Lookingglass Families Host Many Visitors

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson (Agnes Crow) and daughter, Esther of El Cerrito, Calif., were callers in the valley this week. They were guests Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Cory, Winston. Mrs. Thompson is a daughter of the late Eldon Crow and spent her girlhood days in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Currie, Council Bluffs, Iowa have been visiting for the past month at the home of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell and with other relatives in this vicinity. They plan to leave Wednesday via Los Angeles where they will visit their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buckle and nine month old son, Eugene Richard arrived Thursday for a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Leona Buckle and family. They left Monday for their home in Paso Robles, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Buckle, Judy and Janice of Kellogg, Ida., were also visitors the past week with Ivan's mother and family.

Miss Alice Shoemaker left Saturday for her home in Los Angeles following a three-day visit at the home of her cousin Mrs. Walter Monger.

Word has been received locally of the birth of a daughter, Rexanne Kaye on Aug. 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Thor Hansey (Betty Ollivant) of Eugene. Rexanne is their fourth daughter.

Mrs. Delton Theil (Mildred Ollivant), Patty and Dick of Yoncalla were here Thursday and Friday assisting Mrs. Theil's sister, Mrs. Fred Schulze, in making meals for the fifteen men who were engaged in preparing ensilage for the silo recently constructed on the Schulze dairy farm. Mr. and Mrs. Schulze made a trip to Tule Lake area recently to purchase hay for their dairy stock.

Mrs. Nina Lindsey of London Springs spent a day last week with their folks, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson (Eliel Helseth) of Coos Bay were callers in the valley Sunday. Mrs. Olson attended the local grade school while living with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice V. Marquis report something of a record in their barnyard realm when a prize brood sow produced a litter of sixteen pigs two weeks ago. The little pigs seemed healthy at birth, but only six survived.

Mr. and Mrs. Heddett Baker and Sandra, of Redding, Calif., stopped Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. Baker's grandmother, Mrs. I. B. Howard and her father Charles Howard.

Mrs. Arthur Marsh returned Friday from Eugene following two week's service as a juror in the U.S. Circuit Court.

THE LATEST news round the clock is on Mutual Morning and night, the staff of MBS newsmen stand ready to serve up the top events of the day in an interesting and informative manner that typifies top men in the field. GABRIEL HEATTER brings you his analysis of the news at 6:00 p.m., Tues., Thurs., and Friday, and at 6:55, BILL HENRY brings his report of the day's doings each weeknight. This mentions only a few of the top newsmen to be heard each day over Mutual in Roseburg.

JUMP TO THE WHIP, tonight at 8:00, with Dana Andrews and "I Was a Communist for the FBI." One of the Communist Party's top contributors becomes frightened by FBI probes into Un-American Activities, and withdraws his financial support. To discipline him, the Communists set fire to a tenement house he owns, and then have two party members confess that he hired them to set the fire. In a desperate attempt to thwart Communist plans, Matt Cvetic executes a daring plan and comes up with an unexpected solution.

DON'T MISS THE DEBUT of the new dramatic series via Mutual tomorrow night, 8:00-8:30, titled "Hall of Fantasy." You will hear eerie tales of the supernatural, unusual and unknown with adaptations of some of the world's greatest classical literature. To be heard first on the series is an original tale of the supernatural, "The Carpathian Legend."

Cocktail party quip overheard recently can be chalked up as a lulu for the perfect squeal department. A New England matron had succeeded in cornering about half the people present, inquiring about their antecedents and then capping the conversation with the statement, "My ancestors came over on the Mayflower." This went on until she ran into a quiet little lady who stopped her with, "Well, darling, immigration laws are a lot more strict these days."

School Faculty Meet Planned For Friday

About 175 members of the Roseburg school system faculty are expected to attend a general faculty meeting at 9 a.m., DST, Friday in the Junior High School auditorium, M. C. Deller, school superintendent, reports.

Speaking at the meeting will be Kenneth Barneburg, County school superintendent, and Deller. Robert McKee, assistant Junior High School principal, will open the meeting.

Camas Valley School Employs New Vice Principal, Teachers

GUY LUTZ
... Camas Vice Principal

New vice principal at Camas Valley school this fall will be Guy Lutz, former Myrtle Creek High School librarian, who will also teach math and social science.

Lutz just returned from Detroit where he attended summer school at Wayne University. He attended Albion College, Mich., and was graduated from Willamette University in Salem. He obtained his fifth year certificate at the University of Oregon in Eugene. During World War II he was in the Air Force.

The new vice principal was Myrtle Creek city, as well as school, librarian. He and his wife, Paula, and their two sons, Mike and Mark, moved to Camas Valley in June and are renting from Ernest Wheeler on the West Side Road.

New Coach Hired

Athletics at Camas Valley this year will be under the direction of Rodney Petty, recently released from the Navy after having been recalled to active duty in October, 1950. Petty's previous teaching experience was at Toketee Falls. In addition to his coaching duties he will teach the eighth grade.

A four year letterman in high school, Petty played independent basketball in Salem and Mouth, and won his college sweater in tennis and track. He has his three year certificate from Oregon College of Education and previously attended Fenn College, Cleveland, Ohio.

His wife, Ann Petty, who will teach the sixth grade at Camas Valley, also has a three-year certificate from Oregon College of Education. Mrs. Petty also taught at Toketee Falls and served with the Waves during the War.

She will be in charge of Girls Physical Education. The Pettys are living in the house owned by the school.

Grade School Addition
Another new teacher in the grade school is Mrs. Frances James, who did substitute teaching for Superintendent Marien Yoder at Camas Valley once last year. Mrs. James received her BA from South Eastern Teachers College, Durant, Okla. She also attended M. H. Baylor, Belton, Tex., for one and a half years. Previously, she taught for four years in Oklahoma. Mrs. James' husband, "Buck" James, is in the logging business. They have a daughter, Karen Sue. They are temporarily living in the Calvin Roberts house.

MAKES FIRST FLIGHT

CENTRALIA, Ill., Aug. 22.—Thomas Osborne, oldest Marissa, Ill., citizen at 84, balked at flying to see his Minneapolis daughter. But when told it would take only four hours, he entered his first plane. Took his cane along because, he said, he wanted to look his age.
