Jeannine Bentley Bride Of Richard D. Bonebrake

A beautiful garden wedding took place Sunday, June 15, when Jeannine Bernice Bentley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Bentley, of Lyons, Ore., became the bride of Richard Duane Bonebrake son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bonebrake of Roseburg, at the Bonebrake home. Rev. Raymond Schaefer, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 100 relatives and friends.

A rose arch and four trellises of syringa blooms, fern, blue delphinium, pink snapdragons and pink roses formed the improvised altar. Wendall Johnson, violinist, and Mrs. W. T. Gillespie, pianist, played "Because" and "I Love You Truly," after which the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played for the bridal party to take its place before the arch.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of Chantilly lace with nylon net over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice. The waist-length veil was caught to both sides of the head with clusters of pearl orange blossoms.

Betty Bentley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Norma June Bentley, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. One was in pink and the other in aqua formal marquisette gowns over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodices and matching nylon lace.

Dale Bonebrake was best man for his brother and Brent Allen Bentley and Gary Albertson were ushers.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Bonebrake left for coast points. For traveling the bride chose a navy crepe dress with orchid and white accessories.

The bride was graduated from Stayton Senior High and Linfield College. She is a teacher of home economics and speech. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and is a senior at Linfield College, where he is studying for the ministry.
