Betty J. Hedge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hedge of Roseburg, became the bride of Ray C. Booher, son of Mrs. Ellen L. Booher of Winston, at an impressive wedding June 27 at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Raymond Schaeffer performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 65 relatives and friends.

The matron of honor, Rose Konopatski, wore a pale blue ballerina length dress over blue taffeta. The gown was fashioned after the bride's and she carried a heart shaped bouquet of pink carnations.

Lamarr Konopatski was best man, and ushers were Frank Weber and Dennis Hayden. The ushers also were candle lighters.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a pale pink nylon ballerina length dress over pink satin. The dress was trimmed with white lace and a lace overskirt. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Other attendants included Sally Moren, who had charge of the guest book, and Glenna Sue Hayden and Pat Dunwoodie, who took care of the gifts.

The church was decorated in pink and white. The trellis was white and heart-shaped with pink carnation clusters on each side and atop the heart. Two baskets of white gladioli flanked either side of the trellis. Candelabra formed a background, and fern and sweet peas decorated the stage and steps. Rose petals were sprinkled on the white aisle cloth which extended to the inner door of the church.

Ruby Willey sang "Always" and "Because" and was accompanied at the organ by Norma Haskins.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. Cake, coffee, and punch were served to the guests while the bride and bridegroom opened their gifts and prepared to leave on their honeymoon. The wedding cake was three-tiered, the layers of which were separated by cupid pillars. The bride's mother wore a pale aqua afternoon dress with lace trimming. Brown accessories completed the costume. Her corsage was of pale pink roses entwined with stephanotis. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a yellow and gray print afternoon dress with black accessories. Her corsage was a duplicate of the bride's mother's.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Booher wore a powder blue check summer suit with black accessories. Following a wedding trip to Washington and parts North, the couple are at home to their many friends at 914 So. Hamilton St. Mrs. Booher is employed by the Douglas County District Court as a stenographer, and Mr. Booher is associated with the Western Broomhandle Co.
