Yanks, Dodgers Slipping Fast, Hurlers Needed

By The Associated Press
Managers Charlie Dressen of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees were beseeching their bosses for more pitching help Tuesday after watching their once impregnable lead shrink like a ten dollar suit in the rain.

Just six days ago, the Dodgers and Yankees were looking back at the other clubs and laughing their way to a pennant. Now things have gone sour and worried frowns have replaced the happy smiles. The road looks longer as the leads grow smaller.

Monday's 12-2 Yankee loss to Detroit and the 3-2 Dodger defeat by the St. Louis Cardinals climaxed a sorry six days that saw this happen:

The hepatica, a wildflower growing from Florida to Nova Scotia, received its name from the Greek "hepar," meaning liver. It was once thought the plant could cure liver diseases, and it is also called "liverleaf" and "liverwort."

Roseburg Driver In Ashland Race

Gene Swain of Roseburg started priming his hardtop racer for the elusive opening date of the local racing oval by participating in the Southern Oregon Race Club's races at Ashland Saturday night.

The Roseburg speedster took third in the fourth heat and then won the final heat. He finished fifth in the semi-final event in which only 11 of the 14 starters crossed the finish line. In the grueling main event, his car didn't finish. It was one of 11 which dropped out of the 20 car race.

The rugged races at the Ashland Rodeo Grounds resulted in several spills, but no serious injuries were reported. A total of 29 cars appeared for time trials.
