Mary Ellen McKay And Max B. Hiatt Marry

The First Methodist Church was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when Miss Mary Ellen McKay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. McKay, of Roseburg, became the bride of Max Bruce Hiatt, of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hiatt of Hillsboro, June 28. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Fell, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Wilbur and Sutherlin, at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

White gladioli and white stock formed the large floor baskets, which were flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles. The altar bouquet and the large arrangement on the choir rail were also of white gladioli and white stock. Esther Reed daisies and white satin ribbons marked the center aisle pews. A white aisle cloth was used.

Mrs. Gordon Stewart, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Joseph Deets, who sang, "Because," and "O, Perfect Love." Mrs. Stewart played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride's entrance.

Mrs. Richard Bartle of Salem and Miss Kay Evensen, wearing pastel gowns and with begonia corsages, lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of heavy white slipper satin with long Chantilly lace sleeves, lace bodice and a full court train. Her veil of imported French lace over illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap with orange blossoms at each side. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. C. R. Hicks (Fredricka Hamilton) of Roseburg was matron of honor, and wore a gown of pale yellow with a net skirt and lace bodice. She wore matching mitts and half-hat and carried a bouquet of fuchsia-colored carnations.

Mrs. Robert Goodlin and Mrs. Donald Beam of Portland; Miss Leona Anderson of Tillamook, and Miss Virginia Gibbons of Roseburg, were bridesmaids. Their gowns of pale green were fashioned identical to the matron of honor's and they carried bouquets of yellow carnations. They wore matching half-hats.

Little Peggy Ostrander of Roseburg, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a white gown trimmed in rosebuds. She carried a basket of rosebuds.

John Hiatt, Portland, and David Hiatt and Bob Hiatt, Hillsboro, also brothers of the bridegroom; Del McKay, Roseburg, brother of the bride, and Donald Beam, Portland, were ushers. The men in the wedding party wore white dress coats with roses for boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink gown with a pink tulle headband, long white gloves, and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue gown with matching headband of tulle and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. A. B. Taylor was in charge. Mrs. Kenneth Ford and Mrs. Taylor arranged the large bouquets in the hallway and about the social hall, while Mrs. Earl Wiley decorated the bride's table.

The bride's table was placed before a trellis holding sprays of pink roses. A white organy cloth, bordered with a deep ruffle, over a chartreuse foundation, covered the table. The ruffle was caught up with satin bows and tiny wedding bells. Two large brass candelabra centered the table holding 14 chartreuse candles, at the base of which were twined Cecil Brunner roses. From the center of the candles were white satin ribbons draped with white bells. Cecil Brunner roses were used to fill a miniature gold and chartreuse carriage on the back of which hung tiny golden slippers and the sign, "Just Married." Flanking the carriage were brass Angel chimneys.

The four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Walter Brown of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ned Dixon of Roseburg. Mrs. Alex Thomson of Portland and Mrs. Earl Wiley of Roseburg presided at the coffee urns and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Tacoma, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. I. J. Bean of Roseburg, served the punch. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Jim Burrows, Mrs. James Coffel, Mrs. Larrie Lahren and Miss Dorothy Thomson. Mrs. Donald Rogan was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending were: Mrs. Walter Brown, Miss Gwen Vick, Miss Lucille Richey, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thomson and daughter, Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. James Coffel, Portland; Mrs. William Hughes, San Diego, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Snellstrom, Eugene; Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Tacoma; Mrs. Larrie Lahren, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lehmann, Eureka, Calif.; Rev. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, Eugene; George McGee, Coos Bay, uncle of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hiatt and sons, David and Bob, of Hillsboro.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue wool crepe suit with white linen collar and cuffs. She wore a navy hat and her accessories were also navy. Following a honeymoon to Victoria, B. C., and other points in Canada, the couple is now at home to their friends at 5525 N. E. Sandycrest Terrace, Portland.

The bride attended the Roseburg schools and was graduated from University of Oregon. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. For the last three years, she has been teaching in the Portland public schools. The bridegroom attended Vanport College and recently completed advanced training at the Multigraph Company School in Cleveland, Ohio. He is employed by the Multigraph Sales Agency in Portland.

Pink flowers and tall white candles formed the decorations. Besides Mary Ellen and Max, those present were: Miss Leona Anderson, Tillamook; Bob DeArmond, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beam, Miss Kay Evensen, John Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thomson and daughter, Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. James Coffel, Mrs. Walter Brown and Mrs. Robert Goodlin, all of Portland; Mrs. Richard Bartle, Salem; Robert and David Hiatt, Hillsboro; Mrs. Charles Snellstrom, Eugene; Mrs.
