Miss Nancy Allworth, soloist, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "With This Ring."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, L. E. Mitchell. She was attired in a ballerina length full skirt of embroidered white organdy with a bridal veil of French illusion and a cap of embroidered organdy. She carried a bouquet of pink roses surrounded by white stephanotis. Carol Winslow, a close friend of the bride from Oswego, Ore., was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length lavender organdy dress with a lavender taffeta sash and a large picture hat of the same color. Her bouquet was of purple gladioli. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses. Nancy Bennett, sorority sister of the bride from Portland, wore a ballerina length green organdy with a taffeta sash and a large picture hat of the same color. Joyce Meyer, another sorority sister, also wore a ballerina length yellow organdy dress with taffeta sash and large picture hat of the same color. Miss Bennett carried peach gladioli and Miss Meyer carried pink gladioli.

Carl Lauerston, friend of the bride, was best man. Robert Bennett and Joe Wetherbee, friends of the couple, were ushers. Both ushers are from Corvallis. All the men wore navy blue suits with white carnations.

The bride's mother wore navy blue nylon afternoon dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua summer suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white.

The reception was held in the Parish Hall of the church for 120 guests. Decorations were of deep pink Hector Dean roses arranged in a large crystal epergne in the center of the table. The table was covered with a shadow pattern white organdy cloth over deep pink undercloth. The sides and ends of the cloth were gathered into loops with pink satin ribbon. Pouring were Mrs. Dean White and Miss Mary Lou Phillips. Miss Billie Adams served. Mrs. H. R. Sinnard and Mrs. F. F. Price were in charge of the decorations. Miss Jo Ann Roberts had charge of the gifts and Miss Bess Celeste Dickinson had charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a mustard shantung dress with brown and tan accessories. Following a honeymoon trip to Ocean Lake at the Oregon Coast, the couple will be at home at Campus Court, Corvallis.

The bride attended Oregon State College and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. The bridegroom is a senior at Oregon State College. He was in the Navy for two years as radar operator with a night fighter squadron.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mitchell, brother and sister-in-law of the bride; Roseburg; Mrs. Jettie Mitchell, bride's aunt, Reedsport; Mrs. Celeste Alexander, great aunt of the bridegroom, Akron, Ohio; Mr. and

Raeda Jean Reece Is Bride Of James Poirot

One of the loveliest weddings of the season took place June 14 at eight o'clock in the evening of the First Methodist Church, when Miss Raeda Jean Reece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Reece of Roseburg, became the bride of James W. Poirot of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poirot of Anchorage, Alaska. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The altar decorations were formed by baskets of pink and white gladioli and snapdragons and tall half per cent. molasses diet are Neil Kaser and Mrs. Archie Butler, wearing matching white organdy gowns, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Paul Geddes played the wedding music and accompanied Harold Mobley, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned Princess style. A lace panel trimmed the front of the gown and lace edged the train. She wore a fingertip veil held in place by a pearl headress. She carried a bouquet of roses, gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Joan Rutter was maid of honor and wore a gown of ice blue satin. She wore mits and a cap of Chantilly lace. Mrs. Les Winters and Mrs. Pat Sullivan were bridesmaids and wore gold satin gowns with ivory colored Chantilly lace mits and caps. They carried nosegays of carnations.

Neil Wissing was best man and Dan Rarey and Ted Lubyn were ushers.

A reception followed in the social hall of the church. A white organdy cloth over pink graced the bride's table, which was centered with an arrangement of gladioli and roses, flanked by pink candles. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Leslie Miller. Mrs. Rodney Lundstrum of Portland served the punch and Mrs. Richard Gadway presided at the coffee urn. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Richard Reece, Mrs. Alan Miller, Miss Susan Motschenbacher and Miss Janice Plummer.

For traveling the bride chose a white linen suit with pink accessories. Following the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for Anchorage, Alaska, where they will remain until September, when they will go to Corvallis to make their home.

The bride attended Oregon State College and at the time of her marriage was employed as secretary to Rev. W. A. MacArthur. The bridegroom is a senior at Oregon State College.
