William C. McDaniels Of Yoncalla Dies

Word has been received from Eugene of the death of William C. McDaniels, father of Earl McDaniels of Yoncalla. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McDaniels of Bridgeville, Calif., were called to Yoncalla due to death.

Mr. McDaniels' body will be shipped to Petersburg, Ind., for burial. He came to Yoncalla two months ago to make his home. He passed away after a short illness.

ASSAULT DENIED

Dorothy M. Greg, 30 x42, Roseburg, pleaded innocent in district court to assault and battery and has posted $50 bail while awaiting trial. She is accused of hitting Edith Wheeler.

Septic Tank Owners Take Notice

Home owners have discovered that septic tanks stop-up and overflow. Two reasons are—first, because the tanks are not cleaned at proper intervals; secondly, toilet tissue that does not readily disintegrate may clog the drains and force them to back up! This situation can be partially averted by buying the proper toilet tissue.

Recognizing the importance of this, MD Toilet Tissue is processed so that it absorbs water completely and quickly! People who know about—and use—MD Toilet Tissue have less trouble with clogged discharge drains in their septic tank system.

Follow this plan for best insurance: Consult your County Health Department, your plumber, or a septic tank service company, for advice on cleaning your tank. Use MD Toilet Tissue!

is ready, board members felt only students in special situations should be admitted. For instance, they'd consider letting a senior who had attended his first three years in Roseburg finish here.

Grede Mankins, building superintendent, reported work "ahead of schedule" and going "very smoothly."

Bus Bill Cut Refused

A request from the Glide school district that its bill for transportation of pupils into Roseburg be reduced from the agreed amount was turned down. Glide did not send as many pupils as they originally thought would ride, so felt the $3,600 bill should be reduced. Roseburg board members said the bus had to make the trip anyway, so didn't think a reduction justified.

Funeral Services Set For Alice May Craven

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice May Craven, 50 resident of Reston community who died last Sunday morning, will be held in the chapel of the Long & Orr Mortuary Thursday, July 31, at 2:00 p.m., with Dr. Morris Roach of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Concluding services and interment will follow in Civil Bend Cemetery at Winston.

Mrs. Craven was born May 3, 1902, at Garden City, Kansas, and came to Oregon about 40 years ago. For the past 25 years she has been a resident of Douglas County. She was married at Centralia, Wash., on May, 1929, to Charles B. Craven, who survives, as do two daughters, Mrs. Joe (Wilberta) Couey, Reston, and Mrs. W. W. (Helen) Woodard, Portland. She is also survived by three brothers and three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Packer, Eugene; Elmer Roberts, Couer de Alene, Idaho; Mrs. Gladys Cole, Detroit, Mich.; Walter Roberts, Eugene; Mrs. Edith Sturzel, Tacoma, and Delbert Roberts, Washington, and six grandchildren.

The wildflower Dutchman's Breches is a wild form of bleeding heart.

IN RARE FORM—Mae West busted right into a demonstration of a new-type "Mae West" life jacket at the Navy submarine base at Groton, Conn., and declared herself very much pleased with the improved version. The inflatable jacket has a new color, which gives visibility of 16 miles at sea. "That's one thing we both have in common," quipped Mae. "We both can be seen from great distance." She described the new color as "Desirable Scarlet" but the prosaic Navy says it's "orange, just off red." Above, Molder First Class Cater B. East, helps Mae adjust the new jacket.

Mel Venter Gang Will Spark Centennial Plans

Gene Smith accordion group, and vocals by the Sons of the Prairie.

Saturday night the Mel Venter Breakfast Club orchestra will play for the Queen's coronation and ball, starting at 9 p.m., at Kennedy's Dutch Mill.

Highlight of the Saturday night event is the announcement of which of the seven princesses is to be queen of the Centennial. The announcement will be made during intermission at 10 p.m.

Tickets are being sold by the seven princesses and their sales—up to 5 p.m. Friday—count as votes for the seller in the princess popularity contest, which tallies one-fourth in the selection of the queen. Tickets are also available at Centennial Headquarters in the Junior High Building and at the door of each event.

Labor Dispute Shuts Mill At Myrtle Creek

pairing its ability to compete successfully.

"Small factions within the plant are jeopardizing the security of 350 employees," the management statement said.

Plant officials indicated that there have been suggestions from directors of the firm that the Myrtle Creek plywood division be abandoned "in view of labor conditions which have existed over a period of years."

No Disruption Wanted

They said it has been suggested that their timber resources might be used in "support other operations of the company which are more successful."

"We are facing a very competitive situation in the plywood industry brought about by the overproduction of plywood," a plant spokesman said. "Many plants are in financial difficulties. We do not propose that this company be placed in that position."

Gasoline Sales Up

SALEM — Some 261,206,160 gallons of gasoline were purchased in Oregon during the first six months of this year. That is 2.7 per cent more than in the same period last year.

Sgt. Donald Lee And Wife Return

Staff Sgt. Donald B. Lee and bride arrived in San Francisco June 30 aboard the transport Gen. W. A. Mann, which brought 1780 service men, civilian workers and dependents. Mrs. Lee was among the 17 Japanese brides aboard the ship.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Lee were married at Nagoya, Japan, Aug. 9, 1951. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Lee was Miss Tsukiko Sato, who was born in Nagoya, where she received her education.

On the dock to meet them when they arrived were Donald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Menzie Lee, and brother, Marvin, of Wilbur. Donald served 31 months in Japan and Korea as an Air Force weather observer. After a month's leave, he will return to duty at his new assignment at Oxnard, Calif. Mrs. Lee will remain with Donald's parents until he can find housing there.

Armistice Prospect Poorest Yet—Van Fleet

prisoner exchange has blocked a truce for months.

The Reds propose changing the term "captured personnel" to "prisoner of war" in Paragraph 52, which would then read:

"Each side agrees to insure that it shall not employ in acts of war in the Korean conflict any prisoners of war released from custody incident to the armistice."

Col. Duncan S. Somerville, U.N. command staff officer, said he had asked the Reds for clarification.

During recent secret truce talks, Maj. Gen. William C. Harrison, senior U. N. armistice delegate, told the Reds the term captured personnel meant all people, even those opposing repatriation. War prisoners, he added, were all those persons who were to be repatriated.

WASHINGTON — Announced U.S. battle casualties in Korea reached 113,688 Wednesday, an increase of 305 since last week.

Saturday Social Notices Lost When Auto Stolen

All clubs and organizations having notices of meetings to be announced in the social calendar of Saturday's issue of the News-Review are asked to re-submit them to Nina Davis of the Society Department before 10 a.m. Friday morning. The social calendar was lost when Mrs. Davis' car was stolen Monday evening. As yet the car has not been found.

Flies Given Atomic Brew In Research Test

ISLINGTON, England — Some radioactive flies are buzzing around here. They got that way because they were given a drink of brew distilled at the Harwell Atomic Research Laboratories.

Scientists at the pest infestation laboratory at Slough are responsible for the condition of the flies, and the idea is to determine how far a fly flies.

The insects are released here after the atomic brew snifter.

Then flies are captured at varying distances, and a Geiger counter spots those with the tell-tale atomic aroma on their breaths.

Greatest distance covered so far is three miles. But scientists are still hoping for a real cross-country champion.

Firemen Battle Bad Luck Saving Flaming Barn

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Suburban Woodbine firemen put out a barn fire Tuesday night, but it was a struggle.

The first truck set out overturned during a thunderstorm. Firemen Claiborn Ross and Curtis Hall, both 21, were unhurt.

Ross hastened to a nearby house to call the department. The woman who lived there refused to let him in to telephone because he was too wet.

On his departure, the woman's dog bit him.

Another fireman, following the fire truck in a car, telephoned for the second truck from another house.

Old Phone Directory Yields Missing Money

LOS ANGELES — Julius Madkin is tired of telephone directories.

He leaped through a pile of 10,000 of them Tuesday and finally found what he was looking for.

Last Saturday he turned in his old directory and received a new one from a deliveryman for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Later he remembered that he had stuffed two $50 bills in the old directory for safekeeping.

At the telephone company office it took him several hours of leafing but he finally found his money.

William Harvey Allen, Roseburg Native, Dies

William Harvey Allen, 79, lifelong resident of Roseburg, died Tuesday afternoon, July 29, after a prolonged illness.

He was born in Roseburg Dec. 11, 1872, the son of William and Margaret Allen, early residents of this community. For many years he followed the blacksmithing trade here. He was married to Minnie E. Tyrer at Albany in 1908.

Surviving are the widow of Roseburg; four step-children, Charles, David and Frank Tyrer and Mrs. David (Gladys) Partee, all of Roseburg vicinity; three brothers, Anderson Allen of Lodi, Calif., Cecil of Spokane, Wash., and Byron of Roseburg.

Funeral services will be held in the chapel of Long and Orr Mortuary Friday at 10:30 a.m., with Rev. E. Clarke Robb of the North Roseburg Church officiating. Concluding services and interment will be in the Oak Creek Cemetery.

No Menace To U.S. Seen From 'Flying Saucers'

weather balloons, and reflection of lights—even automobile lights. But every effort is being made to identify the mysterious one-fifth. One new step being planned is use of a newly developed telescopic camera which can photograph a 150-degree area of sky on one plate.

Other specialized, highly sensitive cameras also will be used.

PORTLAND — Navy Secretary Dan Kimball got a plug in for a larger navy here Tuesday when he scoffed at reports of flying saucers over Washington, D.C.

Here to address a Navy League luncheon, Kimball said "If we have a strong and adequate Navy, we won't have to worry about things like flying saucers."

He said the mystery objects which have reported flying over the nation's capital are "probably electrical phenomena."

Kimball is on a nationwide tour inspecting naval installations.

Top Westinghouse Job Goes To OSC Graduate

BALTIMORE, Md. — H. D. Moreland, Oregon State College graduate, as named manager of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation's X-ray division, Wednesday.

Sales, engineering, manufacture and other functions will be under his direction. F. W. Godsey, manager of the firm's Baltimore divisions, said.

Moreland, born at Philomath, Ore., received his engineering degree from OSC in 1930 and his science master in 1932. The following year he joined the Westinghouse staff at Portland and has been with the firm since.

Farm Revenue Scores One Percent Advance

WASHINGTON — Prices received by farmers between June 15 and July 15 rose one per cent, mainly because of increases they got for hogs, milk, eggs and commercial crops.

The Agriculture Department, announcing this Tuesday, said during the same period prices dropped for beef cattle, potatoes, wheat, cotton, calves and several other products.
