FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH SLATES HOMECOMING

The First Christian Church of Roseburg and Bible School will have a homecoming Sunday, Aug. 31. The Bible School of the church has set a goal of 1000 in attendance.

JUNIOR DIVISION, FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH, MEETS

The Junior Division of the First Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Herman Bagwell Tuesday, Aug. 19. The meeting was conducted by the president, Sally Leep. Fay Clark delivered the missionary report. The minutes of the last meeting were read and $73 has been paid into the building fund. The money was raised by the junior division ladies.

Jane Stephens led the devotions, and Jessie Crenshaw sang. The program for the evening was comprised of the showing of pictures of foreign countries. Mary Ellen Eaton was in charge. Mr. Eaton had taken the photos while overseas in the armed services.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses Leota Honn, Gertrude Howard and Valdean Bridges. Those present were Estelle Harman, Phyllis Givens, Lela Tyler, Sally Leep, Gertrude Hess, Fay Clark, Elsie Coffelt, Veldean Bridges, Valetta Taylor, Doris Jones, Jennie Neseth, Naomi Honn, Lela Malone, Veloris Baxter, Jane Stephens, Mary Ellen Eaton, Jessie Crenshaw, Pauline Bagwell and a guest, Mildred Bloom.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Honn the afternoon of Sept. 16.

UMPQUA GROVE NO. 51 HAS INITIATION FETE AT LAST SESSION

The Umpqua Grove No. 51 of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle held a very impressive formal initiation Monday night, August 18, at 8 o'clock in the Winston Community Hall. Mrs. Zeida Puckett, state manager and national committee-woman of Portland, was guest of honor. The newly organized drill team added dignity to the interesting ceremony. Members taking part in the drill team were: Mrs. Reba Butler, Mrs. Besse Lounsbury, Mrs. Bella Holm, Mrs. Jessie Thomas, Mrs. Milly Remington, Mrs. Phebe McGuire, Mrs. Denna Remington, Miss Helen McGuire and Miss Sharon Goodman. New members initiated were Mrs. Ruby Dorrah and Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Vivian Borgaas, all committees gave reports of recent activities. Mrs. Edythe Manley reported that the publicity group had met with Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and worked on the scrap book. The Good of the Order committee displayed new year books.

An invitation was extended from the Omaha Woodmen No. 55 to attend a potluck dinner Thursday, August 28, at 7 o'clock, at the Winston Community Hall. All Grove members and their families are invited to attend and requested to bring, besides their covered dish, their own family table service. There is to be a special program to follow.

A meeting of the entertainment committee was scheduled for Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur McGuire, to rehearse the program for the men's social.

The drill team held an interesting practice and wicker roast Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Bella Holm.

Mrs. Vivian Borgaas announced that the Winston-Dillard Community Skating Club members were anxious to get the skating parties under way. She also said help was needed on the completing of the caretaker's cabin located on the county park that is sponsored by the organization.

Mrs. Velma Albertus thanked the lodge for the cards and kindnesses extended to her mother, Mrs. G. T. Royer, during her recent illness.

Mrs. Zeida Puckett, state manager and national committee-woman, gave an interesting account of her recent trip back to Omaha, Neb., where she attended the State Manager School of Instruction. A discussion was held on the Oregon State Convention, which, when held next April, will be the first time that Oregon will hold state meeting separate from Washington.

Plans were discussed for holding the Southern District No. 3 meeting at Veneta in October. The next meeting of the Umpqua Grove No. 51 will be held Sept. 15, instead of Sept. 1 because of the Labor Day holiday. There will be an election of officers. The nominating committee appointed included Mrs. Frances Collins, Mrs. Edythe Manley.

PUBLIC INVITED TO HEAR WILFRED BROWN AT WRITERS CLUB

Wilfred Brown, eminent Hollywood television script writer formerly with Glenn Hardy, will address the Roseburg Writers Club this Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Episcopal Parish Hall.

The program also includes a report by members of The Poetry Clinic on the new book, "A Gift of Words," a collection of original poetry by Douglas County and Umpqua Territory poets which is scheduled to come off the press Friday.

The meeting is open to the general public, and visitors in the city or others interested in writing are extended a cordial invitation to come and meet some of the local poets whose work appears in the book. Both Mr. Brown and his wife, Elinor Henry Brown, are represented in the book. They are editors of "The Archer Poetry Book," which has published poetry by many Oregon poets. The last issue including poems by David Borden, Sutherland; Frances Holstrom, Coquille; and Frank P. Cunningham, Drain.

Sunday, the annual picnic was held at the Fenn home. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Babcock and Terri Jo; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Benedict and Donna Marie; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Fenn, Sylvia, Donald and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Conn, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Buckwalter, Betty and Harry; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris, Carol, Diane, Duane and Gordon; Miss Blanche Harvin and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fenn.

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT PLAN SANDWICH SALE

The Neighbors of the Woodcraft will hold a cooked food and sandwich sale Saturday, August 30 at Roseburg Electric. Members are requested to have food at the store by nine a.m. Patty Neal is chairman.

The public is invited. Following the services, a picnic will be held at Umpqua Park. Games will be played, and a program enjoyed. Those attending are requested to bring a picnic lunch and table service.

A former minister of the church, Rev. Frank Cunningham, will be guest speaker at the evening service at 8 p.m.

EDEN LADIES AID MEETS AT JEAN PANKY HOME

An enjoyable afternoon was spent when the Eden Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Jean Panky Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Hildur Johnson, president, in charge. Devotionals were read by Rev. Willis Erickson. Plans were made to have a sale in the fall.

Refreshments were served to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Hildur Johnson, Mrs. Emil Hargesheimer and Carol; Mrs. A. L. Chrimer, Mrs. Clarice Brown and Sally; Mrs. Zelma Sand, Mrs. Margaret Ingling of Roseburg and the hostess, Mrs. Panky.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Emil Hargesheimer Sept. 14 in the afternoon, and Mrs. Phebe McGuire.

OMAHA WOODMEN AND UMPQUA GROVE SLATE POTLUCK THIS EVENING

The Omaha Woodmen No. 55 and the Umpqua Grove No. 51 are holding a joint social and potluck dinner, Thursday evening, Aug. 28, at 7 o'clock at the Winston Community Club.

All members and their families are cordially invited to attend and bring covered dish and family table service.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS TO MEET THIS EVENING

The Young Republican Club will hold a meeting Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Del Ray Cafe on Highway 99 North. Election of officers will be held, and all members are urged to attend.

A buffet supper will be served preceding the business meeting.
