Here From Lake — Mrs. H. H. Hobi and three sons, Herbie, Bobby and Hermie, returned to their home on Reservoir Avenue, Roseburg, Monday night to spend a few days before returning to their summer place at Lake of the Woods, where the family is spending the summer months.

Returns To Coos Bay — Beverly and Kathy Weiss, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Weiss of Coos Bay, returned to their Coos Bay home this week following a six weeks visit at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Eager, on Hickory Rd., near Roseburg. Mrs. Weiss (Gwendolyn) is the daughter of the Eagers.

McClintock Home — Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClintock are back at their home in Westmoreland, Roseburg, following a trip to Portland to be with the latter's sister, Mrs. Alda Smith, of Independence, who suffered a broken back last week at her home. Mrs. Smith was taken to Providence Hospital in Portland for surgery.

BUILDING TUMBLES — Thirty automobiles and trucks were covered when the building of a Fresno, Calif., garage collapsed. Fire department officials called to the scene attributed the destruction to heat expansion. The building had just been reroofed. No one was injured or killed, though only seconds before the crash, a man had parked a car next to the building. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Russell In Race To Finish; Raps 'Radical' Group

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Richard Russell said Tuesday he will be in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination until the finish.

Earlier in the day, Rep. Eugene Cox of Georgia had said it was possible that Russell's name would not be put into nomination.

Russell, a Georgian also, denied such reports and issued this statement:

"Reports evidently circulated by my opponents that I had withdrawn or contemplated withdrawing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for presidency are completely false. I hope no one has been deceived by this oldest of all political tricks.

"I am more determined than ever to prevent the Democratic party from being taken over completely by a few radical leaders of Americans for Democratic Action working in association with the few labor bosses.

"A great majority of the members of the Democratic party, including millions of members of labor unions and many members of ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) are opposed to completely surrendering the party and the country through the control of this radical group.

Says Chances Strengthened

"The revelation of this conspiracy contained in Vice President Barkley's statement has greatly strengthened my candidacy.

"As a life long Democrat, I have no thought of being driven from this Democratic convention—thus much less leaving voluntarily—by a group led by those either formerly associated with the Socialist party or one who came into public life as the nominee of the American Labor party."

Rep. Cox is an oldtime Southern Democrat and it was apparent that Russell's statement was aimed at others.

Cox is a delegate from Georgia. He made his statement to a reporter shortly after he had left a closed caucus meeting of the Georgia delegation where the group had gone on record as unambiguously opposed to signing a loyalty pledge voted by the national convention.
