

Chiefs To Play Rival Black Sox

The Roseburg Chiefs close the books on the exciting 1952 Southwestern Oregon League schedule this weekend.

The last scheduled home game Saturday night at 8 finds the Chiefs continuing an inter-county rivalry when they host the powerful Drain Black Sox. The other half of the two-game weekend series goes to the Drain park Sunday afternoon where the two teams finish out the brilliant SWO League regular season.

It should be a smashing climax for the two teams although the League-leading Black Sox will reign as favorites in the tilt. The Sox gain their favorite's role on the strength of a sensational season record of 29 wins and only six losses. In the League, they have won 17 and lost only five.

Top Men Leave
The Chiefs, who hit several snags during a hectic season, have won 14 and lost 22. In the League, they have won 10 and lost 12.

The records of the two teams are reflections of two different philosophies for semi-pro organization. Here at Roseburg, Manager Earl Sargent built a crack team out of youngsters on their way up, but he picked his talent too well because four of the top youngsters made the Chief wigwag only a wastering stop.

Just when the Chiefs started to roll, Dave Mann went to the Oakland A's and Bob Bonebrake returned to the Brooklyn Dodger farm system at Great Falls, Mont. This bitter pill was followed shortly by the farewells of Ernie Velazquez and Dwane Helbig. This brought the Chiefs to a complete halt.

Best Batters
Meanwhile, a bigger budget at Drain turned the Black Sox into a semi-retiring pasture for Portland Beavers and other professional leagues. The nucleus of the strong aggregation was Manager Roy Helser, one of Portland's greatest hurlers. With him came Bill Beard, a power-hitting catcher and Harvey Storey, a third baseman with a dynamic bat.

The Sox have seven batters clipping along at .300 or better pace. Here's the way the batters stack up. Storey leads the League with a .421 average. Don Fawcett is next with a .391 average. In order the rest of the murderer's row is: Bill Beard (.350), Norvall Ritchey (.346), Don Kirsch (.320), Ron Phillips (.305) and Pat Wolbers (.301).

The Sox have probably the best left handed hurling team in Oregon with Helser and his protegee, Jerry Cade. During the season, both have won 11 games and lost only two. They get plenty of backing from Gene Peterson of Silverton, who has won five games without a loss, Mel Krause and new addition Aldon Wilkie. Wilkie was recently picked up by the Sox after he was released by Coquille. He had a no-hitter for the Loggers against the Heale's Babes of Portland. It was the only no-hit, no-run contest posted by a SWO League team.

New Power
In spite of this overwhelming display of power, the game is still unpredictable and the Chiefs are no pushovers as they proved last weekend. They can boast a victory over the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks, a point which ripples in the Drain camp. Four of Drain's losses were suffered at the hands of the 'Jacks. They have lost every battle to the coast nine.

A fine battery of Wally Beamer and Jack Warren was a major factor in the 5-1 victory by the Chief hitting power by the Chiefs last weekend and some new give the Drain team reason for worry.

Fishing Good At Winchester

Reports received from Winchester Bay this week carry fishing enticements, but with the report comes a warning.

Based on figures compiled by State Game Commission Field Agents Ralph Grenfell and Robert Phillips, the report shows a minimum total catch in the Winchester area of 840 salmon last week.

According to tabulations, at least 100 skiffs brought in 450 salmon, and 33 charter boat trims netted 381 salmon.

The warning regarded life preservers. Gard Saffley, harbor manager, in discussing harbor problems cited the prevalence of misleading life preservers and jackets bearing the words "U.S. government approved stamp." This approval stamp is misleading, according to Saffley and Coast Guard officials. The preservers and jackets are not approved unless they carry the U.S. Coast Guard approved number. If this number is not on the article, it is not approved and use may subject the user to citation and penalties, Saffley said.

Archery Tournament Here Will Be Prelude To Hunt

The Pope-Young archery tournament which Roseburg and the Umpqua Bowmen host at the Winchester Rod and Gun Club grounds this month-end is more than just a test of bow-and-arrow skill.

It is a primer for the opening of archery hunting season. Jo Redfield, publicity director for the Pope-Young Field Archers, reports that almost 2,000 archery hunting permits were issued by the Oregon State Game Commission in 1951. This tournament is a test for these bow hunters and a host of prospective hunters. The annual Pope-Young tourney gives these bowmen needed hunting practice before the archery hunting season opens in mid-September.

The Pope-Young round is the central attraction and one of the three championship events. It will consist of a minimum of 50 arrows which will be fired at the same number of animal and bird targets. These targets are currently being made as life-sized and adequately colored as possible. Scoring areas are marked on these animals and birds coinciding with the vital and wound spots.

This event is combined with the wand shoot and the clout shoot for aggregate scoring in divisions for men, women and children. The highest aggregate pegs its holder as the champion for 1952. The wand event consists of a four-inch stake with two-inch black stripes six inches long superimposed on them. The shooter scores by hitting the black stripe from 100 yards.

The clout shoot consists of a 60-inch circle target placed horizontally as the center of a great circle shooting line 180-yards in radius. These dimensions are only for men shooters. Women's events will find dimensions considerably shortened.

The Pope-Young Tournament also serves as a king-size get-together. It lasts three days from

Indians Sink Red Sox, Yanks Lose

Luke Easter Gives Win To Cleveland

By The Associated Press

Ever since Luke Easter became a regular on the Cleveland Indians it has been said, "As Easter goes so go the Indians."

Cleveland's pennant hopes have waxed and waned the past two seasons with the rise or decline of Easter's fortunes at the plate. A trick knee more than lack of punch in the clutch has been responsible for Easter's failure to deliver the goods in the past.

Big Luke is hot right now and so are the Indians.

Cleveland, with Easter playing a leading role, swamped the Boston Red Sox, 18-5 Wednesday and outled to within a game of the American League's front-running New York Yankees.

The Yanks were humiliated, 12-3 by the Chicago White Sox. Philadelphia tripped Detroit, 4-3, in the circuit's only night game, a night game between St. Louis and Washington was rained out.

Brooklyn moved seven games ahead of the New York Giants in the National League, downing Cincinnati, 6-3. The Giants and Chicago Cubs were rained out.

In other games, Philadelphia tamed Pittsburgh, 3-1 and St. Louis trounced Boston, 9-2, in a game called because of rain in the eighth inning.

Easter, Ray Boone and Larry Doby were the ringleaders in Cleveland's rout of the Red Sox.

Easter batted in six runs on a grand-slam homer and two singles, Boone sent six mates across on a homer and two singles and Doby drove in a pair of runs on his 27th homer and two singles.

Billy Graham Defeats Basilio In 10 Rounds

CHICAGO (AP) — At the age of 30, and after 113 professional fights, Irish Billy Graham is willing to admit that it's hard work being a boxer.

After polishing off rugged Carmen Basilio, the upstate New York former union grower, in 10 rounds at Chicago Stadium Wednesday night, Graham said:

"I always liked to fight and can remember when I'd rather fight than eat. But now it's just plain hard work. The only thing that keeps me going is the chance at Gavilan's title."

Double No-Hit Game Recorded
BATAVIA, N. Y. (AP) — One of baseball's rarest feats — a double no-hit game — was turned in by two Class D Pony League pitchers Wednesday night with Bradford defeating Batavia 1-0.

Frank Etchberger, a Philadelphia Phillies farmhand, gained the decision over Jim Mitchell, as Bradford put together a walk, sacrifice, wild pitch and an infield out for the lone run in the eighth inning.

Etchberger fanned six and walked five. The 19-year old Mitchell struck out five and passed one.

The only double no-hit game in the major league record book was turned in by Fred Toney of Cincinnati and Jim Vaughn of Chicago in 1917. The Reds broke Vaughn's spell in the 10th and won 1-0.

Kid Matthews To Start Comeback Try At Boise
BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Tiger Ted Lowry of New Bedford, Mass., will be Harry Matthews' opponent when the Kid starts his comeback in a 10-round bout here Sept. 1.

Lowry was selected Wednesday to face the Seattle heavyweight. It will be Matthews' first time out since he was kayoed by Rocky Marciano in Yankee Stadium last month.

Seattle Thumps Oaks, 5-1; Portland Beats L.A., 5-0

By The Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers turned in their first Pacific Coast League victory in six games Wednesday night, while the Portland Beavers received their first setback in as many starts.

Caggy Steve Nagy exercised plenty of southpaw wizardry as he twirled Seattle to a 5-1 decision over Oakland and dropped the Oaks a full game behind Hollywood.

Nagy limited the heavy hitting Acorns to five blows, while the Rainiers drove Al Gettel out in the seventh.

Nagy bashed in the first Seattle run with a bases loaded single in the fifth, and Seattle sewed up the game in the seventh on a hit batsman, a walk, a double by Nanny Fernandez and a squeeze bunt by Bob Boyd.

Nagy now has beaten the Oaks five times in six starts against them this season.

Los Angeles snapped out of a slump that had seen them win only one of their last 11 games.

The Angels blanked up-and-coming Portland, 5-0. Lefty Joe Hatten, ex-Chicago Cub, allowing only three hits.

Hatten had remarkable control for a posturist. He didn't get behind a single batter until the eighth, walked his first man in that inning, and then in the ninth almost lost his control completely.

He walked three men in order, but with the sacks loaded he got

Coe Tops 16 Survivors In Links Event

By BOB MYERS

SEATTLE (AP)—Sixteen survivors of play, headed by former champion Charlie Coe and such strong challengers as Walker Cup player Jimmy McHale, sailor Gene Littler and Crooner Don Cherry, head into another double round of match play Thursday in the Men's National Amateur Golf championship.

Coe, the 1948 champion, and McHale are familiar names in the national classic.

Littler and Cherry earned their way into prominence by producing the two most resounding triumphs of the fifth round Wednesday.

Little, 22-year-old former junior star, with perhaps the most brilliant play thus far in the tournament, defeated the British amateur champion, Harvie Ward, Jr., of Tarboro, N. C., 4 and 2.

Cherry, 28, from Garden City N. Y., well known in the East as a professional singer, made it another year of sorrow for Frank Stranahan, the perennial contender from Tulsa who has played without acclaim in three other nationals, defeated the handsome Ohio strongboy, 3 and one.
