

Society and Clubs

SUTHERLIN BRIDGE CLUB HAS RECENT SESSION

Beautiful arrangements of sweet-peas were used by Mrs. Fayette Thompson Wednesday, when she graciously entertained her bridge club at a tasty one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon at her home in Laurel Heights in Sutherlin.

Samba and contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. McCord winning high score for samba, and Mrs. Bielmann high score for bridge.

Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Thompson were: Mrs. Robert Hansen, Mrs. C. A. Petherick, Mrs. Albert Karcher, Mrs. C. J. Bielmann and Mrs. Claude Kesner.

The next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Spray Wednesday, July 23.

BAPTIST CHURCH HAS SEVERAL RECENT MEETS

The Roseburg Woman's Society of the First Baptist Church will meet at the church today at 1:30 p.m. for a dessert-luncheon. The meeting will start at 2 p.m. following a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Nettie Jurgens has charge of the program, and Ruth Smith is directing the luncheon.

The Sara Louise Circle met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Edith Lowery. Mrs. Lowery gave the program on conditions in China and Assam.

The Margaret Jump Circle met at the church last Thursday. In the absence of the president, Myrtle Kinyon, the vice-president, conducted the session. Grace Richey read poetry. One poem was written by a personal friend of hers, Mary Setekorm, who is a missionary at the Kodiak Baptist Mission in Kodiak, Alaska. Roll call was answered with a Scripture verse. The closing prayer was given by Ethel Beaver. The next meeting will be held at the home of Helen Lehn.

The Thelma Allen Circle met last Thursday at the home of Mae Crawford with 13 members present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Madge Wilhoit. Opening prayers and devotion were read by Rita Wright. The mission study was given by Reda Garrett. The topic was Alaska churches and missions. Mrs. Wilhoit resigned as president and Melba Mobley was elected to the position. Mae Crawford was appointed work chairman. The next meeting will be held at the home of Jessie Kvridera, with Roxie Peavey as co-hostess.

The Marguerite Nicholson Circle met at the home of Mrs. George Hensell, 127 Cobb St., with Mrs. Hensell and Mrs. Mary Habel as co-hostess. Betty Bowers was guest speaker. She gave an interesting talk about Marguerite Nicholson, who is a missionary in Japan. Mrs. Bowers is a personal friend of hers. Ten members and three guests were present.

The men's Fellowship of the church invited their families to a picnic last Friday evening at Umpqua Park. A very enjoyable time was had by all who attended. Sunday evening, after the evening services, a sing-spiration was enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

ROSEBURG REBEKAH LODGE HAS MEETING AND INSTALLATION

Roseburg Rebekah Lodge met for a regular session in the lodge hall the evening of July 8. Noble Grand Minnie South opened the meeting. Roll of her officers was called, after which the meeting was turned over to district deputy president, Thella Webber who proceeded with the installation of the new officers. The district deputy was assisted by the following officers: marshal, Lena Poole; warden, Alice Goff; secretary, Mamie Dimmick; treasurer, Velma Herman; musician, Ina Farnsworth; chaplain, Gertrude Hatfield; inside guardian, Ona Williams; outside guardian, Maggie Dent. Noble Grand Minnie South was invested with her past Noble Grand's regalia and escorted to the Past Noble Grand's chair. Ada Hana was then installed as Noble Grand and Faye Jensen as vice grand. The incoming secretary, Thella Flesham, was not present. Etta Rogers was installed as treasurer; Evelyn Cyrus as warden; Kay Snyder as conductor; Kay Simmons as chaplain; Betty Neureiter as musician; Helen Hebard, inside guardian, and Vivian Logsdon, outside guardian. Daynise Beach was installed as right supporter of the noble grand; Maggie Dent, left supporter of the noble grand; Lena Poole, right supporter of the vice grand, and Hattie Guerin, left supporter of the vice grand.

Noble Grand Ada Hana then proceeded with the business meeting. She appointed the following committees for the coming term: Visiting committee: Blanche Marr, Mamie Dimmick, Mabel Lange, Velma Herman, Helena Hayes, Alice Hornbuckle and Reba Hartley; courtesy committee: Lydia Roadman, Bertha Bayliss, Mabel Wilson, Emma Taylor, Della Hutchings, Inga High; good of the order, Thella Webber and Edith Brock; education, LaVerne Nickens; cards and flowers, Fay Clark; press and correspondence, Elizabeth Winn; fraternal press, Esther Burr; community service, Nona Thompson, Mamie Fett and Susie Jackson. The refreshment committee for the next meeting is Aurelia McGhee and Florence Klatt, co-chairmen, Ari McGhee, Louise Young and Mattie Gonnell.

Much discussion and planning was held concerning the President's visit which will be the next meeting, Tuesday, July 22. It was decided not to have initiation but rather to have a program.

The good of the order committee is preparing the program. Lena Poole was appointed to purchase a gift for the president, Thella Webber. Lena Poole and Elizabeth Winn volunteered to decorate for the president's visit. Velma Herman was appointed to make arrangements for a banquet to be held in the President's honor.

TENMILE LADIES CLUB HAS RECENT SESSION

The Tenmile Ladies Club met Wednesday at the clubhouse for their regular meeting and pollux dinner. The hostesses were Mrs. Kate Mack and Mrs. Alice Pierce. The rooms were decorated with several bouquets of beautiful flowers.
