SUNSET GARDEN CLUB HAS FIELD DAY TUESDAY

The Sunset Garden Club enjoyed a field day Tuesday at the Happy Valley ranch of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson. The group gathered at the home of Mrs. Carl Taylor in Winston at 10:30. After viewing all of her lovely flower gardens they motored to the location designated in Happy Valley. The group made a hiking tour of the premises. The delicious sack lunch was served in a beautiful spot under the Myrtlewood Grove.

Mrs. Johnson, president of the Sunset Garden Club, conducted a short business meeting. It was decided to have a flower arrangement demonstration under the direction of Mrs. Leo Manske, Mrs. Blanche Tipton and Mrs. Johnson at the next regular meeting, July 1st. All members are requested to start a scrapbook and bring any information pertaining to the culture of chrysanthemums and the dividing of spring bulbs to the next meeting. Members attending the meeting were Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. Dean Collins, Mrs. Fred Albertus, Mrs. Martin Halverson, Mrs. Ava Smith, Mrs. Vivian Borgaas and sons, Byron and Lou; Mrs. Marian Harryman, Mrs. Evelyn Schrum, Mrs. Florence Alender and Kathy; Mrs. Debra Taylor and daughter, Bonnie; Mrs. Inez Ware and children Bruce and Wayne; Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and a guest, Mrs. Ethelyn Sproul.

The club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, July 1 at the Community Club picnic grounds for a potluck luncheon at 11 o'clock.

FOLK DANCERS HOLD
FESTIVAL AT ARMORY
SUNDAY, JUNE 15th

A large spectator audience and an enthusiastic crowd of dancers filled the Roseburg Armory to capacity June 15, when five Roseburg clubs were hosts to the Oregon Federation of Folk Dancers. After a brief address of welcome by the Federation President, Lester Spencer of Roseburg, and the Grand March led by the State Historian, Lillian DuFresne, and her husband, Benjamin O. DuFresne, the dancers settled down for a full afternoon of dancing. A varied program of squares, round or pattern dances and international dances were enjoyed.

Square dance callers from Bend, Eugene, Springfield, Coos Bay, North Bend and Reedsport, kept the dancers on their toes. Mel Stricklett of Bend, dressed as an "old cow gal," added a great deal of hilarity to his square dance, "Pistol Packin' Mama." Members of the Bend Buckeroos won the prize for the "Surprise Square."

During intermission, Bethel No. 8 of Job's Daughters, Roseburg, entertained the group with a lovely exhibition and the girls were complimented on their performance.

Master of ceremonies for the afternoon were: Bruce Elliott, Roseburg; Wilson McCulloch, North Bend; and H. R. "Curley" Reynolds, Roseburg.

The following clubs were hosts for the affair: Swinger Square Dance Club, Riversdale Folk Dancers, Fullerton Folk Dance Club, Roseburg International Club and the Buckeroo Square Dance Club.

DAV AUXILIARY
OFFICERS INSTALLED AT MEETING THURSDAY

The Disabled American Veterans and Auxiliary to Dean-Perrine No. 9 met Thursday evening at the Labor Temple. Commander Groot conducted the meeting following the convention reports. Doris Hart, auxiliary commander, had charge of the second part of the meeting, at which time new officers were installed.

Nancy Wulf of Winchester acted as installing officer. Officers installed included Louise Needen, commander; Anne Bartlett, senior vice commander; Catherine Miliken, chaplain; Nancy Wulf, treasurer; Vada Anglin, adjutant; Mary Hoover, sgt.-at-arms; Susie Groot, conductress.

Out-going commander, Doris Hart, received a past commander's pin presented by Mrs. Wulf on behalf of the chapter, after which Mrs. Hart presented lovely gifts to her officers. Doris Blaney of Grants Pass acted as conductress for the installation ceremony.

GROUP ATTENDS
INTERESTING SESSION
HELD IN CORVALLIS

The Douglas County Committee for Home Extension work was represented at the State Council at Corvallis June 2 and 3, by Mrs. William Cunningham, Camas Valley; Mrs. Marie Rice, Rice Valley; and Miss Betty Jane Paterson, Home Extension agent from Roseburg. Mrs. Audrey Myer of Roseburg accompanied them.

Guest speaker for the State Council session was Laura Lane, associate editor of the Country Gentleman. Outstanding event of the program was a series of talks by a group of Foreign Home Economists who are in this country studying to become Home Extension Agents in their own countries.

The morning session for June 2 was presided over by Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick from Merrill, who is president of the Oregon Home Extension Council. Luncheon was served at the Memorial Union of the college. The afternoon session was taken up by the difference committee meetings.

The banquet in the evening was also held in the Memorial Union and was presided over by Mrs. Leslie Kribs from Bend, first vice president of the Oregon Home Extension Council, and Mrs. Armas Jakku, chairman of the Health and Safety committee of the O.H.E.C., who is from Hood River. An award was presented to the Hood River Unit for the Azalea House nameplate. The Lane County Kitchen Band, under the leadership of Mrs. J. T. Lorang performed. The evening's talk was presented by Miss Lane.

During the banquet the Beauty Shop Quartet from Benton County, also performed. The quartet is composed of Mrs. Herman Abraham, Mrs. Frank Kochis, Mrs. Nelson Locke, and Mrs. A. D. Stanley. They were accompanied by Mrs. Reese Dooley.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Azalea Sager, past president of the O.H.E.C., in honor of her twenty years of Home Extension work, from which she is retiring. The second day of the meeting reports from committees were heard. Special music was provided by the Foreign Home Economists' group. The luncheon at the Memorial Union was presided over by Mrs. Guy Shumway, second vice president of the O.H.E.C., who is from McMinnville. Speeches were given by Foreign Home Economists Elizabeth Lindgreen, on rural life in Scandinavian countries; Froukje Braalsma, rural life in the Lowlands; Theresa Groot, on rural life in Austria; and Marie Graziametti, on rural life in Italy and Yugoslavia.
