Riddle Boy Scouts Get Camp Honors At Lake Malakwa

By ERMA BEST

Riddle Boy Scouts of Troop 36 and 23 of Camas Valley, acting as a unit, carried off honors at the scout camp at Lake Malakwa from July 27 to Aug. 2 by placing in every event and bringing home the Camp Trophy for that week.

There were approximately 300 boys in camp and a variety of activities included boating, swimming, archery and target practice.

Riddle was represented by three groups. In group one were Stanley Long, Freddie Wilcox, Jimmy Curtis, Bob Colner, David Wilson and Bob Humiston; group two, Jack Maitlen, Larry Cockerell, Pat Schofield, Roy Duchene and David Kinkade; group three, Jimmy Maitten, Jimmy Carhart, Gregg Lindquist, David Duchene and Scott Wooley.

E. E. Daniels, Scoutmaster, Clyde Cockerell and Melvin Agee accompanied the boys for the first three days. Don Clark, A. I. Beck and Lewis Ball took over for the remainder of the week.

Bighorn Sheep Placed In Hart Mt. Country

PORTLAND — Efforts to establish a herd of Bighorn sheep in the Hart mountain antelope country were being started here Thursday.

Francis Lambert, long associated with the famed Order of the Antelope, a group of outdoor enthusiasts that meets yearly on the mountain, is back of it. He asked Oscar Chapman, Secretary of the Interior, to permit a herd of 30 bighorns to be transferred from Nevada to the Hart refuge.

A dozen years ago, bighorn from Montana were brought to Hart mountain but they did not survive. Lambert said they were weak. He said the sheep would be a major tourist attraction and would be welcomed by photographers who haunt the antelope refuge.

Glendale Mishaps Keep Medic Busy

A series of eight industrial accidents, most of them early this week, kept Dr. Howard Ferguson, Glendale physician, busy.

On Aug. 6, Floyd Richardson was severely injured while working with a Day & Mehl Co. "cat" when his left foot became caught in track of the machine. It is understood that he will be unable to work for a month or six weeks.

On Aug. 7 Ted Kelly was treated for sawdust in his eye.

The following six accidents occurred Monday, August 11:

Earnest Penry caught his left hand between a board and a bunk on the jump roll at the Robert Dollar Co. severely injuring his third and fourth fingers.

Charles Jackson, working at the Dollar and Patterson Co., severely bruised his left hand when two hands.

Edward Jackson, first dogger at the Robert Dollar Company, and brother of Charles Jackson, suffered a badly bruised right arm when a log turned and caused the dog hook he was setting timbers fell from a stack on the in place, to fly up and hit him in the arm.
