EVERGREEN GRANGE TO SPONSOR FILM FRIDAY NIGHT

A one-hour colored film on cancer will be shown at the Evergreen Grange Hall at 8:45 p.m. Friday, July 25. There will be no charge and following the showing of the film, a question period will take place for those interested in more information.

The film has been highly recommended to the public. All Grange members are especially urged to attend and residents of Green, Winston and Dillard are also invited.

SUTHERLIN SQUARE DANCERS ENJOY PICNIC

The past weekend found the Sutherlin Square Dancers busy with a meeting and a picnic Saturday, July 19, the club met at the Grange Hall with Mr. and Mrs. Steve Inda and Mr. and Mrs. Arthly Cass as hosts and hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Inda and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Steinbach were voted upon to become new members.

The evening was spent square dancing, and, at a late hour, refreshments were served.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Leisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Inda and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barker, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ponken, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nicolazzi, Mr. and Mrs. Art Cass, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cornish, Jonetta Gallo of Yakima, Wash.; Sandy Clark, Jimmy Inda and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mansueti.

The club met Sunday at the Rod and Gun Club for the annual picnic. About 50 attended.

The afternoon was spent swimming, playing horse shoes, cards and baseball. Later, the group square danced.

ST. JOHN'S LADIES AID HAS RECENT SESSION

The Ladies Aid of the St. Johns Lutheran Church of Sutherlin met last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church for a regular meeting.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Lavern Murphy, and various matters of business were discussed. Various committees gave interesting reports.

Members who have the traveling basket are urged to bring the basket to the meetings so that it can be passed around among the members.

The balance of the evening was spent sewing, knitting and crocheting on articles for various projects. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Lewis Swanson, to the following members: Mrs. Ray Welder, Mrs. Keith Dies, Mrs. Clarence Malitz, Mrs. Mary Riesenweber, Mrs. Alma Anderson, Mrs. Menno Miller, Mrs. Paul Urban, Mrs. Lavern Murphy and Mrs. Woodrow Martinson.

Mrs. Paul Urban invited the organization to meet at her home near Umpqua August 21, at 7:30 o'clock. The men and children are invited to attend.

It was announced that there would be no Guild during the month of August.

SUTHERLIN KNIT CLUB HAS WEDNESDAY SESSION

Mrs. Woodrow Martinson entertained her knitting club Wednesday at a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at her home west of Sutherlin. The table was centered with a pretty bouquet of summer flowers.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Herman Larson, Mrs. Allan Tutill, Mrs. L. H. Beaudrie, Mrs. Keith Dies, Mrs. Mary Riesenweber and the hostess, Mrs. Martinson.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent knitting, crocheting and other hand work.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 30, at the home of Mrs. Larson.

SUTHERLIN WSCS HAS THURSDAY MEETING

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Sutherlin met Thursday for a business meeting with Mrs. Edna Campbell, president, conducting the session.

Various matters of business were transacted, and a silent auction was held. The proceeds went towards the payment of the new refrigerator purchased for the parsonage.

Those present were served tea by Mrs. Douglas Geddes and were: Mrs. Ray Parker, Mrs. Ward Watson, Mrs. Henry Campbell, Mrs. Orville French and Mrs. Robert Weaver.

The Amaranth Social Club is holding a potluck dinner tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. at Umpqua Park. Members are cordially invited and requested to bring table service.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEETS

The Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met in regular session recently. The group was engaged in hospital work before the noon luncheon was served.

Devotions were presented by Chairman Emma Beckley. The business meeting followed with the reading of the closing reports of the year. All accounts reportedly been paid, and a surplus is shown.

The new objective for the coming year is the Hansen Mission at Hindman, Ky. The study of leprosy, under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Coffell, was presented by Edith S. Ackert. One meeting per year will be dedicated to leprosy work.

Officers chosen for the coming year include: president, Elsie Coffell; vice president, Edith S. Ackert; treasurer, Ethel White; librarian, Etta Wilson; devotional chairman, Emma Beckley.

All are invited to the next meeting August 8. This will be an all day session starting with hospital work in the morning with a sack lunch being served at noon. The business session will continue in the afternoon.

Ladies attending were Elsie Coffell, Ethel White, Mary Plumer, Fay Clark, Emma Beckley, Etta Wilson, Edith S. Ackert, Ruth Frohnmader, Alice Mahn, Valetta Taylor and Blanch Marr.

FAIR OAKS H.E. CLUB HAS SESSION FRIDAY

Fair Oaks Home Economics club met Friday at the Fair Oaks Clubhouse for a delightful potluck dinner and business meeting with Mrs. Ardell Loerts as hostess. The tables were arranged in a very pretty manner and centered with a beautiful bouquet of summer flowers.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Loerts, and roll call was answered by: Mrs. Maggie Francis, Mrs. Jennie Harrison, Mrs. Billie Williams, Mrs. Jo Carr, Mrs. Harold Austin, Mrs. Loerts and three guests, Mrs. J. Hoover, Beverly Michael and Jack Loerts.

Several matters of business were brought before the members. It was decided that at the next meeting there would be no sewing for the Hall, and all members are urged to be present.

Roll call for the August 15 meeting will be "How I Fixed It." After all business was transacted, the members sewed on curtains for the hall.

EVERGREEN GRANGE SLATES BUSINESS MEET

The Evergreen Grange will have a business session at the Hall Thursday, July 25. A potluck supper will precede the regular business meeting.

All members are urged to attend.
