Janice Erickson Is Bride Of Robert Hansen

One of the loveliest of June weddings took place Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church, when Miss Janice Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Erickson of Roseburg, became the bride of Sgt. Robert G. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hansen of this city. Rev. Robert G. Hall performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 250 guests.

A most effective lavender and white color-scheme was carried out in the church decorations, gowns and flowers of the bridal party and for the reception. White gladioli and lavender stock and tall lavender candles in candelabras formed the altar decorations, while the pew markers were of white and lavender carnations. Mrs. Homer W. Grow played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Leonard Loennig of Eugene, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, who sang, "Because," preceding the ceremony and during the ceremony, he sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Dolores Horton and Mrs. Bob Willhite, wearing lavender gowns and wristlets of white flowers and carrying white candles, lighted the altar candles. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a full court train. Seed-pearls outlined the yoke. The sleeves were wrist length and the veil of illusion was three-quarter length and held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet centered with a large white orchid surrounded by lavender orchids and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted with orchids.

Mrs. Williams Hallcraft was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Sanders, sister of the bride, Miss Marlene Lutey and Miss Eardine Piper. All of the bride's attendants wore strapless formal gowns of white fashioned ballerina length. They wore white net stoles. The matron of honor carried white carnations backed with lavender ribbon and the bridesmaids carried lavender carnations backed with white ribbons.

Georgia Sanders, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a ballerina length gown of white satin. She carried a basket of lavender sweetpeas. Lucian Neal of Las Vegas was best man and ushers were Herbert Loennig of Eugene, William Hallcraft and Charles Laurie.

The bride's mother wore a blue net dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with lavender accessories. They both wore orchid corsages.

The wedding reception followed at the beautiful home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hansen, in Laurelwood. The white and lavender motif was carried out in the decorations for the four-tiered wedding cake. Esther Reed dearest, from the W. J. Hutch gardens, decorated the buffet, while the sweetpeas for the table were from the B. C. Elliott gardens. Mrs. Kenneth Ford decorated the fireplace mantle with an attractive arrangement of pastel blossoms.

Mrs. H. C. Wells cut the wedding cake. Mrs. George Caskey poured the coffee and Mrs. Leo Young and Mrs. Charles S. Collins served the punch. Assisting were Mrs. Edyth Gilmore, Mrs. Bob Willhite and Mrs. Herbert Loennig, nee Ruth Hansen, sister of the bridegroom. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Bob Harrison.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. Carl Jorgensen of Seattle; Mrs. H. P. Reersley, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Peterson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Beck and daughters, of Junction City; Mrs. William Stilling and son, William, of Cottage Grove; Capt. and Mrs. Steve Fowler of Eugene, and Mrs. Lowell Rude of Adrian, Mich.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and has been employed at Miller's. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School. He attended University of Oregon and General Motors Institute, Flint, Mich. He is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. He is stationed at Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, Nev.

For traveling the bride wore a lavender dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Following a trip to points north, Sgt. and Mrs. Hansen returned to Roseburg and will later go to Las Vegas, Nev., to make their home while the former is stationed there.
