All members are invited to attend.

COOKIES for DIABETICS?

Ask your doctor about these wonderful new LOEB cookies—Softies, Nuggets, Tea Cookies and Almond Crisps. Flavor competes with the most delicious home-made cookies, yet the carbohydrate content is reduced especially for the restricted diet.

We have them in stock!

We have LOEB'S Creme Wafers too, and delicious candy bars, chocolate bars and gum. Try some today.

WHY DEPRIVE YOURSELF?

Diabetes doesn't mean "starve." Your doctor will gladly help you to include these and many other LOEB low-carbohydrate foods in your daily diet.

A. J. TUCK WILL MAKE EXTENSIVE TRIP TO EAST COAST

Arthur J. Tuck, well-known Roseburg resident, is leaving the first of July on a two-months vacation trip to the east coast to visit his family and a host of friends.

He will travel south by Greyhound bus to Grants Pass and Crescent City, Calif. In San Francisco, he will visit his brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gobeille, and in San Bruno with an old friend formerly of Roseburg, John A. Larsen, who was in the poultry business on Jackson Street here for many years. He will stop in Fortuna and Petaluma to visit. His daughter, Ruth, formerly taught school in the latter two cities.

At Santa Barbara, he will visit A. J. Abel, former Roseburg resident and he hopes to see his son-in-law and wife. Several years ago Mr. Abel's son-in-law was ordained a minister in the Roseburg Baptist Church. At Los Angeles, he will visit his sister, Kate Hall, and several former Roseburg residents.

From southern California, Mr. Tuck will go to Salt Lake City, Utah, to visit his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Tuck. He will attend to business in Atoka, Okla., and then go to Cleveland, Ohio, his old home for 40 years. He plans to visit friends in Buffalo, N.Y., where he was married 60 years ago. He and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Roseburg. Mrs. Tuck died in Roseburg Dec. 4, 1943. Upon coming to Roseburg, Mr. Tuck bought a pear and apple orchard in the Edenbrow Orchard Tracts and was a taxpayer in Douglas County for 42 years. He sold the orchards to the city of Roseburg in 1928 for the airport.

After leaving Buffalo, Mr. Tuck will go to LeRoy, New York, to visit his daughter, Mrs. Gladys Tuck Clark and her daughter, Ann. At Westport, Conn., he will visit his daughter, Ruth Tuck Seitz, and her family, after which he will go to Nashua, N.H. to visit his grandson, John D. Clark, and his wife and their baby son, Peter C. Clark. The latter is Mr. Tuck's first great-grandchild.

This will be Mr. Tuck's eighth
