EDNA MAY WILLIAMSON BECOMES BRIDE OF RICHARD H. WALKER

Word has been received from Asheville, Va. of the marriage of Miss Edna May Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williamson, of Asheville and Richard Huntington Walker, son of Mrs. Paul Radtke of Yoncalla. The ceremony took place early in June.

Rev. Douglas Corriher, pastor of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Paul Wright, vocalist, and Mrs. Charles Glass organist. White gladioli, ferns and tall white lighted candles were used in decorating.

The bride was beautiful in a white nylon net gown, made ballerina length, fashioned over white satin. The bodice was made of Chantilly lace. Her Juliet head-dress was trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jane Hopper of Asheville was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of pale blue nylon net over satin, and a cap of spring flowers. Miss Mary Etta Keith served as bridesmaid. She was dressed like the maid of honor in pink.

James W. Williamson Jr., brother of the bride, was best man, and ushers were J. E. Reister, uncle of the bride, and Tom Mason.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reister. The table was centered with a large three-tiered wedding cake, and covered with a Madera table cloth.

The bride was graduated from Lee Edwards High School and attended Asheville Biltmore College. Cpl. Walker was educated in Yoncalla and is now stationed in California with the Engineer Corps. He expects to be shipped out soon. Mrs. Walker will remain in the East, where she has a position in Washington, D.C.

SGT. MARSHALL R. HUNT, son of Mrs. C. W. Hunt of Clatskanie, Ore., formerly of Roseburg, who is serving in Darmstadt, Germany, and his bride, the former Miss Brita Soederling of Helsinki, Finland, discuss the Olympic Games being held in her home city. Their marriage took place in the 1st Infantry Division Headquarters chapel in Darmstadt July 4. The couple met while working in the same building, the sergeant as sports editor for the 1st Infantry Division newspaper, The American Traveler, and his wife as a member of the Public Information Office. Sgt. Hunt entered the Army in 1940 after 12 years on the staff of The News-Review. After serving in the South Pacific during World War II, he left the Army, but re-enlisted in 1946 and was assigned to the European Command in 1949. (U.S. Army Photo)
