Shirley Ann Helweg Honored At Shower

One of the prettiest parties of the season was given in compliment to Miss Shirley Ann Helweg, popular bride-elect, Monday evening at the Earl Plummer home on Winchester Street, when Miss Janice Plummer entertained at a bridal shower party.

Croft lilies, Canterbury bells, Esther Reed daisies and sweet peas formed a pretty blue and white motif for the room bouquets. The serving table was centered with a large blue crepe-paper heart edged with blue and white ruffles and rosettes and centered with three slender blue tapers set in small crystal containers and circled with Esther Reed daisies. Beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Helweg from: Mrs. Blossom Maxwell and Miss Barbara Callender of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Paul Helweg, Mrs. W. E. Hercher, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Miss Polly Helweg, Miss Donna Mears, Miss Jan Elliott, Miss Marilyn Feller, Miss Nancy Nichols, Miss Norma Johnson, Miss Harriet Booth, Mrs. Bob Willhite, Mrs. Bill Madison, Mrs. Dee Boyer, Mrs. Archie Rutter, Mrs. Bob Bashford, Mrs. Neil Kaser and the hostess, Miss Janice Plummer.

Visiting was enjoyed and later lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Plummer, and Mrs. Helweg, Mrs. Hercher and Mrs. Maxwell.

HERE FROM MINNEAPOLIS—Mrs. Blossom Maxwell, above left, and Miss Barbara Callender, of Minneapolis, are in Roseburg for the Hercher-Helweg wedding and are spending two weeks visiting the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Helweg, in Laurelwood. Miss Callender is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Helweg. (Paul Jenkins)

Mr. and Mrs. Jacklin Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Jacklin celebrated their twentieth anniversary at a delightful family affair and buffet supper Wednesday evening, June 18, at their home.

CALIFORNIA VISITOR COMPLIMENTED AT PARTY TUESDAY EVENING

Mrs. Grace Raymond and Mrs. Ann Ricketts entertained at a delightful party Tuesday evening honoring Mrs. Mary Correll Jones of Glendale, Calif., who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Lou

Mrs. Nina Coon was the inspiration for one of the most charming parties of the summer, Wednesday at the lovely new home of Mrs. E. O. Nickerson in Dillard with Mrs. Mercy Buell as co-hostess.

Mrs. Coon, who has been a resident of Dillard for many years, has recently purchased a new home in Medford, the home of her girlhood, and is moving in the very near future. A group of her many friends gathered to extend their best wishes and present lovely gifts for her new home in Medford.

The potluck luncheon was served at one o'clock from the lace-covered dining table which was graced with a bouquet of beautiful roses. A lovely corsage, fashioned of an unusual arrangement of lacy straw flowers, was presented to the honored guest by Mrs. Harry Davis.

Many beautiful gifts were presented the honored guest, after which she affectionately responded with her "speech of heartfelt thanks." The group replied by singing "Blessed be the Tie that Binds" led by Mrs. Clarence Brittain, and dedicated to Mrs. Coon.

Pictures were taken by Mrs. Rosa Heinbach.

The guests enjoying the party from out-of-town were: Mrs. Nina Coon, Medford; Mrs. Dorothy Mayne of Coos Bay; Mrs. William Mills of Eugene; Mrs. Anne Kellogg of Springfield; Mrs. Mary Umlinger of Bend; Mrs. Marjorie Hudd of Medford; Mrs. Emily E. Judd, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Mabel Brooks and Mrs. Earl Oakley of Roseburg; Mrs. Willard Laurence, Mrs. Mildred Mahoney, Mrs. Paul Clark, Mrs. Grace Barnes, Mrs. Bertha Rummell, Mrs. Carol Hercher, Mrs. Vera Brittain and her houseguest, Mrs. Ann Kellogg of Eugene; Mrs. Fred Burks, Mrs. Custer Laurence, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. Bert Laurence, Mrs. Stanford Buell, Mrs. Ray Golgert, Mrs. Harry Davis, Mrs. Cora Evans, Mrs. Lester Baldwin, Mrs. L. R. Andrus, Mrs. Willard Laurence, Mrs. Roy Gordon, Mrs. Paul Rummell, Mrs. William Heinbach, Mrs. Harry Davis, and the two hostesses, Mrs. Mercy Buell and Mrs. Nickerson. Gifts received from those unable to attend were: Mrs. Vera Rice, Mrs. Othal Barnes, Mrs. Mary Stoner and Mrs. Aitha Coon.

ART ASSOCIATION HAS INTERESTING MEETING TUESDAY

The Roseburg Art Association met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Grant. A fine attendance enjoyed the interesting session. Plans were made for the annual outdoor art exhibit in August.

The club will sponsor an art course in composition to be taught by Miss Fern Young from Glendale Art Institute of Los Angeles. The course will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning at 7:30 p.m. sometime in July. The date and place will be announced later. Those interested in taking the course are requested to contact some member of the club.

The club members were appreciative and thrilled over the new studio back of Mrs. Grant's home, 524 Mill St. The July 15 Work Shop will be held at the studio beginning at 1 p.m. for those desiring to paint in the afternoon. A potluck supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. followed by a short program, leaving the evening open with time for Work Shop.

HERE FROM AUSTRALIA—A charming visitor from Sydney, Australia, is Miss Mavis Gillott, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Gillott, who is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selby on the North Umpqua River for 10 days. She arrived by ship at Vancouver, B. C., June 8 and enjoyed a trip to Banff and Lake Louise before coming to Roseburg by bus. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

Miss Gillott has just completed her college training and will spend a year and three months enjoying a trip around the world, before returning to Sydney to enter business with her father. Mr. Gillott owns a fleet of taxi cabs and hire cars, three public garages and three service stations in addition to owning contract trucks for construction work. Miss Gillott's two brothers, one of whom is 21 and the other 18, will also enter business with their father, when they complete their college courses. The youngest brother is completing his military conscription training.

Upon leaving Roseburg, Miss Gillott will go by bus to San Francisco, Yosemite Park and Los Angeles. She is taking the bus so that she may enjoy seeing more of the west coast. She plans to tour the Southern states and will then go to New York City, where she will be enjoying a trip around the world, before returning to Sydney to enter business with her father. Mr. Gillott owns a fleet of taxi cabs and hire cars, three public garages and three service stations in addition to owning contract trucks for construction work. Miss Gillott's two brothers, one of whom is 21 and the other 18, will also enter business with their father, when they complete their college courses. The youngest brother is completing his military conscription training.
