Astry-Meyer Nuptials Take Place June 27th

The marriage of Miss June Meyer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Meyer of Lookingglass, and Benny Astry, son of Mrs. Hector Combs, of Craigville, Minn., was solemnized Friday evening, June 27, in the Lookingglass Church. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. C. N. Currier before a large group of relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a formal white satin gown with full train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of peonies, gladioli and stephanotis. Little Georgia Schulze, niece of the bride, and Linda Ollivant, in matching pastel green formal, were candlelighters. Mrs. Floyd Hickok, matron of honor, wore an aqua floor length taffeta gown. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Neal Meyer Jr. and Miss Juanita Hawley of Salem, cousin of the bride, wore matching pink taffeta formal. Little Dale and Sharon Ellenwood, nephew and niece of the bride, served as page and flower girl. Dale wore a navy blue suit and Sharon, a yellow formal. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Neal Meyer, wore a light flowered afternoon gown of Bemberg with a gladioli corsage.

Preceding the ceremony, Robert Reagles sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because of You," accompanied by Miss Joan Phillips, who also played the traditional wedding marches and incidental music throughout the service. Mrs. Naomi Schulze, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

A white lattice arch entwined with pastel pink roses and maiden-hair fern, flanked by tall candelabra and floor basket bouquets, formed the background for the service.
