

Reception For Roseburg OES Officers Held At Lodge Hall

LARGEST EVENT OF THE YEAR was the reception given Saturday night by Roseburg Chapter, O.E.S., honoring Mrs. Carl (Leila) Wimberly, above left, Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, O.E.S., and Mrs. George (Beatrice) Churchill, right, at the Junior High School. Four-hundred and fifty friends from all parts of the state attended. Mrs. John William Robertson, Associate Matron of Roseburg Chapter, was general chairman of the reception and also for the tea held Saturday afternoon and the breakfast honoring Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Churchill Sunday morning. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

Three large affairs honoring the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Leila (Carl) Wimberly, and the Grand Chaplain, Mrs. Beatrice (George) Churchill, were given by Roseburg Chapter, O.E.S., Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. John William Robertson acting as general chairman.

Mrs. Wimberly, a past matron of Roseburg Chapter, and Mrs. Churchill, the present Worthy Matron, were guests of honor Saturday afternoon at a tea held from three to five-thirty o'clock in the Episcopal Parish Hall, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Sig Pett and Mrs. R. L. Whipple were in charge of the decorations. The table was covered with a handmade lace cloth with a bowl of magnolias and tall white candles at the end. Pink gladioli were used about the room. Mrs. Roy Catching was chairman of the serving and was assisted by Mrs. Robert N. Foster, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Robert Keefe, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. S. L. Kipper, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. George W. James, Mrs. O. A. Lange, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen. Mrs. Earl Wiley acted as hostess for the affair. Pouring were Mrs. S. L. Kipper, Mrs. W. E. Hercher, Mrs. V. J. Miceli, Miss Ethel Webb, Mrs. D. H. Lenox and Mrs. R. L. Whipple. Out-of-town guests and members attended the tea.

That evening at eight o'clock, all friends of Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Churchill were invited to join members of the Star in honoring them at a reception at the Junior High School. This affair was one of the most beautiful and colorful events of the season. Mrs. Wimberly wore a white chateau lace formal with rhinestone ornaments and Mrs. Churchill wore an azure blue nylon chiffon formal.

Mrs. Robertson asked Mrs. A. J. Ellison to take her place at the head of the receiving line, which included Mrs. Wimberly, Mrs. Churchill, George Churchill, Worthy Patron of Roseburg Chapter, and visiting Grand Officers. Mrs. Foster Butler made the wrist corsages for the evening. Mrs. guest books were in charge of Mrs. Ray B. Hamilton, Mrs. Gordon Stewart and Mrs. Ernest S. Wentjar. Mrs. Vance Shugart, Marshall, escorted the distinguished and honored guests to the East. Grand Officers escorted were Mrs. Wimberly, Mrs. Churchill, Elton Schroeder, Worthy Grand Patron; Averil Schroeder, Grand Marshal, and J. Claude Riffe, Grand Organist. There were present eighty Associate Matrons and Associate Patrons from Portland and vicinity who have been most helpful to the Worthy Grand Matron.

Grand Officers for the year being present beside those mentioned above include: Irene McKinley, Associate Grand Matron; Louise Irvin, Grand Conductress; Carlotta Wiseman, Associate Grand Conductress; Laura Rotschke, Grand Secretary; Marjorie Lee, Grand Treasurer; Josephine Graham, Grand Aca; Juanita Holsten, Grand Aca; Roberta Andren, Grand Aca; Letha Murnly, Grand Martha; Grace Miller, Grand Electa; Gladys M. Zell, Grand Warder and Herman Johnston, Grand Sentinel—all being present except Howard Belton, Associate Grand Patron, who was unable to return from the Republican National Convention in time. Four hundred and fifty guests from Roseburg and many parts of the state attended the reception. Hallie Woodward played a half-hour organ prelude before the program. Dr. S. Raynor Smith of Eugene, formerly a pastor of the First Methodist Church in Roseburg, and a Past Patron of Roseburg Chapter, gave the invocation. Introductions were followed by the flag escort by John William Robertson, Associate Patron of Roseburg, with Mrs. Shugart as Marshal.

Mrs. Robertson, Associate Matron of Roseburg Chapter, and George Churchill, Worthy Patron, gave the addresses of welcome and the welcome to visitors to Roseburg was by Mayor Albert G. Flegel.

The Roseburg Choral Group, composed of Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, Mrs. Hallie Woodward, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mrs. A. C. Austin, Mrs. Earl Plummer, and Mrs. Myrtle Burr, under the direction of Mrs. Riffe, with Mrs. Gordon Stewart as accompanist, presented "Hills of Home," which was dedicated to Mrs. Wimberly. "God Touched the Rose," dedicated to Mrs. Churchill and "Sweethearts," dedicated to the Schroeders.

The addendum, "An Old Fashioned Garden," was presented by the Roseburg Courtesy Girls, who included: Rene Brydges, Evelyn Ashbury, Phyllis Givens, Estelle Harmon, Ruby Havers, Lois Quine, Virginia Hicks, Helen Hicks, Gladys Hart, Barbara Ann Rich, Mildred Fisher, Pat Hallcraft, Jean Calkins, Marguerite Myers, Betty Ferris, Doris Hughes, Ellen Chitwood and Helen McElroy, under the very talented direction of Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Captain. Picket fences and an archway entwined with red roses formed the beautiful setting for the impressive ceremony. At the close of the drill, Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Churchill were presented with gifts and American Beauty roses. Mrs. Bernard Saar, pianist, and Wendell Johnson, violinist, played for the addendum.

"Impressions," by Mrs. George (Helen Wagoner) Shepard, proved a most delightful reading and was followed by numbers by the String Ensemble composed of Wendell Johnson and Margaret Moir, violinists; Robert Davee, viola, and Marcia Johnson, cello. A highlight of the evening was the addendum by the Associate Matrons and Patrons of Portland and vicinity. The women wore American Beauty rose-colored bouffant chiffon evening gowns and the men wore white suit coats with dark trousers. At the close of the drill, a gift was presented to Mrs. Wimberly by the Associate Matrons and Patrons, and a surprise birthday gift was presented to Mr. Schroeder. Catherine Feiger, Portland, who is a member of the Necrology Committee of the General Grand Chap-

TOMMY MERRIFIELD, above, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Merrifield of Portland, and grandson of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Haskins of Roseburg. Mrs. Merrifield is the former Betty Haskins. The Merrifield family came to Roseburg for the wedding of Mrs. Merrifield's sister, Miss Caroline Louise, and Lee Richard Hargis, which was an event of Sunday, July 20, at the Haskins home at the Veterans Hospital Post. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

Piano Recital Is Interesting Affair

On last Wednesday evening, a very fine piano recital was given by Gayle Geddes and James Cook, two young pupils of Gladys H. Strong. Gayle is the eleven year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes. James is the ten year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook. Their program was varied and very interesting as each one played a group of solos from classic, romantic, and modern composers as well as two piano numbers. They not only show exceptional talent but are developing true musicianship. Their playing was musical and gave expression to the various styles and moods of the music.

The recital was given at Miss Strong's residence studio on South Main Street. Friends of the pupils were invited and a social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program.

| Program                       | Menuetto                     |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Bach                          | Tempo di Gavotte             |
| Handel                        | Courante                     |
| Haydn                         | Scherzo                      |
| Bach                          | Polonaise                    |
| Haydn                         | Sonatina in C                |
| Diabelli                      | Rondo                        |
| Burgmüller                    | Innocence                    |
| Burgmüller                    | Barcarolle                   |
| Schumann                      | Schumann                     |
| Schumann                      | Knight Rupert                |
| James Cook                    | Old French Song              |
| Tchaikovsky                   | Sweet Dreams                 |
| Tchaikovsky                   | Pomponette                   |
| Durand                        | Morning Prayer               |
| Gretchaninoff                 | My Little Horse              |
| Gretchaninoff                 | Dancing Bear                 |
| Tanman                        | Dresden China                |
| Tanman                        | Russian Dance                |
| James Cook                    | Strolling Musicians          |
| Rebikov                       | Shepherd Playing on his Pipe |
| Rebikov                       | Hungary, Rhapsodie Mignonne  |
| Rebikov                       | Concerto in C major          |
| Jean Williams                 | Concerto in C major          |
| (Miss Strong at second piano) | Mittai Poika                 |
| Jean Williams                 | Gayle Geddes                 |
| (Mrs. Geddes at second piano) |                              |

MRS. C. D. ALBRIGHT ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF VISITING DAUGHTER

Mrs. C. D. Albright entertained at two informal bridge-luncheons at her home this week in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. K. L. Wernsing, who is visiting here from Portland.

Wednesday, Mrs. Albright invited Mrs. Roy W. Bradshaw and Mrs. Vance Egger as luncheon guests and on Friday, Mrs. W. F. Amot and Mrs. Mitchell Moore were guests at luncheon. Both afternoons were spent in playing bridge.

FOUR GENERATIONS ATTEND FAMILY REUNION RECENTLY

A family picnic with four generations represented was held at the home of Mrs. R. West in Camas Valley recently.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Thompson and children, Warren and Kay, of Torrance, Calif.; Mrs. George Rhodes and children, Cathy and Jackie, of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sanders and children, Joanne, Joyce and Douglas of Sutherlin; Mrs. Jack McGown, Richmond, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Banks of Camas Valley; Carol and Diane Perry of Torrance, Calif.; and Mrs. R. West, hostess.

Ralph Cooper, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Miss Shirley Spencer, Mrs. C. G. Ferrier, Mrs. J. P. Molschenbach, Mrs. L. L. Powers, Mrs. Earl Kelley and Mrs. W. G. Clarenbach. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury, Mrs. Harry S. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Coffell and John Hodson.

Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. G. W. Marshall and Mrs. H. H. Turner. Serving the punch were Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. A. B. Taylor and Mrs. William Unrath. Serving were the Courtesy Girls and Mrs. Orville Richman and Mrs. Arthur Travis.

Sunday morning a breakfast was served between nine and eleven o'clock at the Roseburg Country

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN AT WOOLLETT HOME

Mrs. Ross Woollett and Mrs. Harry West were hostesses for a surprise farewell party at Mrs. Woollett's home in Sutherlin recently, honoring Mrs. Harry Barnes and Mrs. Warren Newman. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are moving to Medford, soon, and the Newmans will go to Myrtle Creek as soon as they terminate their affairs in Sutherlin. Each of the honored guests were given a personal shower of gifts by their friends and co-workers in the Sutherlin Christian Church.

After the many nice gifts were opened, visiting was enjoyed. The hostesses served refreshments of jello, cake and coffee. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of summer flowers.

Those present to enjoy the evening were: the honored guests, Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Barnes; Mrs. and Mrs. Claude Webster, Ralph Hardesty, Claude Dickens, Bud Bratton, Lawrence Longbrake, Katie Graham, Lewis Hecoborn, Hazel Scruggs, Bob Thames, Clifford Johnson, Eldon Sanders, R. E. Abene, Minnie Abene, Miss Ethel Manning and Mrs. Don West.

Mrs. Gordon Epps and Mrs. Maurice Vogeloph, who were unable to be present, sent gifts.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER GIVEN MRS. TOM GRAVES

A lovely shower was given at the Walter Davis home Friday, July 18, at 1:30 p.m. Hostesses were Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Boone Kinne.

Seasonal flowers and a stork formed the decorations for the occasion. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Claude Dodge and Mrs. Floyd Gardner.

Gifts were opened by the guest of honor, Mrs. Graves, and in appreciation she presented each guest a nylon corsage.

Lovely refreshments were served to the Mesdames: Clark Baldozier, Ray Bradshaw, Edgar Davis and daughter; Mrs. Walter Davis and daughters; Claude Dodge, Clyde Gardner, Floyd Gardner, Claude Gaylor, Lee Gaylor, Ora Gaylor and children; Tommy Graves and children; Boone Kinne and children; Melvin Mahon and daughters; Leo McDaniel, Fern Moore, Mike Mullins, Alfred Powell, Jasper Russell and the Misses Claudette and Violet Dodge.

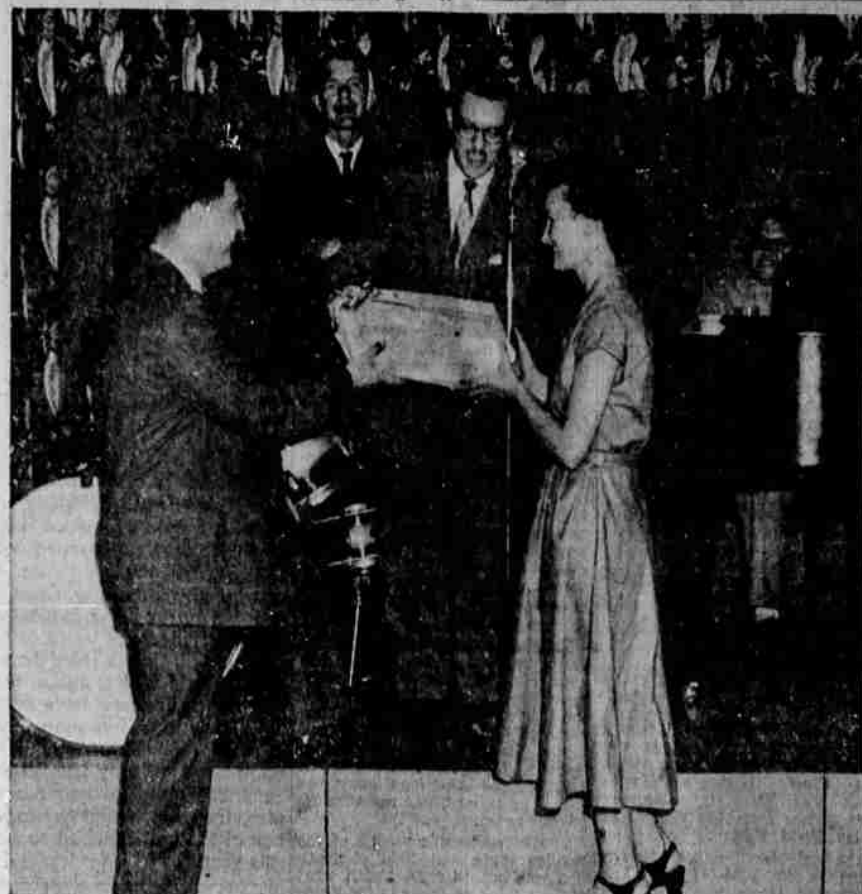

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Brasheers, Mrs. Earl David, Mrs. Harold David, Mrs. Junior Dohier, Mrs. Richard Gardner, Mrs. Loren Harris, Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Winston Miller and Mrs. Shelby Prince.

EUGENE VISITORS

Visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Unrath, 326 W. Oak St. this week are Mrs. Unrath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd.

Club honoring Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Churchill. Out-of-town visitors and Roseburg members attended. Decorations and serving were in charge of Mrs. Ernest Wentjar, Mrs. W. J. Olschmedel, Mrs. Beut Gilbert, Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. Vance Shugart. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Gordon Stewart and Mrs. Paul Geddes. A Hammond Organ was brought out by Gordon Stewart to the Country Club for Mrs. Geddes to play, which was by courtesy of Ott & Ricketts Music Store.

The Hospitality Committee was composed of Mrs. Earl Wiley, R. Cloyd Riffe and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton. Shirley Spencer had charge of the advance ticket sale locally for the breakfast.

A GIFT WAS PRESENTED to Mr. and Mrs. Bob McCarl at a party given in their honor at the Roseburg Country Club last Friday evening. The McCals will leave tomorrow for North Hollywood, Calif., where Mr. McCarl has some television and kinescope commitments, and they plan to reside with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Baldwin and family. Mr. McCarl, of Man On The Street fame, has been associated with KRNR for the past three years as an announcer and is well known through his many activities in civic functions. He was also winner of the Junior First Citizen Award given by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1951. In the above picture from left to right are Bob McCarl, O. A. Kennerly Jr. (standing), Lyle Fenner, Mrs. Bob McCarl and Bob Weber (seated at the piano). (Picture by Jay Golden of the Photo Lab)

TWO WEDDINGS EVENTS OF LAST WEEK AT GLIDE

James Miles and Eva Mae Cameron were quietly married Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Baptist Church parsonage, with Rev. Karl Faulkner performing the ceremony. Miss Cameron's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Van Dolah stood up with the couple. Only the immediate family were present.

Juanita Shoemaker and Merle Banks were married Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Glide Baptist Church in a simple ceremony performed by Rev. Karl Faulkner. Their friends held a reception for the newly-weds in the small dining room of Johnny's Tavern, following the ceremony. Merle is the bartender and Mrs. Banks, the cook, at the Tavern. The couple will reside at the Idylwild Park Cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins Entertain At Dinner

Roses, hydrangeas and butterfly bush formed the beautiful arrangement for the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins Saturday evening at their home in Laurelwood.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Clark Leedy, Mrs. J. L. Cauthorn and Miss Kathy McGrath, all of San Francisco; Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. M. Tarn, following the ceremony. Merle is the bartender and Mrs. Banks, the cook, at the Tavern. The couple will reside at the Idylwild Park Cabins.

Following the dinner, the group attended the reception given for

Mrs. Carl Wimberly and Mrs. George Churchill at the Junior High School, after which they returned to the Jenkins home for a social hour of cards.

AT ALBRIGHT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Albright have had as their guests this week their daughter, Mrs. K. L. Wernsing, and her seven year-old son, Jimmy, of Portland. The Portland visitors plan to leave Sunday for their home.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM JENNINGS HEBARD are pictured above immediately following their wedding, an event of July 17 at the First Christian Church of Roseburg. Rev. Lloyd Whitford of the Christian Church of Sutherlin officiated. Mrs. Violet Hodges, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the best man was Emmitt Meek, a friend of the bride and bridegroom. The bride is the former Mrs. Harriet Ingram of Roseburg. Following their wedding trip to the coast, the couple is now at home to their many friends at Sutherlin. (Picture by Jay Golden of the Photo Lab)