PRESBYTERIAN WOMAN'S SOCIETY HAS ANNUAL POTLUCK LUNCHEON

The Presbyterian Woman's Society's annual potluck luncheon, June 12, was the last meeting before the summer recess.

During the year, several Roseburg Presbyterian women have been active in state organizations of the church.

Mrs. Morris H. Roach has been elected to a vice-presidency of the Oregon Synodical Society, which is the state organization of Presbyterian women.

Mrs. W. H. Ferris is Spiritual Life and Stewardship Chairman for the Southwest Oregon Presbyterian Society.

Miss Luella Cunningham is membership chairman for the Southwest Oregon Presbyterian Society.

The young people of Westminster Fellowship as guests, presented the program for the meeting. They portrayed a typical Sunday evening meeting as a demonstration of what they are offering for young people of the community.

Deviations were conducted by Miss Peggy Williams. She included reference to the Yearbook of Prayer which called special attention to the Presbyterian work among the Spanish people in New Mexico, where Mrs. Dorothy Spencer returned last summer from the Roseburg Presbyterian Church and from her work of teaching here in the Junior High School, to teach again in the Presbyterian mission school at Embudo, N. Mex.

Special music was supplied by a girls' trio.

The major portion of the program was a skit depicting the problems which may arise when young people of different religious faiths contemplate marriage. The play set the stage, presenting contingencies which might arise, and then left the subject open for discussion.

Those participating were: Miss Marcia Newland, Miss Janet Harpham, Miss Joyce Harpham, Miss Peggy Williams, and Don Carr. Mrs. N. D. Johnson, president, and Mrs. Maurice Newland, program chairman, expressed to the young people the Society's appreciation for their extremely interesting program.

Hostesses for the potluck luncheon were: Mrs. B. E. Leas, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Marsters and Mrs. E. S. Hall.

The guests introduced were: Mrs. Fred Knight, Mrs. W. H. Richardson and Mrs. E. G. Young. Mrs. Young was welcomed as a new member.

Those attending were the Mesdames N. D. Johnson, M. J. Newland, Ivan Pickens, F. M. Jones, Miss Effie Reich, G. E. Sawyers, G. G. Sewell, W. M. Campbell, Otto Gosnell, W. C. Thurlow, Ida Bailey, F. R. Cunningham, Mary Travis, J. Gillis Carlson and Mrs. W. M. Chalmers.

KRNR

Now that the convention is definitely over on the Republican side of the ledger, KRNR can get back to normal programming. . . and it is advisable to note a few changes again. . . Tuesdays find the Theatre of the Air out of the 8 p.m. slot. The Theatre will be heard each Saturday at 8 p.m. On Tuesdays "The Count of Monte Cristo" cavorts adventurously for a half hour at 8 p.m. (It always takes the Count 30 minutes to straighten things out. . . the troubles seem to be timed in such a fashion that it takes a half hour to square them away. . . but the Count is a pretty clever guy, and he always comes out top waddy in the French rangeland that is the area covered by Monte Cristo.) . . so for a half hour of sterling drama with a French accent yet, tune KRNR at 8 p.m. each Tuesday for the "Count of Monte Cristo." The 8:30 p.m. slot finds one of Mutual's really fine programs, "Information Please" . . . a half hour of wit and wisdom expounded with remarkable ease by Adams, Kieran, and guest, all held together by the guiding hand of Clifton Fadiman. He is so brilliant, even his friends call him Mr. Fadiman.

This is supposed to have really happened. . . Mutual Don-Lee's "Tello-Test" quizmaster, Mel Venter, claims during the week, he phoned a lady and posed the query: "Who was Romeo in love with before he was in love with Juliet?" The housewife answered with assurance. "Jeannette MacDonald!" immediately after, Venter left on a vacation to rest his shattered nerves.
