Sid Says:

Hi Folks!
You people quit calling me a gad-about. I've been trying to learn so I could teach you folks.

Just returned, Jay and I, from Bell and Howell training clinic and they sure can teach you things you never dreamed.

I've always been firmly convinced Bell and Howell makes the best in movie equip but outside of good performance I never really knew why we studied them, wheel by wheel. And by and large I've never seen such beautiful material in any camera. Sure you pay more but you GET more and for a lifetime, too.

Our stock is complete.
See you next week folks.

Mystery fans are reminded of the new time for "Mysterious Traveler". Each week an outstanding Saturday afternoon at 5:00. One of the best mystery shows on Mutual, the "Mysterious Traveler" promises thrilling listening at its new time, each Saturday afternoon at 5:00 p.m.

"Family Theater," tonight at 8:00, stars Audrey Totter and Van Heflin. The drama is entitled "Scientific Method." This is a program definitely attractive to the entire family... young and old alike. Each week an outstanding figure in the world of show business plays host to the program's stars... tonight Lloyd Nolan does the honors.

"Information Please," tonight at 8:30, has the usual cast of Adams, Kieran and Fadiman, with guest "experts" Marc Connelly and Alastair Cooke. A fast 30 minutes of ad lib, and marvelous wit as the experts give out with the answers on Mutual's "Information Please."

Wrestling fans who can't get to the Armory again have a ring-side seat, via radio, as Bob Grant describes the action, as terrific forsooth a tasty treat of tantalizing talent, each and every Saturday evening... Radio description begins at 9:15.
