CORSETING ADVICE

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—"Use your whole body, not just the wrists." "Stiffen that elbow." "Give it all you've got."

The above are not instructions for playing golf but for getting into a corset. The advice comes from experts—a school for corsetiers which met here recently.

The experts, headed by Miss Betty Vincent, educational director for a foundation-wear concern, stressed a controlled elbow in the battle of the bulge.

It has been estimated that people with grade school education know from 25,000 to 35,000 words, with many college students knowing almost 60,000.

There are about 20,000 different words in Shakespeare's dramas.
