Mr. and Mrs. Mindolovich spent their honeymoon at coast points and in Seattle and are now making their home at 609 East Lane Street, Roseburg. (Picture by Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

Miss Leona Kollodge and Mark Daniel Mindolovich, both of Roseburg, were married at Holy Redeemer Church in Portland by the Very Rev. Joseph A. Martucci, C.S.R., at nine o'clock the morning of June 28 in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Kollodge of Holdingford, Minn., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mindolovich of Portland.

Highlight of the ceremony was the presentation by the bride of a bouquet of roses at the Blessed Virgin's altar, following the nuptial Mass, during which time the Ave Maria was sung.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace. The bodice and circular, scalloped half overskirt were of Chantilly lace. The gown was fashioned with long lace sleeves and matching Peter Pan collar and the full nylon skirt ended in a train. The double circular veil was held in place by a lace cap and she carried a bouquet of calla lilies and rosary.

Miss Margaret Kollodge of Minneapolis was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a Ballerina length gown of aqua. Mrs. Gene Jacobs, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Doris Dorch, Roseburg, were bridesmaids and wore Ballerina length gowns of party pink. Their picture hats were net trimmed. They wore matching linen pumps and carried matching bouquets of carnations.

Vincent Mindolovich, Portland, was best man for his brother and Gene Jacobs, Portland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Matthew Braich, Portland, were ushers.

A wedding breakfast followed for the bridal party, after which a reception for 200 guests was held. Mrs. Grace Fitzgerald and Mrs. Katherine Beach cut the cake and Mrs. Mary Mindolovich and Miss Loretta Vieth poured.

The bride's mother wore a Kelly green silk dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua print silk dress with white accessories.

For traveling the bride chose a dark beige silk shantung suit, pink hat and pink elbow length gloves. Matching beige and tan shoes and purse completed the ensemble. Her accessories included a pearl necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Following a honeymoon to coast points and to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Mindolovich are now at home to their friends at 609 East Lane Street, Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Holdingford, Minn., High School and Mercy Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed as a registered nurse at the Veterans Hospital. The bridegroom was graduated from Jefferson High School and the University of Oregon School of Journalism. He has been a resident of Roseburg the last four years and is staff artist for the News-Review.

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL OWEN cut the first piece of their wedding cake immediately following the nuptials that took place at the Yoncalla Church of Christ June 21.

Miss Esther Annabel Benner, daughter of Mrs. Dora Benner, became the bride of Russell Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Owen, of Sutherland, at a beautiful ceremony held at the Yoncalla Church of Christ, June 21, at 8 o'clock. The church was decorated with a white arbor covered with ferns and large bouquets of red roses. A white fence on either side of the arbor with large baskets of pink snapdragons completed the improvised altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dan Benner. She wore a white brocaded satin wedding gown with long sleeves and full train. Her fingertip net veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with a large orchid, and streamers of white satin ribbon on Stephanotis.

Miss Betty Currier was maid of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta gown and carried pink sweet peas. Miss Deloris Sanders and Mrs. Si Wise in pink and orchid gowns were bridesmaids and carried sweet peas centered with white calla lilies. Little Jimmy Jane Edin, in a blue satin dress, was flower girl. Misses Maxine Potter and Sybil Lewey, in blue formals, were the candlelighters. The best man was Kenneth McKirdy.

Rev. Fred Evans performed the ceremony in the presence of 150 relatives and friends. Willard Benner and James Vian were ushers.

Before the ceremony, Billie Benner, brother of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me" accompanied by Mrs. Arne Bjork, who also played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Tim Ellis sang "Wedding Prayer" following the ceremony.

A reception was held in the recreation rooms of the church following the ceremony. A large three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was served by Mrs. Carl Conaway and Mrs. Russell Loyd. Mrs. Charles Vian served the punch and Mrs. Harold Boucock served coffee. Miss Lois Ann Wright had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen went to Seattle and Spokane, Wash., on their wedding trip and returned to make their home in Yoncalla. The bride was graduated from Yoncalla High School in 1950. The bridegroom is employed by the Kruse and Wolley Lumber Co. of Drain.

For her going-away costume, the new Mrs. Owen wore a navy blue nylon linen suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

JOAN RUTH HARPER BECOMES BRIDE OF WAYNE E. OFTEDAHL

A lovely afternoon wedding took place June 28 when Miss Joan Ruth Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Harper of Roseburg, became the bride of Wayne Edward Oftedahl, of Chicago, Ill. Rev. Alfred S. Tyson performed the ceremony at St. George's Episcopal Church in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

Miss Joan M. Harper, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and wore a ballerina length, Nile green embroidered organza gown over a hoop skirt of silk. Her bouquet was of pale pink rosebuds, and she wore a pale pink picture hat. Her shoes were of Nile green.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Arthur F. Harper. Her beautiful ankle length gown was of white nylon lace over white satin. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and Stephanotis.

Ushers were John L. Kort and Roy Barnhart, both of Roseburg. Leonard M. Oftedahl, father of the bridegroom, was best man. The music was played by Mrs. R. B. Herschleb.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Harper home, 1121 No. Jackson, St., for 30 relatives and intimate friends. The table was decorated with pale pink rosebuds and white carnations with mock orange blossoms. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with pale pink roses. Mrs. John Kort poured the coffee. Mrs. Martha Garrett, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Joan Harper served the cake. Serving the punch were Miss Camille Howard and Miss Beth Carter. Ruby Willey was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a gray nylon lace dress over pink silk with a pink hat and gloves and gray shoes. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Oftedahl are now residing at 943 Winchester. Mrs. Oftedahl is employed by Sig Felt as bookkeeper and Mr. Oftedahl is working as budget manager for the Firestone Store.
