Defiant Korean Internees Set Up Own Govt.

TOKYO (AP)—More than 300 "hostile and defiant" Korean internees have set up their own government and are "living as they please" at a Japanese camp, the newspaper Tokyo Times said today.
 Japanese police guarding the camp do not try to interfere in its "internal affairs," the newspaper added.
 Of the camp's 361 internees, the Tokyo Times said, 313 are marked for deportation to South Korea and 48 are on trial or awaiting trial on charges of entering Japan illegally.
 The newspaper said the camp was located at Omura, on Kyushu Island, and that many Japanese are calling it "Little Kojie"—although its internees have neither hoisted Red flags nor openly professed communism as did prisoners of war in the U. S. POW camp on Kojie Island, off the southeastern tip of Korea.
 The Times said the internees have their own commandant, six-man cabinet and congress. Each 10 internees select one assemblyman. The commandant and cabinet members are elected by the internees monthly.
 But, it added, the Koreans are required to show up twice a day for rollcall. And are not allowed to step out of the camp limit.

Keep Record Of Freight Car Orders, Roads Told

SALEM (AP)—Public Utilities Commissioner Charles H. Heltzel Monday ordered railroads operating in Oregon to keep complete records of orders for railroad freight cars.
 Heltzel, who said the roads have not been keeping such records, declared his order was issued to help reduce the freight car shortage that is common in Oregon each fall.
 The records of car orders must be kept in stations where the orders are placed as well as in each railroad's central office in Oregon.
 Heltzel said his order also would tend to stop discrimination against shippers.
 Guards look down on them from watch towers.
