UMPUQA FOREST WOODMEN CIRCLE HAS SESSION

The Umpqua Grove No. 51 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle held an interesting meeting Monday night, July 7. All officers but two were present. Three new members were balloted on to be taken into the lodge. They are Mrs. Almiria Dyer, Mrs. Evelyn Black and Ruby Dorrah. Mrs. Isabel Holm was given the obligation. Mrs. Vivian Borgaas, president, conducted the business meeting. All committee chairmen gave reports of their activities. Mrs. Lucy Benson was appointed chairman of the investigating committee to replace Mrs. Bette Simpson who recently moved to California.

Mrs. Phoebe McGuire, district manager, gave a detailed account of the recent accomplishments of the "Good of the Society" committee. A going away handkerchief shower was given in honor of Mrs. Rosemary Wright who left for New Mexico and Mrs. Bette Simpson who moved to Visalia, Calif. A gift was presented to Mrs. Helen Finley at a pink and blue shower party. Two decorated cars were driven in the Sheriff's Posse Rodeo parade carrying a large banner for the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle. Mrs. McGuire, in her report, said she had received a wire from state manager, Mrs. Zeldia K. Puckett, stating that the State had gone "over the top" in new members, because of the instituting of the new Umpqua Grove.

Mrs. Puckett has recently returned from the state managers meeting at Omaha, Neb. Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury was welcomed back into the order following recent surgery.

The roller skating club meeting was announced for Tuesday night. Mrs. Helen Finley was appointed chairman of the sick and distress committee. Mrs. Jo Lesher, refreshment chairman, announced the next three members to serve were Mrs. Bunny Albertus, Mrs. Lucy Benson and Mrs. Peggy Benson. It was decided to have officer's meeting the second Wednesday in the month.

WOODMEN CIRCLE FETES MRS. PHEBE MCGUIRE

The officers and chairmen of the Umpqua Grove of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle were entertained at the home of the district manager, Mrs. Phoebe McGuire, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. During the business session conducted by Mrs. McGuire, she encouraged all committees to get together to work out problems. Welfare committee, with Mrs. Reba Buttler, chairman, Mrs. Albertus and Mrs. Willis are making tentative plans for future projects. The "Good of the Society" committee with Mrs. Jessie Thomas as chairman assisted by Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and Mrs. Isabel Hathaway were scheduled to hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Hathaway Monday afternoon. After the committee reports were discussed, the group studied regular meeting procedure, as outlined by the district manager, Mrs. McGuire.

The ladies agreed to help the men Sunday afternoon after the institution of the Omaha Woodmen Camp No. 55.

The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the evening.
