

Portland Breaks Suds' Win Mark

By The Associated Press
Portland snapped Seattle's Pacific Coast win streak at eight Tuesday night and once more it was Steve Nagy who took the rap. Nagy pitched a two-hitter but, lacking batting support from his team-mates, went down 3-2 as the Beavers evened the nine-game series at a win apiece.

It was the third time in two weeks the Rainier southpaw had faced the Beavers. Once he was knocked out of the box, but in Portland two weeks ago he dropped a one-hitter.

All Portland runs Tuesday night came in the sixth inning and were unearned. Nagy himself committed the error that cost the game. Trying to field a bunt in the sixth when he had a 1-0 lead, Nagy threw wild to Leo Thomas and Mike McCormick scored. Joe Brovia followed McCormick across the plate on Herman Reich's fly ball, and Don Eggert wound up the scoring coming home on Eddio Basinski's single to center.

That single and one by McCormick in the first inning were the only hits allowed by Nagy.

In other league action, Hollywood downed San Francisco 3-2, Oakland kept pace with the first-place Stars by edging Los Angeles by the same score and Sacramento ended a nine-game losing streak by bopping San Diego 6-4.

Bearden Becomes Top-Notch Batter

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene Bearden of the St. Louis Browns, a 202 lifetime batter up to this season, has blossomed out as the major leagues' best hitting pitcher.

Bearden, a lefthanded batter, has collected 17 hits in 43 times at bat for a remarkable .395 average. The 30-year-old hurler, used frequently by St. Louis as a pinch-hitter this year, has made only 41 safeties in 202 tries through 1951.

Johnny Sain, New York Yankees' veteran moundsman, is the only other pitcher close to the .300 mark. Batting from the right side of the plate, Sain shows a .283 average with 15 base hits in 53 trips to the plate.

Walcott Trains Hard For Bout

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Jersey Joe Walcott is training hard for his next fight—but he still doesn't know who his opponent will be.

His manager, Felix Bocchicchio, said Jersey Joe will either fight Rocky Marciano, unbeaten Brockton, Mass., or Alex Layne of Salt Lake City, Utah, or Johnny Williams, British Empire heavyweight king.

Bocchicchio said the International Boxing Club had made no progressive move in the negotiation for a Walcott-Marciano bout next month. The two champs still are at odds over the percentage of the take for each fighter.

The champ's manager said he had received a guarantee of $150,000 plus 60 per cent of any TV and radio receipts to defend the title against Layne in Ogden, Utah. Layne, who whipped Walcott in the winter of 1951, won a decision over Ezzard Charles last Friday, pitcher at .273.

Browns Slate Tryout Camp

MEDFORD — Fairgrounds Park, home of the Medford Rogues, will be the site of a two-day baseball tryout camp beginning Friday, September 5.

Tryouts will be open free to all players 17 to 23 years of age. All they have to do is report to Robello at 9:30 on the morning of September 5, with their own baseball shoes and gloves. The Browns will furnish all other necessary equipment. Out-of-town boys must attend at their own expense, but the Browns will reimburse those who are signed to contracts.

The St. Louis organization has conducted many tryouts this season, and record attendance was reported at several of them. The calibre of boys reporting was exceptionally high, and many of them were signed to contracts and are now playing ball with teams in the Browns' minor league organization. With hundreds of players now in military service, baseball offers exceptional opportunities to boys who are seeking a career in the great national pastime.

Battle Royals Scheduled On Wrestling Card

Matchmaker Elton Owen should clear the first six rows for this Saturday's wrestling feature attraction at the Roseburg Armory.

With calculated cunning, the affable promoter has gathered together a block of the region's wrestling trust, thrown them en masse in the ring — and offered them the moon in a battle royal.

Not only does the winner of the match get a healthy $250 prize, but also gets an early crack at the Pacific Coast Junior Heavyweight belt. Only blackjacks for every wrestler could be added for more blood and thunder in this formula for mayhem.

Battle royals always appeal to the fans, but wrestlers usually shy from them because of their obvious danger of injury. But top talent flocked to this one like housewives to a giveaway program.

Here's how the talent stacks up: Frankie Stojack: The favorite. The Polish athlete surged back into the Roseburg limelight last Saturday night by unmasking the Black Prince. His purpose was to get a shot at Pacific Coast Junior Heavyweight Champion Rogers Mackay, who he says is ducking him.

Tarzan Zimba: The new villain. This ruffian is definitely the meanest variety with a specialty called the blockbuster slam.

Billy Sandow: A new star on the wrestling horizon. Currently in pursuit of a title match with Jack Kiser for the Light Heavy crown, Sandow has been a consistent winner since his arrival several weeks ago.

Bob Cummings: Grizzled veteran. He won the last battle royal at the local mat palace with his excellent knowledge of leverage.

Jack Kiser: A champion. He hoars the Pacific Coast Light Heavyweight championship.

Ben Sherman: One of the greatest. Sherman's been to Roseburg before, but as a referee last spring. He's classed as one of the Northwest's best.

Drain Shutsout McMinnville

Free wheeling Jerry Cade continued to bloom before his host of hometown Drain rooters by left-handing his way to a two-hit shut-out over the visiting McMinnville baseball team. The Black Sox won, 9-0.

The young control artist, who wrote his name into the state's prep annals as a three-time state championship "B" baseball pitcher, put on a hurling show at Drain last night that sent his fans home busting their buttons. Cade struck out 15 batters in racking up his first shut-out of the year.

Cade's Linfield College Coach Roy Helsler beamed proudly as the youngster reached a new stage of development which classifies him as one of the top hurlers in the Southwestern Oregon League.

His slugging teammates made it easy for the youthful portsideer by cracking out 10 hits.

Tonight at 8:30, the Black Sox play another home exhibition against Archer Blower and Pipe of Portland.

Qualifying Round Scores Given In Jaycee Tourney

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Final qualifying round scores of Washington and Oregon entrants in the National J.C. Golf Tournament included (167 or lower to qualify): Leighton Tuttle, Eugene, 83-87-170; Jim Moody, Tacoma, 83-86-169; Bob Prall, Salem, 84-79-163; Mike Stirling, Eugene, 81-82-163; Dick Twiss, The Dalles, 82-80-162; Justin Smith Jr., Medford, 75-81-156; Bob Seeds, Vancouver, Wash., 82-84-177; Dick Madsack, Olympia, 81-86-167; Roger Boyd, Tacoma, 82-78-160.

Chiefs To Play Two With Coos

No midweek games for the Roseburg Chiefs this week, but they can use the rest while priming for the big Finlay Field series with the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks Saturday and Sunday.

With a battery of sluggers which would give the Yankees a fair shake, the Chiefs will move into town as one of the hottest teams in the Southwestern Oregon League. They have won 29 and lost 8.

In spite of their murderer's row, Manager Earl Sargent is unperturbed. "I don't see why we can't win at least one of them," he said. He had reason for the statement since Coquille, a team one notch below the Chiefs in the standings, rapped the Jacks, 4-3, Sunday. This is the second win over their coast neighbors by the Loggers. Medford has also done it twice and Bandon has a single win over the scourges of the coast.

However, Roseburg is one of the three teams which still has to get a win from the Lumberjacks. The Chiefs have lost four, but were only routed when the Chiefs were staggering from professional raids on the top local material. Manager Sargent gets added hope from two new acquisitions to the squad, Catcher Jack Warren and Pitcher Don Siegmund.
