Fire Destroys Grain Elevator, 2 Markets

BATTLEGROUND (AP) — A $200,000 fire leveled a grain elevator and two food markets here Sunday. Firemen said the fire apparently started in the Clark County Dairy-men's Association elevator. Cause was not determined.

Sparks from the burning elevator touched off another blaze in a market across the street and when the elevator collapsed it fell on the second market.

dinner Sunday night. They met sooner than they expected. While enroute to the restaurant, their cars collided at an intersection.

The men, John J. Shockey and Carl Markus, said they recognized each other just before the crash. Mrs. Shockey suffered head injuries and was hospitalized.
