Democratic Rule Too Long, Gen. Eisenhower Declares; Taft Says Ike Copies Dewey

By The Associated Press Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, stepping up his drive for Republican presidential nomination, teed off on the Democrats as to long and jaded by "complacency, negligence and cynicism."

His speech before an audience of 11,000 in Denver's Coliseum Thursday night—radio-broadcast nationwide—was beamed especially at the nation's youth.

"They are sickened, he said, by "epidemic" corruption in high places but will meet moral issues of the campaign with idealism and energy."
Eisenhower said the United States has handled Russia too giv-gerly.

Less softness, he said, might have prevented the Korean conflict and kept China and Balkan and Baltic states from slipping behind the Iron Curtain.

The speech came almost as an answer to statements earlier in the day by Eisenhower's chief rival for the GOP nomination, Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Backhanded Rap At Dewey
"I am afraid," Taft told a Washington, D. C., news conference, "that Eisenhower's backers would urge him to conduct the kind of campaign that Dewey conducted."

New York Gov. Thomas Dewey's loss to President Truman in 1948 has been blamed on "me-too" tactics which lacked fight.

Dewey is working now for Eisenhower's nomination at the GOP's July 7 convention at Chicago.

Taft's campaign manager, David Ingalls, said Thursday his man just about has the nomination sewed up anyway.

In a statement he credited Taft with all but three of the 604 delegate votes needed to win.

The Associated Press tabulation —based on statements of avowed and conceded alignments for the first ballot—shows Taft has 482 to Eisenhower's 404, with 129 for others and 191 uncommitted or disputed.

Demos Aim At Harriman
In the Democratic race—the convention at Chicago comes two weeks after the GOP's—there was talk of a stop-Harriman road block being fashioned by southerners.

According to the report, some backers of Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia have been sounding out the forces of other candidates for Democratic presidential nomination.

The idea: Hold the line against Mutual Security Administrator Averell Harriman if he should suddenly get the support of President Truman.

Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson generally is conceded the inside track with Truman. The governor, who had been saying he only wants to be re-elected, now evinces a wait-and-see attitude.

The Associated Press tally now shows Kefauver leading with 245 1/2 Russell has 134, Harriman 99 1/2, Stevenson 50 1/2, others 256 1/2 and
