

South Oregon Swim Meet Here Friday

The third annual Southern Oregon Invitational Swim Meet splashes into action Friday night at 7:45 in the Municipal Pool.

The event, sponsored by the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, won't be as professionalized as in previous years, but competition should be stiffer.

In the two previous runnings of the meet, Multnomah Athletic Club was a runaway, while individual stars from the Washington Athletic Club of Seattle, Aero Club of Portland and other big-time plungers were snapping up the rest of the honors. This year, invitations have been limited to towns from Salem south to the California border. Drain and Salem are already signed for the Meet and Grants Pass, Medford, Corvallis, Eugene and Klamath Falls are expected to have entries in momentarily.

As Co-chairmen Jerry Coen and Bill Miles put it, the meet has returned to a more localized level. It gives the summer swimmers a chance.

The 18 events in the Meet are divided into two age groups for both boys and girls. Half the events are for boys and girls 14-and-under, and the other half is slated for boys and girls 14-to-18. Ribbons will go to the first three place winners and a trophy goes to the winning team.

Apparently the days of the Olympic caliber splashes are over at the local pool. "But the game has been returned to the amateurs," according to Jaycee President Sid Moon.

Six Salmon Per Day On Columbia

Oregon and Washington salmon bag limits for sports fishermen on the Columbia river are uniform for the first time this year, reminds the Oregon state game commission.

The uniform ruling allowing 6 salmon per day, of which not more than two may be over 24 inches, was effective July 1 and ends October 12 when Oregon returns to its usual daily bag of two fish over 20 inches.

Dates selected by the Oregon game commission for the period of uniform regulations on the Columbia include the peak fall Chinook fishing in September.

In past years Oregon anglers felt they were penalized by dual fishing rules on the Columbia river that allowed Washington anglers 6 salmon and Oregon anglers only 2 fish.

HELEN DETTWEILER ... here this Sunday

Leading Feminine Golf Pro To Conduct Roseburg Clinic

A chocolate soda opened the door to golfing success for a shapely blonde woman who's slated to appear at the Roseburg Country Club Course this Sunday afternoon.

Helen Dettweiler, one of golf-dom's top feminine professionals, is scheduled to conduct an hour clinic Sunday and climax the day as a member of a team match. She has been matched with Club Champion Joe Perrault against the team of Professional Fred Hill and Roseburg's new golfing sensation, Carol Jo Kabler.

Her present career as a staff member of the McGregor Golf Co. started some years ago when her brother Bill lured her into the divot game by promising her a chocolate soda if she could hit the ball four straight times.

With the taste of the soda in her mouth, she stepped to the tee and hit the first ball. This appeared to be a cinch, so she stepped up again and swung three more times, missing the ball each time.

That cost her the soda, but set the stage for one of the most brilliant feminine careers in the game. Infuriated at missing the ball, she went to Al Tredler, pro at Washington, D. C.'s Manor Club and told him:

"Make me hit the ball every time I aim at it."

Tredler did the job and the golf bug bit Helen. She began to practice consistently and was soon a member of the Manor Club's team. Later she started adding individual amateur titles and by 1939 she was ready for the professionals. In her first professional year, she won the Western Open.

Country Club Pro Fred Hill has invited the public to the clinic and exhibition which starts at approximately 3 p.m. Sunday.

Longacres Mile Entries Named

SEATTLE (AP) — Two gallopers which haven't raced at Longacres yet this season—Eddie's Boy and Skelter — have been handed top weight of 119 pounds for the Aug. 24 running of the $10,000 added Longacres Mile.

The weights go down to 103 pounds for the 34 nominees.

Eddie's Boy was a winter star at Santa Anita and has been the highweight champ at Vancouver this summer. Skelter, just in from Hollywood Park, is one of four nominations of Calumet Farms products.

Black Zida and Irene's Angel, winners of the two divisions of the Spokane Handicap Sunday, each drew 114 pounds. Little Rollo, upset winner of the '51 Mile, will carry 117 pounds.

Among the standouts of the current season, Don't Bone Me drew 113 pounds, End To End 111 and Sir Calbenor 108.

Miss Kabler Advances In Links Event

The Roseburg Country Club's women's golf championship tournament got underway Tuesday, and again 14-year-old Carol Jo Kabler was the club-swinging to watch.

The sturdy little tomboy with the lithe, sun-tanned figure has already tucked away the nine-hole course record for women and won the Courter-Pearson Tournament this year, but she's not resting.

The carefree youngster moved into the semi-finals of the Club championship tournament with an impressive 5 and 3 victory over Mrs. Harry Stearns. Mrs. Dick Coppage joined her in the championship flight by outstriking Mrs. Roger Gee, 3 and 1. Mrs. Ralstyn Bridges also entered the elite circle by defeating Mrs. Kenneth Quine, 2 and 1. The fourth semi-finalist is Mrs. Walter Brydger, who defeated Mrs. James Hughes, 2-up. So, little Miss Kabler has a rugged field to vault before adding a club crown to her belt two weeks hence.

Losers in Tuesday's matches vie for the first-flight championship next Tuesday at the same time of the championship flight semi-finals.

A new club champion will be crowned this year since 1951 champion, Mrs. Ernie Pearson, is unable to defend her title this year.

Young Carol Jo was in her element in long drive competition which was part of the day's play. She won the long drive on hole No. 1. Mrs. Harry Stearns took the long drive on No. 2.

Meanwhile, the Country Club women were planning for the annual Class C tournament sometime in September.

Net Tourney Crown Goes To Jacobson

Slender Dick Jacobson today had a one-man monopoly on Roseburg tennis in a state stronghold of the game.

He picked up two more crowns Monday and Tuesday in the YMCA-sponsored City Tennis Tournament to bulge his chest of honors to four championships in the Tourney. The 1952 Roseburg High School graduate was a champion in every event he entered.

By Sunday, the scorching racket of the crew-cut youngster had fashioned the men's singles championship and a share of the men's doubles with Hilbert Lee. Monday, he copped the junior men's singles championship and Tuesday he teamed up with Ronnie Groves to nail down the junior men's doubles. The latter team was the 1952 runnerup in the state high school tennis tourney.

Jacobson breezed to the junior men's singles crown by dumping his High School teammate, Brian Booth, 6-0, 6-1. The fine doubles team had it just as easy in stopping Booth and Wayne Henninger 6-1, 6-1.

Henninger, however, continued to look like a comer by beating Dennis Brundage, 6-2, 6-0, for the boys' singles championship.

Trophies will be awarded the champions by the Active Club.

Jaycees' Golf Tourney Starts

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — A hundred survivors of qualifying play set off Wednesday on a four-day grind leading to the National Jaycee junior golf championship.

The question will be whether anyone can stay with Tom Jacobs, Montebello, Calif., or Don Bisplinghoff, Orlando, Fla., who dominated the field in the two days of qualifying play at the Eugene Country Club.

Jacobs, who lost to Bisplinghoff in the recent USGA junior tournament, nosed out the Floridan in a brilliant 18th hole Tuesday to become medalist.

Jacobs shot a 68-74-142, Bisplinghoff 71-72-143.

With all the trees guarding fairways, no one else cracked par for the two days.

The 40 highest scorers were eliminated Tuesday. Those who had 168 or higher dropped out.

The Florida and California players wound up in a tie at 610 for team honors. The scores of their four low places will be computed in Wednesday's 8 hole round to settle the team championship.

The tournament for players under 18 is sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce. A round of 18 holes will be played each day through Saturday.

Nardico Favored To Beat Sabotin In Fight Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP) — Danny Nardico is a 2-1 favorite to repeat the trimming he gave Lulu Sabotin when the light heavyweights meet Wednesday night.

Promoter Larry Atkins said he would be satisfied if 3,500 paid to see the return 10-round bout, which will be televised.

Nardico decision his Warren, O., opponent here last April.

Veletz Stops Al Cowan In 5th Round Of Match

SPOKANE (AP) — Joey Veletz of Seattle stopped Al Cowan of Spokane in the fifth round of their scheduled 10-round welterweight boxing match here Tuesday night.

Floored twice in the first round, Veletz came back to knock down Cowan six times before the referee stopped the fight after two minutes of the fifth.

Both weighed 140. Preliminaries included: Benny Flake, 188, Seattle, outpointed Eddie Kabut, Woodburn, Ore., 161.

Harold Kottre, 162, Silverton, Ore., knocked out Jimmy Aldrich, 151, Seattle, 1:58 of the second.

3 Douglas County Players Named For Shrine Games

Douglas County boasts three nominees to the two state high school football Shrine games this year.

From Reedsport, a thundering 180-pound fullback named Larry Rose makes his final bow in high school competition in the "A" school Shrine game at Portland.

He will play with the state team which tangles in the annual all-star game with the best in Portland Saturday night, Aug. 23, at Multnomah Stadium.

The young hero of Reedsport's finest squad ate up yardage faster than any other back in the county this year. At the final tally, he had scored 81 points for the Braves and rolled up 1,300 yards on the ground.

At Pendleton, Aug. 30, Drain's district "B" school champions will have two graduated seniors represented. In the backfield, Quarter Alan Brown will get a chance to try his passing wizardry with the West team which meets the composite best east of the Cascades. Brown was classed by his coach, Ernie Correia, as one of the finest prep passers and generals he has seen. Before the "B" Shrine game was formed, Brown was listed as an alternate in the "A" school affair, an almost impossible feat for a "B" school player.

His teammate, Lineman Elwood Voelker, has been named as a center on the West team. The husky lineman was the only unanimous choice for such a position in the rugged Valley League all-star roster last year. This League is comprised mostly of "A" schools.
