NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Overriding Communist opposition, the lower house of the Indian Parliament Wednesday passed an anti-Communist preventive detention bill by a vote of 296 to 61. It extends until 1954 the right of government authorities to arrest and hold subversives without trial.

Greeks Fire On Bulgars On Disputed Territory

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Greek troops opened fire Thursday morning on Bulgarian soldiers on the Greek-claimed border island of Gamma, in the Evros River, the Greek general staff announced.

A communiqué said the Greek fire—from machineguns and mortars—was not returned by the troops from Greece's Soviet satellite northern neighbor.

The Gamma dispute arose when the Evros changed its course. The Greeks insisted the boundary remained the same. The Bulgarians argued it shifted with the river and part of the newly created island was theirs. The Evros rises in Bulgaria southeast of Sofia. It flows along the Greek-Bulgarian border and finally into the Aegean sea.
