In Spy Case Yanked

LONDON (U.S.)—Russia bowed to Britain's demand Thursday and agreed to withdraw Soviet embassy diplomat Pavel Kuznetsov from London after he was named in a British spy trial. Kuznetsov was ordered last Sunday to get out of the country within a week for his action in receiving official secrets from William Marshall, young British Foreign Office radio operator. Marshall was convicted July 10 of passing to Kuznetsov secret information of value to an enemy. He was sentenced to five years in prison.

TIME TO MOVE

LONG BEACH, Calif. (U.S.)—When Andrew Pala stood on Signal Hill in 1919 and enjoyed the view of the Pacific Ocean, he decided the hill was a good place to build his mansion.

Will Show New Tractor Models

The general public is invited by Joe Chamberlain, Interstate Tractor and Equipment Company manager in Roseburg, to attend the company's Announcement Day program, Saturday, July 19.

Announcement Day, Chamberlain reports, is to be featured by the first public showing of two new tractor models in the John Deere line. These two new general purpose tractors, Models "50" and "60," replace the "A" and "B" models, Chamberlain states.

In addition to the Announcement Day activities, it is planned, Chamberlain said, to keep a new model "60" on display at the Interstate Tractor and Equipment Company plant, Second Avenue South and Jackson street, until August 20. He also reports that Bill Miller, Interstate Farm Hand, will be present Announcement Day to discuss details of the machines and arrange several public demonstrations during the next 30 days.

600 home was completed, oil was discovered nearby. Signal Hill soon bristled with wells making it an uncomfortable place to live.

But the Palas were reluctant to leave. However, when a well caught fire behind their home and burned for three days, Mrs. Pala decided it was time to move out.

LE HARVE WELCOMES NEW QUEEN — He's a general view in the harbor at Le Harve, France as the new Queen of the Atlantic, the liner United States, makes port at the end of her record-breaking maiden voyage. The ship is partially obscured by spray from welcoming tugs shooting streams of water into the air. The waterfront is lined with people watching the historic event. Suspect Captured

PORTLAND (U.S.)—Alex A. Popeko, 38, Chicago, was jailed here Wednesday after his capture as he fled from a bank where he attempted to cash a money order.

Police said it was one of $9000 worth of blank money orders which had been stolen in Chicago in January, 1951. Popeko had about $3000 in cash when arrested.

Police had been on the lookout since Tuesday when banks found several forged money orders had been cashed in the city.

Popeko was charged with attempting to obtain money under false pretenses.

ANGLERS, BEWARE!

WASHINGTON (U.S.)—It's against the law to haul illegally caught fish across state lines. What's more, it may cost you as much as $200 or three months in jail if you get caught doing it.

The penalty was set up in a bill signed by President Truman Thursday authorizing the government to intervene against the practice.
