McKay-Gibbons Wedding Large Event Saturday

Dark red gladioli in large floor baskets flanked the altar rail, while bouquets of white gladioli and candelabra holding tall white candles formed the altar decorations for the wedding Saturday, July 12, of Miss Virginia Colbourn Gibbons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gibbons, and Harold Delwin McKay Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. McKay, all of Roseburg. The double ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. George's Episcopal Church by Rev. Alfred Tyson in the presence of 200 guests. The bows centered with single gladioli blossoms in deep red marked the aisle pews.

Acolytes, David Montgomery and Frank Webster, lighted the candles. Mrs. R. B. Hershele played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Duane Maddox of Medford, who sang, "O. Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net with panels of lace in the skirt and full train. The long sleeves were of lace. A tiny plaited veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Phalaenopsis, Amabilis orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Sherry Antony of Medford was maid of honor and Miss Jean Gibbons, sister of the bride; Mrs. Max Hiatt, nee Mary Ellen McKay, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Nancy Lageson of Medford were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of yellow eyelet embroidered organza and carried sprays of deep red gladioli.

Carolyn Wimberly, dressed in pale yellow, and Lee Wimberly, wearing a white suit, served as flower girl and ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wimberly Jr., of Medford and the grandchildren of Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly Sr., of Roseburg.

Lloyd Anderson of Oakland was best man and ushers were James Helliwell, George Luoma, Robert Sullivan, Roseburg, and Max B. Hiatt, Portland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with nylon net overskirt. She wore a matching beige-colored flower hat and beige gloves. Her corsage was green cymbidium lowianum orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue crepe and lace dress with a pink net hat and pink gloves. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the parish hall. The bride's table was covered by a hand-drawn linen cloth and centered with a silver bowl filled with mixed white blossoms, flanked by silver candelabra holding tall white tapers. Large bouquets of deep red gladioli were used about the room.

Mrs. Dwight Findley and Mrs. Fitzhugh Brewer of Medford cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Byard Getchell and Mrs. Burt Lageson of Medford served the punch. Miss Janny Lou Houghton, Medford, had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, Dr. and Mrs. A. Erin Merkel and daughter, Sharon Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Bender, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bates and daughter and son, Sandra and Richard; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr., and children, Carolyn and Lee; Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mrs. Edwin Durno, Charles Lemery, Robert Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George Maddox, Mrs. William Singler, Miss Donna Sherwood, Miss Lovelle Davies, Dr. and Mrs. Burt Lageson, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Brewer and Mrs. Byard Getchell, all of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Dwyer, North Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton, Eugene.

For traveling the bride chose a silk faille suit of blue and white check with a white straw hat trimmed with small navy blue velvet bows. Her corsage was two
