

MEMBERS OF THE REAGLES-WYLIE wedding party pose in the above picture, following the wedding of Doris Faye Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wylie of Lookingglass, and Robert Lee Reagles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dysert, Rt. 4, Roseburg. Below, the first piece of the wedding cake is cut by the bride and bridegroom at the reception, which followed the ceremony. (Pictures by Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

Doris Wylie Bride Of Robert Reagles

A charming wedding of the season was the exchange of marriage vows recited June 14 between Doris Faye Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wylie, and Robert Lee Reagles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dysert, at the Lookingglass Community Church. Rev. C. N. Currier of the Methodist Church performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 relatives and friends.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Ronald Meyer, sister of the bride, was attired in a pink taffeta gown. A pink organza capelet was worn softly around her shoulders and attached to the dress at the neckline. Her bouquet was of white carnations. Miss Betty Wylie, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Ronald Strickling, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of light green taffeta with light green organza capelets. Gail Meskill, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She was dressed in a pale yellow formal and carried a white basket of rose petals. The candle lighters, Lorna Vance and Jane Lowery, were dressed in light green formal with white carnation wristlets.

The brother of the bridegroom, Melvin Reagles, was best man. Ushers were Ronald Meyer, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ronald Strickling, cousin of the bride.

The bride was lovely as she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her gown of white satin was appliqued with quilted flowers covered with net. The veil was fingertip length, held in place with a seed pearl crown. Her bouquet was of white carnations interspersed with pink rosebuds.

The church was decorated with baskets of Madonna lilies and fern and an archway of roses and pink fern. Winifred Williams sang "I Love You Truly." Carl Ellenswood sang "Because." Wendell Johnson accompanied the two at the piano and played the wedding march and recessional.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. In charge of the serving table were: Mrs. James Lowery, aunt of the bride; Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. Homer Elliott. Mrs. Lola Fitzgerald was in charge of the gifts.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of white and black with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore an afternoon dress of a light floral pattern with black accessories. Her corsage, too, was of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple is now at home in Lookingglass. For traveling, the bride chose a navy suit with pink accessories. The new Mrs. Reagles was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1952. Mr. Reagles is employed by the South Umpqua Lumber Company.

WILL VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cook of Roseburg drove to McMinnville Friday to get the latter's father, Roy Eikenberry, who accompanied them back to Roseburg for a visit, while he convalesces from a major operation. Mr. Eikenberry makes his home in Sheridan, Ore.

Bailey-Siems Vows Exchanged June 28

One hundred and twenty-five guests witnessed the exchange of marriage vows between Dorothy Adeline Siems, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Siems of Roseburg, and Charles Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bailey, also of Roseburg, the evening of June 28 at 8 o'clock. Dr. Morris H. Roach officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Miss Beverly Walz of Roseburg was maid of honor. She wore a light green net gown over satin and carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Miss Kay White and Miss Pat Richman were bridesmaids and also wore green net gowns over satin. Their bouquets were of white gladioli. Little Susie Osborn was flower girl, and the candlelighters, dressed in pale green, were Sandra Siems and Wayona Melton. Ushers were Charley Melton, Robert Hall and Orville Walz.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and nylon net. She carried a bouquet of gladioli centered with an orchid.

The church was decorated with blue delphinium and lilies. Mrs. Homer Grow played the organ softly preceding and during the ceremony. A reception followed.

VAN GROOS FAMILY REUNION HELD AT BALLSTON ON JUNE 29

A family reunion of the Van Groos family, emigrants of Holland, was held at the Martin van Groos home at Ballston, Ore., June 29. Three of the original emigrants, Mrs. Sya Enschede, Martin van Groos and Will van Groos, were present. The reunion was preceded with a potluck dinner after which visiting was enjoyed. Most of the folk were from Washington and Oregon with the exception of one member of the family, Nel van Eendenburg, who traveled from Holland for the occasion.

Those present were the Holland guest and Sya Enschede, W. J. Enschede, Mrs. W. J. Enschede, Florence Withycombe, Ralph Withycombe, Rhoda Withycombe, George Withycombe, John Enschede, Mary E. Enschede, Geraldine Tumble, Doris Neeley, Edward Grover, Marjorie Grover, W. J. Gilstrap, Alice Whisler, Hugh Whisler, Ruth Whisler Sheerer, Wilma Whisler, Carlisle Gilstrap, William van Groos, Mrs. William van Groos, Myrtle van Groos, Lela Richardson, Jean S. van Groos, Helen van Groos, Judy van Groos, Cheryl van Groos, M. H. van Groos, Mrs. Martin van Groos, Dorothy Manan and Arthur Manan.

ROSEBURG LICENSED P.N.'S RECEIVE CAPS RECENTLY

Mrs. Aletha Parsons of Portland president of the State Licensed Practical Nurses Association paid a visit to Roseburg Saturday, June 28, for the purpose of capping the L.P.N.'s of the Roseburg area. The meeting was held in the salarum of the Douglas County Home. Speakers for the occasion were Mrs. Parsons, Rev. Levi White, Dr. E. J. Wainwright, Miss Sole R.N., of the Veterans Administration, and Mrs. Melba Drullner R.N., sponsor of the Roseburg L.P.N.'s Association.

Local Nurses receiving caps were: Helen Flaherty, Mildred Bibby, Arlene Hodges, Elsie Gates, Jessica Renken, Blanche Hogg, Edna Langley, Inez Rose, Mary Anna Hurlburt, Inez Bartram, Frances Olmsted, Zana Keller, Mabel Mendenhall, Belle Crenshaw, Lesta Pollett, Constance Hosnyager, Ruth Burger, and Phyllis Morgan.

The next regular meeting of the Roseburg L.P.N.'s will be held Thursday evening, July 31.

BLEILE FAMILY PARTY IS ENJOYED SUNDAY, JULY 6th

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bleile and son, George, entertained at a delightful family affair Sunday at their attractive home in Westmoreland having as guests their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Earl K. Bleile and children, Barbara Ann and Robert Earl, who are just back from San Antonio, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Jarmin and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jarmin and daughters of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Roush and daughters of Springfield. The Jarmin and Roush families are relatives of Mrs. Earl K. Bleile.

THE WEDDING OF Dorothy Adeline Siems, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Siems of Roseburg and Charles Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bailey of this city, was an impressive event of June 28 at the First Presbyterian Church. The entire bridal party is pictured above and below, the bride and bridegroom are photographed at the altar. (Pictures by Miller-Moderne).

BELLVIEW CLUB HAS POTLUCK PICNIC AT UMPQUA PARK

Bellview Club held a potluck picnic affair Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock at Umpqua Park. Beth Boyer, vice president, conducted the meeting. Mattie Gosnell read the club collect and Olive Walker read the minutes.

Plans were made for the fall bazaar and cooked food sale to be held the first Saturday in November at Trowbridge Electric. It was announced there will be no meeting in August. The next session will be September 9. The meeting place will be announced later.

Enjoying the occasion were Jane Bowker, Vanna Jacka, Katie White, visitors; Edna Parker and Anna Pratt, former members, and Irene and Olive Walker, Mattie Gosnell, Eleanor Gilbreath and Zita; Phyllis Cunningham and Jill and Joy; Marjorie Gilbreath, Alma Lovelace, Belle Huff and Christine; Beth Boyer and Lora Kester.

HOME FROM BUYING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. Goodman of Goodman's Furniture Market, and daughter, Leila, have returned home from a week's trip to Vancouver, B.C., where they visited relatives. They made a stopover at Seattle to attend the furniture market.

A BRIDAL SHOWER PARTY was given Saturday evening at the Bruce Mellis home on Glenn Street in compliment to Miss Marilyn Beard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, of The Dalles, formerly of this city. Left to right in the above

picture are: Mrs. Clyde Beard, Miss Marilyn Beard, Mrs. R. R. Brand, Mrs. Bruce Mellis and daughter, Miss Anne. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

A bridal shower was held in honor of Miss Marilyn Beard at the home of Miss Anne Mellis at 206 Glen St. Saturday with Mrs. R. R. Brand as co-hostess. Decorations were in pink and white, and the serving table had a centerpiece made of pink and white sweet peas. Pink and white hydrangea bouquets were used about the rooms.

The favors were white slippers trimmed with pink satin bows. Dainty refreshments were served. Several games were played. Mrs. Ruth Laws won the game prize.

Many lovely gifts were received by the bride-elect. About 35 guests were present. Miss Beard was a guest of Miss Mellis. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard and son, Donald, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Brand. The Beards now reside at The Dalles, where Mr. Beard is principal of the high school. Mr. Beard was formerly principal at Roseburg Senior High School. The wedding date has been set for Aug. 19.

WOMEN'S EPISCOPAL GUILD HAS SURPRISE PARTY ON TUESDAY

The Women's Episcopal Guild gave a surprise party Tuesday for one of its members, Mrs. W. E. Best, a recent bride. Present were Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson of Roseburg; Mrs. Phil Blundell, Mrs. Don Clark, Mrs. Floyd Guy, Mrs. Milton C. Hoff, Mrs. William Markham, Mrs. John Markham Jr., Mrs. Larry Minnaugh, Mrs. Hein rich Schmidt and sister, Mrs. Elsie Hatcher, of Amarillo, Tex., who is her house guest, and Mrs. Austin Wilson.

Refreshments consisting of a cake, baked by Mrs. Phil Blundell, and punch provided by the Guild were served. Mrs. Wilson presented Mrs. Best with a corsage of rosebuds and the out-of-town guest, Mrs. Hatcher with a corsage of sweet peas. The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Best with a covered silver serving dish.

VISITING GRANDPARENTS — Karen, a year and a half and Barbara Jean, five, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kohnle of Portland are spending two weeks in Roseburg with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchins, 115 Blakeley Street, while their parents are vacationing in California. Mrs. Kohnle is the former Myrtle Hutchings of this city. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).