

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT F. MORLEY, above, looking over Lake Oswego before their wedding breakfast. Below, the bride is photographed during the traditional presentation ceremony at the altar of the Blessed Virgin, Maryhurst College Chapel. The bride was Nancy Judith Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harold Nichols, Roseburg, before her marriage June 28. (Pictures by Dore Studio, Portland)

Nancy Judith Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harold Nichols of Roseburg, became the bride of Robert Fredrick Morley, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morley of Pasadena, Calif., June 28 at the Church of the Madeleine, Portland. Rev. James F. Dillon performed the nuptial Mass at 10 o'clock in the morning in the presence of 175 guests.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white stock and greenery and candelabra. White stock marked the aisle. Preceding the ceremony, the organist played hymns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bouffant, floor-length white organza gown with a full train and a train falling from the shoulders. Her embroidered Juliet cap held the illusion veiling, which was tied under the chin. She carried a cascade of rosebuds and sweetpeas.

Miss JoAnn Morley, Pasadena, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Mrs. Cameron Pearson, Newberg; Mrs. James Apperson, McMinnville, sisters of the bride, and Miss Betty Vollstedt, McMinnville, were bridesmaids. They wore street-length faille-sheath white dresses with organza overskirts and stoles. Their pumps were purple to match their ribbon sashes. They wore white gloves and carried garden bouquets of pastel-colored sweetpeas with matching headbands.

Ray Holm, Portland, was best man and Frank Leehan, Portland; Alan Vuylstake, Forest Grove, and Dick Brown, Portland, were ushers.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the bridal party at a wedding breakfast at the Lakeside party room in Oswego, after which the bridal party went to Maryhurst College (Alma Mater of the bride) for the traditional ceremony, when the bride places her bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Virgin at the Maryhurst Chapel. Following the ceremony, a reception was held for 80 guests at the Cameo Room at the Hotel Multnomah. The wedding cake was decorated in pale pink. The floral arrangements were in purple shades. Mrs. Francis Vollstedt, McMinnville, and Mrs. Paul Elliott, formerly of Roseburg and now of Oak Ridge, Ore., aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Adna M. Boyd, Portland, cut the cake; Miss Janet Elliott, Roseburg, cousin of the bride, served the punch and Miss Ursula Bloomquist of Olympia was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Hal Cuffel and Mrs. Richard Bennette of McMinnville had charge of the gifts. Misses Patty and Jane Vollstedt of McMinnville passed out the confetti to guests from decorated baskets to shower the bride and bridegroom as they left for their honeymoon.

For traveling the bride wore an oyster shell shantung coat dress. Her shoes and bag were of St. Louis blue and her hat and gloves were white. She wore a corsage of yellow roses. Following a honeymoon to points in southeastern Oregon, the couple will reside in Portland.

The bride attended Roseburg High School and Maryhurst College. Before her marriage, she was employed as a receptionist at the Roseburg Lumber Company. The bridegroom attended University of Portland and University of Hawaii. He is employed as assistant superintendent of quality control and spoilage for the American Can Company in Portland.

Rebekah Convention Of District 11 Held

The forty-sixth annual Rebekah Convention of District No. 11 met with Relief Rebekah Lodge No. 185, Riddle, in an all day session Wednesday, July 16. The morning session was opened by officers of the local lodge followed by the introduction and seating of convention officers. Olive Ramey, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, Edythe Florence Kelley, past president of International Rebekah Assembly and past president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, and Ethel Bailey, past president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, were among the distinguished guests introduced.

Mary Kummer of Riddle presided as convention chairman; Vera Olsen, Canyonville, vice-chairman; Evelyn Mann, secretary, and Nellie Peterson, treasurer. The address of welcome was given by Lora Willis with the response by Frances Hedden. Twelve past chairmen responded to roll call and were presented gifts in a tribute by Arbor Vitae No. 11 of Myrtle Creek.

After the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned until one-thirty o'clock for a potluck luncheon served in the Masonic Hall dining room. At the beginning of the afternoon session, members of the Roseburg lodge gave a beautiful and impressive service in tribute to the departed brothers and sisters of the order. Reports were read from the following lodges: Roseburg, Suther-lin, Elkton, Myrtle Creek, Canyonville, and Riddle; also from the P.N.G. clubs and F. L. Girls clubs. Members present from Roseburg 18, Sutherlin 12, Elkton 2, Myrtle Creek 9, Canyonville 7, Riddle 30, Gardiner 2, Mapleton 1. The president conducted an interesting question box, and different phases of the floor work were exemplified by the lodges. Myrtle Creek was selected as the hostess lodge for 1953.

The following officers were elected and installed: Lila Chamberlain, chairman; Vera Olsen, vice-chairman; Capitola Abbott, secretary; Emma Vandenberg, treasurer; Ann Simpson, warden; Winnifred Strode, conductor; Frances Hedden, chaplain; Esther Hogg, musician; Luella Pluehard, I.G.; Lois Howe, O.G.; Lola Osborne, R.S.C.; Lena Poole, L.S.C.

A number of the convention visitors remained for the evening session which was given over to Relief Rebekah Lodge as the regular meeting night. Olive Ramey, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, paid her official visit to the Riddle lodge. Mrs. Ramey was the house guest of Mrs. G. J. Aspey during her stay. Talks were given by President Ramey, Edythe Florence Kelley and Ethel Bailey. Under the good of the order, 16 members of the Riddle lodge, in white formal, gave a drill honoring the president. The drill was conducted by Velma Klope.

Hunt Clan Reunion Is Large Affair

Sunday, July 20, the Hunt clan gathered at the beautiful picnic grounds on the banks of Calapooya Creek on the Giles Hunt ranch. This group included the descendants of John M. and Sarah Hunt and Jephtha S. and Nancy Hunt, who came to Oregon from Indiana in 1871.

John Hunt and his family made their home on the Calapooya near the mountains about ten miles east of Sutherlin. The family home still stands there and is only a short distance from where the picnic was held. Mr. Hunt was greatly interested in hunting and fishing and was a noted rifle man of his time.

Jephtha Hunt chose his home at Fair Oaks east of Sutherlin where his daughter, Laura Hunt, still resides. He was especially interested in the political development of the Oregon country. The John Hunt family was comprised of seven sons, James, George, Arthur, Charles, Herbert, Marion and Jephtha; and one daughter, Rebecca Hunt Thornton, all deceased.

Jephtha Hunt had two sons, Walter and Giles and Laura Hunt.

Of the 125 who gathered from near and far for the occasion, 73 were direct descendants of these two pioneer families, and all but 11 were relatives.

After enjoying the dinner, the afternoon was spent visiting and renewing acquaintances.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MURPHY leave the altar at the Sutherlin Methodist Church, following their marriage June 22. The bride is the former Shirley Jean Fickes, daughter of Mrs. Grace Fickes of Sutherlin. Below, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are photographed after the ceremony. (Pictures by Fredrickson's Photo Lab)

Shirley Jean Fickes, daughter of Mrs. Grace Fickes, of Sutherlin became the bride of William Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, of Myrtle Creek at an impressive ceremony Sunday, June 22, at 2 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Sutherlin. Rev. Lloyd Whitford performed the ceremony before a small group of friends and relatives.

Baskets of mixed flowers with greenery decorated the church. Organ music was played by Mrs. Howard Magill preceding the ceremony, and Nick Norton sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by Sgt. John Van Keuren of Great Falls, Mont., was charming in a white frosted organza, floor-length gown. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Patricia Fickes, sister-in-law of the bride, acted as matron of honor and wore a floor-length dress of pale green and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were, Eva Mary Fickes, Sutherlin, sister of the bride who wore a yellow floor-length dress, and Donna Beahm of Oakland who wore a lavender floor-length dress. Both carried nosegays of white carnations.

Harry Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Marvin Parks of Sutherlin and Howard Stacey of Roseburg.

The bride's mother wore a lavender suit with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was decorated with a bouquet of summer flowers, lighted candles and a three-tiered wedding cake. The first piece of cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, after which it was served by Mrs. Chester Williams, Mrs. Marvin Parks poured.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. C. Cleary of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fickes of Boise, Ida.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy blue and white suit with white accessories and a red carnation corsage. The couple will spend their honeymoon on a tour of points south and will be at home to their friends in Roseburg on their return.

The bride is employed at Roseburg Motors as a bookkeeper. She was graduated from Oakland High School.

The bridegroom is employed as a carpenter for M. and S. Construction Co. He was graduated from a California school.
