Lookingglass Couple Attends Farm Home, Political Meets

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh returned Wednesday from a two-week trip which included attendance at the quarterly meeting of the board of trustees of the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis and a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee in Portland.

They also took a tour of Washington, with visits at Paradise Valley and Yakima State Park, Grand Coulee Dam, Chief Joseph Dam, Odell Lake, and a boat trip up Lake Chelan. They report having narrowly escaped the severe wind storm which lashed Prineville and the John Day valley the day before they reached there.

Visit From Idaho

Ethel Conn and daughter, Doris, of Hayden Lake, Idaho, accompanied by Sue Ann Starr small daughter of Mrs. Conn's daughter, Virginia Starr, were visitors the past week at the home of Mrs. Conn's mother, Mrs. I. B. Howard, and brother, Charles Howard. Their visit was interrupted by word from Hayden Lake of the serious illness of Mrs. Starr who was thought to have suffered an attack of polio. The group left Tuesday to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Winifred and Jimmie spent their vacation recently in Los Angeles. After stopping briefly at Lookingglass, they were joined by Lois Swift and proceeded on to Portland where Winifred resumed her work as student nurse at Emanuel Hospital. The remainder of the party returned to the valley via the coast route.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh and children, Judy, Bill and Dan, spent a week the latter part of July visiting with Mrs. Marsh's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dowd, at Athena.

See Redwoods

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swift, Lois, Kenneth, David and Larry visited the northern California redwood area and Crescent City over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McMinn and children, Billy and Shirley, returned Tuesday from a trip to Idaho. They have recently taken residence in the C. E. Ainsworth home.

The sympathy of the valley is being extended to Mrs. Homer Elliott in the passing of her father, for whom services were held in Molalla recently. Mr. Elliott entered the hospital in Salem three weeks ago for medical treatment.

Mrs. Oscar Maier (Margaret Rogers) of Long Beach, Calif., who came north for a month's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Rogers, was stricken with a severe attack of asthma which developed into pneumonia.

She has been receiving treatment at Mercy Hospital and has now been taken to the home of her sister, Virginia Owens, where she is reported to be convalescing satisfactorily. Her small daughter, Christy, has spent some time with her grandparents and also visited at the home of her uncle, Ovid Rogers, in Eugene.

Cafe To Open

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ainsworth were callers in the valley Thursday. They said their cafe in North Myrtle Creek will open in the near future.

Rev. Joe Brill, who has conducted special meetings in the Tri-City Church the past two weeks, was a guest in the C. E. Nay home Saturday night.

Dixie Nay and friends toured the Oregon Caves on Sunday.

Mrs. Flora Lowden and Donnie attended a family reunion over the weekend in Ashland City Park. The affair was planned in honor of Mrs. Lowden's mother Mrs. Nettie Peery and included all of the family living in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Capp and Linda are now making their home in the Ivan Matthews home. The Matthews moved into the new home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Matthews and family when they went to Fairbanks, Alaska.

Mrs. Arthur Marsh was summoned to Eugene on Wednesday to serve on jury duty in the U.S. District Court.

Plane Manufacturer Says Wife 'Cynical'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Donald W. Douglas, airplane manufacturer, accuses his wife of 36 years of being "cold, cynical, critical and indifferent" toward him for 15 years before their separation.

Douglas charged in an amended divorce complaint he filed Saturday that Mrs. Charlotte M. Douglas, 60, used vile language and belittled his business ability in the presence of their friends and his business associates.

Attorneys said the new complaint was aimed at inclusion of detailed accusations after she filed a demurrer to the original petition. They have five children.

Lunches Planned At Camas Valley

The Camas Valley School Board, at a special meeting Friday night, voted to purchase essential equipment to carry on a hot lunch program. It is hoped that hot lunches can be served in the near future, said Supt. Marlen Yoder.

An effort will be made to serve a complete meal to the children for 16 cents, if the state grants the usual nine cents.

Sample questionnaires will be mailed out to parents the first week of school to determine the number of children that will be participating in the program.

The board ordered purchase of two new fire extinguishers for the grade school, and a CO_2 extinguisher for the kitchen and boiler room. Five tables for the cafeteria were also ordered purchased.

Progress of the building program was discussed, and the board decied to schedule a meeting with the contractor, Todd Building Co. of Roseburg to discuss completion plans and settling of accounts.

There are believed to be more cattle on U. S. farms today than at any time in history.

Record Timber Deal In Indian Lands Announced

EVERETT (AP) — The first $456,147 payment on one of the biggest deals ever entered by Pacific Northwest Indians was announced Friday.

It is a $6,473,900 sale of 614 million board feet of timber on the Quinault Indian Reservation on the Olympic Peninsula. Raymond H. Bitney, superintendent of the Western Washington Indian Agency, announced the first payment by Rayonier Inc.

Rayonier, the only bidder at a public auction June 17, has agreed the 35,000-acre tract will be logged on a sustained yield basis over a 35-year period.

Acting Supt. John M. Helmer called it "the largest timber sale ever made by the Indian department."

The impact of the payments were expected to be important to tribs in Western Washington. The money will be available for expenditure for the Indians. A number of older Indians will be removed from relief roles as a result of the income.

In all, about 1,600 Indians will share in the benefits.
