

Dillard Boy Returns From Stay At Methodists' Camp Myrtlewood

By MRS. ROSA HEINBACH
Phillip Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hill, has been spending the past week at the Methodist Church Camp Myrtlewood, along with a large group of Junior youth, ranging from the 4th to the 6th grades in the various Methodist Church schools in Southern Oregon. The Rev. Frank B. Drew and Webb Hill motored to Camp Myrtlewood after Phillip on Saturday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter Gourley of Fresno, Calif., accompanied by the latter's brother and sister, visited on Wednesday with the Rev. Mr. Drew. The Rev. Mr. Gourley and the Rev. Mr. Drew were together in a seminary at Denver, Colo., for two years. The party was returning from a vacation trip into Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie B. Harryman have been entertaining guests from Southern California during the past two weeks at their ranch on Kent Creek above Dillard, Mrs. Harryman's mother, Mrs. B. R. Winger, of Galt, Calif., and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Konkright, and children, Janette, Marilyn and Wayne of Los Angeles, Calif., have been the inspiration of several trips, picnics and social gatherings during their visit in Dillard.

Over the past weekend, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harryman and their houseguests made the trip to Eugene, across the McKenzie Pass and up through Central Oregon to The Dalles, where they stayed overnight. The Harrymans and their guests all were impressed with their first view of the scenic Columbia River Highway from The Dalles into Portland.

The Harryman family moved to Dillard from Lynnwood eight years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harryman Jr. and young son, Brooks recently moved into one of the Robert Jackson cabins on Kent Creek to be near the site of the new home they are constructing on the R. B. Harryman timber estate on Kent Creek.

Starting out early Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Harryman Jr. and the former's aunt and cousin, Mrs. L. W. Konkright and daughter, Janette, of Los Angeles, motored to the Oregon Caves.

Mrs. Winger, Mrs. Konkright and children, Janette, Marilyn and Wayne, were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. William C. Heinbach. The children were entertained by picking cherries off trees for the first time.

Konkright who has been an employee of the Southern California Telephone Company for 23 years, did some extensive fishing before returning to California at the end of their vacation. The families were greatly impressed with the scenic wonders of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prain of Auburn, Wash., were the guests of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister, for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Berry of Richmond, Calif., arrived Friday to visit at the E. O. Nickerson home for their yearly vacation. They also have been visiting other old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Loughry in Myrtle Creek. The three families were neighbors and friends in Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron McKean and children, Rodney and David, had an enjoyable Fourth of July weekend trip. They drove to Medford Friday, briefly visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Santo took them to the Lake of the Woods camp and picnic grounds where they had their picnic dinner. Then they motored to Klamath Falls where they stayed overnight. The party returned Saturday by way of Crater Lake. At that point they report the snow was very deep with only the road cut through the snow to view the lake. They returned home late Saturday by the Prospect-Tiller cut off.

Mrs. Myrtle Ready of North Platt, Nebr., was a guest last week among her old friends in Dillard and Roseburg. She was formerly a resident of Dillard.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Honer and sons, Richard and Dale, from Palmdale, Calif., are visiting two weeks at the Ira A. White home on Rice Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White and children, Jimmy and Diane, from Portland were visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira White, over the Fourth of July holidays.

Surprise Valley Resident Dies

Lloyd Gray Carnes, 70, died Monday night at his home in Surprise Valley near Canyonville.

Mr. Carnes was born Feb. 6, 1882 at Ottumwa, Ia. He was married to Margaret Bradley in Sacramento, Calif., on Aug. 19, 1923. In 1929 he moved to this area and was instrumental in developing Surprise Valley.

Survivors include his widow, Margaret, in Surprise Valley and a half-brother, William Carnes, Ottumwa.

Funeral services in the chapel of Ganz Mortuary at Myrtle Creek will be held at 2 p.m. PST Friday, July 11, with the Rev. O. L. Kendall of the Canyonville Methodist Church officiating. Vault interment will be in Canyonville.

Charles Harold Wilson Dies Here At Age of 50

Charles Harold Wilson, 50, resident of Roseburg for the past five years, died at Douglas Community Hospital Monday following a short illness. He was born at Grinnell, Iowa, on Nov. 7, 1901, and was married to Thelma Miller at Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 17, 1929. He resided in Pendleton and Portland before coming to Roseburg in November, 1946. Mr. Wilson was employed as an accountant by Youngs Bay Lumber Company of Roseburg.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Thelma Wilson, Roseburg, two sons, Harold Wilson, Portland and Donavon Cox, Forest Grove; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wilson, Dayton, Wash.; three sisters, Mrs. E. E. Tate, Portland, Mrs. William Kayser, Dayton, Wash., and Mrs. Ross Didrickson, Longview, Wash., and one granddaughter.

Funeral services will be held in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary, Thursday, July 10, at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Meredith A. Groves of the First Methodist Church officiating. His body will be taken to Portland for interment in Rose City Cemetery, where graveside services will be held Friday afternoon.

Robinson Meets Tonight With Community Players

Horace Robinson, Centennial Pageant director, will meet with the Roseburg Community Players at 7:30 tonight in the YMCA Room of the Armory to discuss the dramatists' part in the pageant.

Other interested persons may attend the meeting.

Robinson will state his ideas on how individuals, as well as groups, can participate in the Labor Day weekend pageant.

The address of Melvin O. Lancaster, listed in a Municipal Court case Monday, is now 206 W. Cass St., and not the Jackson Street address where he formerly resided and which was used in the court story on Monday.

SESSION POSTPONED

The City Council meeting last night was postponed until Thursday morning at 11:30 due to a lack of a quorum.

Besides several items of business, members of the council will also canvass votes on the special city budget election to be held Wednesday.

Gen. MacArthur Blasts Truman Administration

ments of war goods to the Soviet. Losses To Reds Decried

In the East, MacArthur said, the United States "proceeded with precipitate haste to divest ourselves of our own military strength."

This policy caused the loss to Communism of China, North Korea and the Kuriles, he said.

MacArthur's emotion packed words lashed particularly at what he called the lack of the traditional will-to-win in Korea.

"Korea stands today as the halcyon graveyard for countless American dead," he said.

"We must not let it become as well a graveyard for American hope, American faith and American honor."

Water Increase Job Starts At Sutherlin

A $40,000 project which will increase Sutherlin's water supply from 250,000 gallons to two million gallons is under way, City Manager W. D. Bollman said.

Under construction is a new pumping plant and a filter. The work is being done by city crews and the new plant is expected to be completed in about a month.

"We've got to have it in operation by then," Bollman said, "so we can have the water."

Sutherlin's water comes from Calapooia Creek. A project to lay additional pipes is expected to be undertaken later.

Oakland, Sutherlin May Join In Sewage Plant

Plans for a survey to determine whether a joint Sutherlin-Oakland sewage treatment plant is feasible will be taken before the Oakland City Council soon, Sutherlin City Manager W. D. Bollman said.

The survey, which will cost about $150, has already been approved by the Sutherlin council.

The survey is expected to determine the cost, maintenance cost, and efficiency of joint operation and of separate operation to find out which is the best method, Bollman said.

Graveside Services Held For Laura Cerise Rogers

Graveside funeral services for Laura Cerise Rogers, infant daughter of L. and Mrs. Donald S. Rogers, who died at Mercy Hospital June 30, were held last Thursday at the Masonic Cemetery with the Rev. Meredith A. Groves of the First Methodist Church officiating. Arrangements were in care of Long & Orr Mortuary.
