One of the largest weddings of the season took place Sunday, June 15, when Miss Irene Trapalis, daughter of Mrs. Grace Trapalis, Springfield, and George Trapalis, Roseburg, became the bride of Richard C. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Amity, Ore. Rev. Alfred Tyson performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 50 guests at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. George's Episcopal Church.

Calla lilies, syringas and stock decorated the altar, while the pews were marked with ribbons and the family pews were marked with white Esther Reed daisies and ribbon.

Mrs. R. B. Hershele played the wedding music and accompanied Leroy Hiatt, who sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a gown designed with three skirts of tulle fashioned with a lace bodice with Peter Pan collar and long lace sleeves. The lace cascading from the waist-line in circular fashion tapered to a point at the back. The skirt ended in a full court train. Her long veil of tulle was edged with lace and held in place by a lace Juliet cap. She carried her father's Eastern Star Bible topped by two white orchids tied with a shower of white satin ribbons and she wore a diamond studded wristwatch, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Charles (Christina Trapalis) Hefty of Salem was matron of honor for her sister. She and the bridesmaids wore identical strapless formal gowns with net skirts and net sleeves. Mrs. Hefty was in pink and carried a bouquet of white carnations circled with pink-dyed Esther Reed daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Milton Lindley and Mrs. Richard Murphy, both of Roseburg, in yellow; Mrs. Robert Johnson of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mrs. Harold Mobley, Roseburg, in green; Mrs. Kenneth Vannice, Salem, and Mrs. Dale Lander, Roseburg, in lavender; Mrs. Thomas Andrews, sorority sister of the bride, Salem, and Miss Margaret Mix, Independence, Ore., also a sorority sister, wore blue, and Mrs. Tyler Evans, Roseburg, was in pink. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of Esther Reed daisies dyed to match their gowns.

Deborah DeBernardi and Sherri Evans were flower girls and wore pink gowns. Michael Van Buskirk, second cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Thomas D. Andrews of Salem was best man and ushers were: James Rosenbalm, cousin of the bridegroom, and Lamar Aldridge of Amity; George Watts of Monmouth; Joseph Werning of Corvallis and Donald Montgomery of Portland. The latter two are fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon gown of lavender tulle with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey crepe afternoon gown with grey accessories and an orchid hat. They both wore corsages of Vanda orchids.

A wedding reception followed in the parish hall. The beautifully decorated bride's table was arranged by Mrs. Leroy Hiatt. The lace-covered table was centered with an elaborately decorated four-tiered wedding cake, topped by wedding bells under a heart-shaped arch. The cake was in pink and white and flanked by pink tapers. Mrs. Sturgill Walker served the cake. Mrs. Royd Bruton was in charge of the punch and Mrs. C. W. Van Buskirk, aunt of the bridegroom, served the coffee. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Martin McElroy, Mrs. Warren Ward, Mrs. Fred Stora Jr., Mrs. Max Elder Jr., and Mrs. Wayne Rivett. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Archie Rutter.

At the reception, Leroy Hiatt sang, "Because," accompanied by Miss Virginia Young, who also played background music.

For traveling the bride chose a pink suit with white accessories. Her corsage was two white orchids. Following a honeymoon to Santa Maria and Carmel, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned to Roseburg to reside at 231 East Lane Street, until August, when the bridegroom will report to March Field Air Base.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rosenbalm and children, Robert, Sharon, Sarah, and Douglas; Mr. and Mrs. Kay and Douglas; and Miss Ina Pearl Allen of Amity; Mrs. Roy Dent of Willamina, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell of McMinnville; Mrs. Allen Coddington of Sheridan; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Aldridge and Gary of Amity; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Van Buskirk of Redmond; Mrs. Floyd Van Buskirk of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Max Elder Jr. of Corvallis; Miss Jackie Hall of Tigard; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vannice of Salem; Jim Moletis of Portland; Miss Connie Cochran and Miss Bonnie and Miss Laurelee Iles of Springfield; Miss Georgene Shanklin of San Francisco and Miss Kalliope Zuvolos of Portland.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Oregon State College. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority. The bridegroom attended Amity High School and Oregon State College. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity and is a second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force. He will report to March Air Force Base in Riverside, Calif., Aug. 10.
