

Wage Pact Ends Strike

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers accepted a wage contract last night to end their 14-week-old strike against the jet plane parts plant of Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co.

Only approval of higher UAW officials and signing of the contract delayed a return to production of jet engine compressors and construction of the 10-million-dollar plant.

A company spokesman said the new three-year contract provides immediate increase of 14 cents an

TONIGHT AT 7:00, hear the second in the new series of programs emanating from the lobby of the Hotel Rose welcoming the traveler to Roseburg. People from all over the United States will be interviewed on the show, and it promises to be a favorite. You are again reminded that the reason we haven't mentioned the name of this program is that it has no name. . . you, the listener, will name it in a special contest, the winner to receive a free roundtrip air flight on West Coast Airlines to your choice of Eugene, Coos Bay or Medford. Send your idea for the name either to KRNR, Roseburg, or the Rose Hotel, Roseburg.

The never-ending story of the news makes fascinating listening. Now you can hear the news in an exciting way. . . from where it happens, as it happens. Big news events can be much more interesting and exciting when you hear them happen. Through the medium of this new kind of alert radio coverage, you hear these great events. Keep informed with MUTUAL REWSHEEL, heard tonight, and each Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at the new time of 7:15. Immediately following, 7:30-8:00, Don Lee's "Cisco Kid" rides a vengeance trail when he discovers two ranchers shot in the back. Hear this adventure titled, "The Cisco Kid and Joe Martin."

Matt Cvetic, as portrayed by Dana Andrews, witnesses a struggle between two corrupt forces in "Squeeze Play" tonight's exciting episode of I WAS A COMMUNIST FOR THE FBI. The Communists decide to gain more sympathizers by helping Leo Bremner, a man who has been held in jail without a trial, escape a murder charge. They believe he has been a fall guy and is really innocent. Hear the developments of this exciting story, tonight at 8:00.

News Editor, Bob Grant and wife, Stella, along with Don and Mary Johnson, journeyed to Charleston, Oregon, last weekend for some deep sea fishing, and report excellent results. . . at least they are again eating regular. We don't know how accurate the details are, as each time Bob shows someone how long his catch was, it gets longer. He reports two silversides weighing in at twelve pounds, dressed. Stella brought home a chinook, and the Johnsons brought home a silverside. The skipper of the particular craft the party took reports Grant the worst fisherman and helmsman he has seen in 56 years, and after seeing him fish, he thinks he'll go back to China.

By MRS. ARTHUR M. SELBY
Mrs. David (Gladys) Parlee, who resides on Little River, will see one of her poems published in the Roseburg Poetry Clinic's book of Douglas County verse which went to press Aug. 1.

Two of Mrs. Parlee's poems were selected, the shorter one chosen for this publication. The lengthy poem, "Tapestry of Spring," will appear in the book of new writers.

Mrs. Parlee received a check from the Poetry Clinic for one of the third prizes in the naming-the-book contest, the title "Umpqua Gems" which Mrs. Parlee submitted was selected.

Principal Back From School
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schermerhorn have returned from Monmouth where they spent the summer. Schermerhorn, principal of the Glide grade schools, attended the summer school at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth.

Members of the Roseburg chapter of "48 & 5" held a business meeting and banquet at the Red Barn last Tuesday. Twenty-five members were present. Chef Bill Johnson said they enjoyed the rare roast prime ribs of beef, baked potatoes, garlic bread and tossed salad.

Mrs. Percy Buff left last week for Philomath to take care of her grandchildren as her daughter was confined in a Corvallis hospital after undergoing a major operation.

Johnny DeGroot, owner of Johnny's Tavern, left last Thursday for Portland to spend a week attending to business.

Visits From Medford
Don Kinsley of Medford was an overnight guest of Glide School Superintendent Byron Evans on a trip to Toketee Falls for business and to try the fishing in that vicinity.

Mrs. C. E. Puckett of Honey Creek left last week for St. Ignace, Mont., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dixon. Puckett is the owner of the Honey Creek sawmill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forsythe arrived by motor Sunday from Greeley, Colo., where they had been visiting Mrs. Forsythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris.

Forsythe is the new coach for Glide elementary grades and will also teach the eighth grade. He was the former coach at Oakesdale, Wash., for four years. Mrs. Forsythe is a new primary teacher for Glide school. The Forsythes have leased one of the modern cottages on the Selby place.

New State Park Named For Ben Hur Lampman

PORTLAND (AP)—The State Highway Commission intends to violate its own rule against naming state parks for people.

It agreed Monday to a Ben Hur Lampman State Park at Gold Hill. The city now has a city park named for Lampman, the state's poet laureate, former Gold Hill editor and long-time editorial writer for The Oregonian.

A delegation from Gold Hill proposed that the state take over the city park and buy an adjacent quarter-mile of Rogue River frontage to add to it. The commission agreed to the naming, and said it would try to get the addition land.

8-Year-Old Veteran Stowaway Frustrated

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Dickie Love, a veteran stowaway at 8, set out again yesterday. His destination this time—China.

"The ship looked pretty good, but it didn't leave soon enough," Dickie told police who picked him off the freighter and turned him over to his mother.

Harassed Mrs. Love added the latest caper to Dickie's growing list that includes:

Stowing away on a ship that sailed from New Orleans.

Stowing away on an airliner from San Francisco to Los Angeles to "see the big earthquake" last month in Southern California.

Twice traveling San Francisco-Los Angeles streamliners.

Making innumerable free bus trips to San Francisco from Redwood City.
