

Henry Hanson, 66, Dies After Long Illness

Henry Hanson, 66, resident of Roseburg and formerly of Longview, Wash., passed away at his home at 1201 North Stephens St. on Wednesday, July 23, following a prolonged illness. He was born April 15, 1886 at Lake City, Minn., and came to Longview, Wash., about 36 years ago. He was married there on March 19, 1933 to Lillian McClellan Pohl who preceded him in death in May, 1946.

Mr. Hanson was employed for many years with the Public Utilities District at Longview and came to Roseburg a little over two months ago following his retirement. He was a member of the Christian Science church and of the Masonic Lodge.

Surviving are his step-daughter, Mrs. H. W. (Audrey) Johansen, Roseburg; three sisters, Mrs. O. J. Nelson of St. Peter, Minn.; Miss Olga Hanson and Mrs. John Gamm, both of Lake City, Minn., and two grandchildren, Alan Johansen, Eugene, Ore., and Suzanne Johansen, Roseburg.

with their 1st convention votes at a pre-season caucus.

Californiaans, backing Kefauver, heard a plea from Rep. Clinton McKinnon, their chairman, to stand firm.

McKinnon told them: "The bandwagon is rolling in the direction of Stevenson. But if we can hold the line—if we can stop Stevenson on the second ballot, the votes for favorite son candidates and others can be diverted to Kefauver."

The Kansas votes raised to 182 the total of known prospective first ballot votes for Stevenson, as disclosed by an AP poll of delegates.

Kefauver has 263, Russell 195 and Harriman 107.

Texas Back Russell

Texas decided in a caucus to put all of its 52 votes behind Russell. Only 22 1/2 of them previously had been committed to him, so the move shoved the Russell count at this point up to 195.

The Stevenson boom got another boost when Gov. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts announced he would vote for the Illinois governor on the second ballot.

He said he had made no recommendation to other delegates as to how they should vote.

The 26 Massachusetts votes were to go to Dever on the first ballot as a favorite son.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago.
— Two close associates said Thursday President Truman has passed along the word that he prefers Adlai E. Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The two party leaders said Truman's decision had been made in the light of a swiftly-moving draft behind Stevenson's reluctant candidacy.

Truman has kept silent publicly about his preference, apparently to avoid becoming involved in a convention fight that might not turn out satisfactory from his standpoint.

Stevenson has indicated to friends that if he accepts the nomination, he would want it to come to him without any administration strings attached.

For that reason, Truman was said to have withheld any word, even privately, until he was satisfied that none of the other candidates had a chance to get the No. 1 post.

Glendale Women Suffer Facial Burns From Gas

Maurice McDowell of Glendale suffered second degree burns about the face when escaping gas ignited just after the valve was turned accidentally. Burns were painful but will not be disabling.

Dr. Ferguson, Glendale physician, administered treatment.

NEW UNIVERSITY PREXY PORTLAND

The Rev. Michael J. Gavin Wednesday became president of Portland University, succeeding the Rev. Robert H. Sweeney. The Rev. James Anderson is the new vice-president.

Enrollment at the university is expected to be higher this fall, Father Sweeney said.

Tickets For Convention Headache For Secretary

small grazer, to fight for my own ticket.

Personal Ordeal Told
Might add that I didn't get very far either. After walking up five flights of stairs on this steaming hot day, I banged on the indicated door. Finally a head appeared in the transom, disappeared and somebody inside said "yes, it's a woman." Then another voice: "Wait a minute Lady, we're just cooling off." After an appreciable pause, I entered the room to the press ticket staff, all appropriately clad but extremely hot and ruffled. Tickets here, too, are non-existent.

Accepted garb for males at this convention is rolled shirt-sleeves and no tie, thanks to the steam-bath weather. Some die-hards cling to those pint-size bow-ties but if the weatherman is right, they too are doomed.

The women either have more stamina or are luckier. At the huge Democratic women's opening dinner, no one gave an inch to the humidity. Women delegates and alternates admired pretty Mrs. Alben Barkley as she laughingly sparred with photographers, dug into half a cantaloupe, and managed to look girlish and unruffled in white organdie embroidered in navy blue.

Next to her Mrs. Perle Mesta, minister to Luxemburg, flashed her inimitable warm smile and managed to make all the 1,400 guests feel at home. She wore a French import of grey taffeta with a gold-spangled stole which failed to hide her handsome shoulders.

On the other side was Mrs. Engenie Anderson, ambassador to Denmark, in white nylon net printed in varicolored designs. Mrs. Anderson, trim, pretty and 43, struck a blow for America at her press conference. She is America's only woman ambassador and was busily answering questions on European politics when a lone male reporter said timidly, "would you please tell me what you have on and where you got it?"

Mrs. Anderson obliged with a non-technical description and added that, like all her other clothes she bought it in Minneapolis.

FINED ON 2 CHARGES

Larry Edward Hunter, 22, Sutherlin, was fined a total of $50 Wednesday in district court on charges of petty larceny and operating a car with revoked driver's license.

Barkley Given Roaring Convention Ovation

ing a tremendous salute. It went on for 24 minutes.

Finally, they let him speak. He had no manuscript and the teleprompter was blank and dark. He said he had not had time, "since I received this invitation," to write a speech.

He said, "I am not here as a convention can confer."

In the back of the hall, and in the galleries, a chorus welled up "No—No."

The "veep" shook his head. He put on his glasses. A film of perspiration began to shine on his neck. As he spoke, reviewing the 20-year record of the Democrats, his voice began to gather volume and momentum. He said: "I believe the programs of the Democratic party give the greatest good to the greatest number of the American people and if I did not believe that, I would join some other party that does believe in those eternal and immortal principles."

Then he turned to the Republicans, recalling that Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, had said he was going to lead a crusade.

"We are not beginning a crusade," Barkley shouted. "We are continuing a crusade. A crusade to see to it that every child born of woman should be born under conditions making it easy for him to live in a normal, wholesome atmosphere, and with a chance for education to prepare himself for the burdens and responsibilities of life."

"The administrations of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman have given the American people a greater share in the enjoyment of the fruit of their labor than any other administration in the history of the United States," he said.

MAN FINED $40

Judge Ira B. Riddle today levied a total fine of $40 on William Hugh Adkins, 318 Fullerton St., after Adkins pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, according to Municipal Court records.

GRASS FIRE QUELLED

The Rural Fire Department answered a call to the north end of Fairmount Street in North Roseburg, where a permit fire got out of control and spread over about an acre of grass Wednesday about 7:30 p.m. There was no damage and the fire was quickly controlled.

Salvation Army Leader Coming

Conducting special meetings this weekend at the Salvation Army Chapel will be Lt. Col. Harold Madsen of East Oakland, Calif., the father of Lt. D. W. Madsen, who is in command of the Army's work here.

Col. Madsen was born and educated in Denmark and came to this country as a contractor. During revival meetings of Gypsy Smith, he made the decision for full time service in the Salvation Army.

Through the years he has gone on to be noted as one of the outstanding spiritual leaders of the Army, holding the position of National Evangelist. He is in constant demand over the nation and has been main speaker at many national church conferences.

He will be speaking Saturday night and Sunday all day. During the Sunday morning service, Ann Christine, the infant daughter of his son and wife will be dedicated.

LOGGER FINED

Two logging operators were cited to district court on charges of fire season violations.

H. G. Powell pleaded guilty to using powder to top trees and paid a $50 fine Wednesday.

Tom Clark pleaded innocent to failure to obtain a permit to operate power machinery near forest area.

ERROR CORRECTED

William John Tucker, fined in district court for operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license, is not a member of the Sutherlin police force. A headline error in Wednesday's News-Review identified him as a policeman. He is not so employed.

Steel Strike Must End, Truman's Ultimatum

else" of any ultimatum would be. Truman went about as far as a president could go when he seized the industry in April.

But the Supreme Court told him in June he had no right to do that. The strike followed immediately.

Defense Plans Threatened

Hanging over the talks was the threat of paralysis of the nation's defense effort.

Secretary of Defense Lovett said Wednesday that because of the strike—the longest ever in the steel industry—"somewhere between 20 and 30 per cent" of the expected arms production for 1952 would be lost.

Possibility of a crippling strike in a second vital industry—coal—made the picture even darker.

John L. Lewis was reported to have notified at least part of the soft coal industry the present contracts will end in two months.

Judging from past experience, that means a strike or slowdown in coal fields is all but inevitable if a new contract is not signed by Sept. 22.
