Mrs. Heinline Back From Trip Abroad

Mrs. C. S. Heinline returned to her home in Laurelwood this week, following two months abroad. In company with 87 music teachers, Mrs. Heinline sailed in June for England, where the group entered the Royal Academy of Music for a study course.

During their stay in England, the group enjoyed numerous site-seeing trips. They sailed from Harwick to Hook-of-Holland and then spent three days site-seeing in and around Amsterdam and took a side trip to Isle Marken.

The group spent two days in Brussels, where they enjoyed a tour of a lace factory and visited numerous places of interest. From there, they went to Germany, where Mrs. Heinline was met in Weisbaden by Arthur Knauss Jr., who took her to his place a mile and a half from Heidelberg. He is with the Dental Medicine Unit and has his wife and two sons in Germany with him. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knauss Sr., of Portland left there the week Mrs. Heinline arrived. They had spent two months touring Europe.

A tour of Frankfurt was made and Mrs. Heinline reports she especially enjoyed a trip to Beethoven's home, which is now a museum. Castles on the Rhine were visited and a trip was made to Bern, Lucerne and Interlocken, Switzerland, after which the party went to Paris, where they arrived on Bastille Day (comparable to the Fourth of July in this country).

Fireworks, marching of 50,000 troops and dancing in the streets took place during the celebration. Especially good food and hotel accommodations were found in France.

Mrs. Heinline is now making extensive plans for the reopening of her kindergarten and music studio.
