Mr. and Mrs. Atterbury Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Atterbury, prominent Roseburg residents, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday at their summer camp above Tillam.

Overnight guests of the Atterburys were Mrs. Atterbury's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Thornton, of Roseburg. Guests for the day were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thornton of Lakeview and that evening coming as a surprise were the Atterburys' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Atterbury, of Medford. The Harlan Atterburys had been at the camp Sunday and returned again Tuesday evening to celebrate the anniversary of his parents.

A beautifully decorated cake was presented by the Cliff Thorntons. Gifts were given to the Atterburys and a most delightful dinner was served around a large bonfire.

Mr. and Mrs. Atterbury have made their home in Roseburg all of their lives. Mrs. Atterbury was formerly Lena Thornton, daughter of S. I. Thornton and Annie Singleton Thornton. Mr. Thornton crossed the plains by Shetland pony at the age of 10. Mrs. Annie Singleton Thornton was born on Oak Creek. Mrs. Atterbury was born while her parents were residing on East Douglas Street.

Mr. Atterbury's father, Timothy Atterbury, was born in the Willamette Valley and Mr. Atterbury was born on the North Umpqua River. His mother, Agnes Shaft Thornton, crossed the plains at the age of seven.

Mr. and Mrs. Atterbury were married July 29, 1902, in Roseburg at a home wedding performed by the late Rev. W. A. Smick, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who had also married Mrs. Atterbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Thornton. The Atterburys had four sons and a daughter, only two of whom are living: Harlan Atterbury of Medford and Mrs. Carmen Atterbury Hogg of Anderson, Calif.

The Atterburys plan to leave in about two weeks for Anderson, Calif., to visit at the Hogg home.

Susan Motschenbacher Honored At Showers

Miss Susan Motschenbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, was honored at two charming shower parties during the last week. She will become the bride of Donald Gerretsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Aug. 23, at a ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Jane Peterson, who will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding, entertained sorority sisters of the bride-elect Saturday evening at a kitchen shower at her home in Portland. Miss Motschenbacher was accompanied to Portland by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Motschenbacher, who visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Motschenbacher, and baby son, and by Mrs. David Lee, of Roseburg.

Following the party at the Peterson home, the group went to Vancouver, where they were entertained at a swimming party given by one of the members of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, of which all of the guests are members.

Lois Jean Anderson, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Thomas of Sutherland, became the bride of Freddie Erwin Wells, Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells of Portland, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, July 16, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Sutherland. Elder E. F. Coy, of the Adventist Church, performed the candlelight ceremony.

Tall baskets of gladioli and small pink flowers, with an arch of ferns and sweetpeas and candleabra formed the decorations with the relatives pews marked with white satin bows. Background music and the traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Della Holm at the piano. Mrs. Holm also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Milo Fellows, who sang "O Promise Me." Ivan Holm played a vibraphone solo, accompanied by Mrs. Holm. The vocal solo, "Because," was given by Milo Fellows, accompanied by piano and vibraphone.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Sydney Thomas, was beautiful in a floor length gown of nylon all-over lace. The bodice was enhanced with a row of tiny self covered buttons down the front to the waist, which came to a point slightly below the waistline. The sleeves were puffed and the skirt, in panels of nylon lace and net, was heavily gathered to the waist. Finger-tip veil studded with pink and white snapdragons with white satin streamers and a heart shaped head piece.

Annetta Wright, cousin of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a aqua taffeta floor length gown. Her flowers were pink and white snapdragons. Pluma Wallen, bridesmaid, wore a floor length bolero gown of soft pink satin and carried flowers of pink and white snapdragons. Chester Wells, brother of the bridegroom of Sutherland, was best man. The second attendant was Vernon Wells of Sutherland. Ushers were Athen Wayne Slawson and Davis Basaraba, both of Sutherland. The bride's mother wore a figured rayon dress. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a soft gray wool suit and also had a corsage of pink rosebuds. The candle lighters were Barbara Wells, niece of the bridegroom and Larry Shipley, nephew of the bridegroom. Barbara wore a floor length gown of blue with rows of ruffles on the skirt. The dress had tiny puff sleeves. Larry wore a brown suit with white satin sport shirt. Bible boy was Richard Wells. Sharon Shipley was a flower girl.

The reception followed the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a white damask cloth, centered with a beautiful three-tiered cake decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with a tiny bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Sydney Thomas, mother of the bride, poured. Mrs. Margaret Sorrick, the bride's aunt, served the cake. Marion Parks had charge of the guest book. Many beautiful gifts were displayed. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carlson, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Johnson and children Diana and Donna, of Lewistown, Ida; Roy Wells, Dayton, Ore.; Mrs. Margaret Sorrick, Seattle, Wash.; Misses Maxine and Mildred Olson, and Mrs. Eleanor Lawson, of Roseburg.
