MABEL LUTHER BRIDE OF WALLACE MCNAIR AT AUGUST NUPTIALS

Miss Mabel Luther, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Luther, 1920 Dogwood Dr., Roseburg, became the bride of Wallace McNair, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McNair, 900 Beach St., Ashland, at an impressive evening ceremony August 15 at the First Conservative Baptist Church in Roseburg. The bride's father, Dr. Luther, officiated at the ceremony.

The church was decorated with three large baskets of yellow and lavender gladioli flanked by candelabra. Bouquets and candles graced the piano. Attending the bride was the maid of honor, Miss Jane Luther, who wore an orchid tulle gown and carried a blending arm bouquet of gladioli. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Delores Weeks of Myrtle Creek and Miss Carolyn Groves of Roseburg. They wore gowns in identity to the maid of honor. The hue was pale yellow, and they carried arm bouquets of gladioli.

Gloria Stewart of Seio, Ore., was flower girl and candlelighters were Mrs. Arnold Wilkinson of Ashland and Miss Alice Soehl of Roseburg. Their dresses, in green, matched the remainder of the wedding party.

William Wren of Winchester was best man and Roy Hollenback, Ernest Weeks, Dale Owen and Bob Langhoff were ushers. Soloist was Arnold Wilkinson of Ashland. He rendered three wedding songs, "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Don Hayne of Albany, accompanied him at the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a traditional white satin dress with a long court train. Flowers in seed pearls were embroidered around the net yoke. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations centered with a lavender orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by Dr. and Mrs. Luther at the church parlors. The table was decorated with lavender ribbon and lavender flowers. The damask table cloth had belonged to the grandmother of the bride. The wedding cake was decorated with delicate yellow roses. Those serving at the reception included Mrs. L. C. Roots, who poured and cake; Mrs. DeLoe Owen was at the gift table and Miss Beverly Hatfield had charge of the guest book. Assisting in serving were Miss Marie Austin, Miss Barbara Austin, Mrs. John Swendener, Mrs. John Steek, and Mrs. J. R. Gray.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace afternoon gown with a corsage of rubrum lilies. The bridegroom's mother was attired in blue and also had a corsage of rubrum lilies.

For traveling, the new Mrs. McNair chose an aqua silk tulle shantung dress with black velvet accessories. She also wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Following a wedding trip to Santa Cruz, Calif., the couple will be at home to their friends at 440 Iowa St., Ashland. Mrs. McNair attended Southern Oregon College, and while in Roseburg was employed at J. C. Penney's. The bridegroom is employed as a salesman at Dodge Furniture Company in Ashland.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Luther of Montrose, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hayne, Albany, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steward and daughters, Joy and Gloria, Seio, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell, Lebanon; the Russell grandsons, Jimmie Lewis, Portland; William Tilkman, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wilkinson and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McNair of Ashland.

HERE ON VISIT

Mrs. Melvin Couron of Long Beach, Calif., has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and other relatives and friends in Roseburg. She was formerly Maxine Smith of this city. This is her first visit back to Roseburg in 12 years.

THE MCNAIR-LUTHER WEDDING was an event of August 15 at the First Conservative Baptist Church. The bride, the former Mabel Luther, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Luther. Dr. Luther is pastor of the church where the nuptials took place. In the above picture, the new Mr. and Mrs. McNair leave the altar immediately following the ceremony. Van Horn; and Mrs. Walter Reber, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Victor Ding, Mrs. Jesse Wonch, Mrs. Ridenour, Margie Kirkpatrick Pat Holt, Mrs. Eugene Pasch, Marvel Van Horn, Lola Walker, Betty Denny, Lora McCrorey, Mrs. Arnold, Ebert, Stella Whorton, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Jeanie Stevens, Miss Carol Wonch and Miss Bobbie Wonch.

BRIDE OF PHILIP TRAVIS COMFORT is Marilyn Louise Beard, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, of The Dalles, former residents of Roseburg. The wedding took place at Calvary Baptist Church at The Dalles, Sunday, Aug. 10. (Picture by Elite Studio)

Calvary Baptist Church in The Dalles was the scene of the beautiful wedding of Miss Marilyn Louise Beard, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard of that city, formerly of Roseburg, and Philip Travis Comfort, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Comfort of Fortuna, Calif., at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, Aug. 10.

The father of the bride, Clyde Beard, officiated at the double ring ceremony held in a setting of baskets of white gladioli and double candelabra. White candles tied with tulle ribbon bows were placed in the windows of the church. A blue and white color scheme was carried throughout the wedding.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Richard Roth, organist, played a medley of wedding songs and the traditional wedding marches. Miss Nancy Duthie, soloist, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "All For You."

Candlelighters were Mrs. Leonard Gardner and Miss Janice Rucker. Escorted down the aisle by her brother, Donald, the bride was charming in a white slipper satin, full-skirted gown with an overskirt of white tulle with inset panels of nylon lace. Her fingertip veil (which had been worn by her mother at her wedding) was held in place by an orange blossom headpiece (which was worn by her aunt, Mrs. Bern Wright of Salem, at her wedding). She wore nylon lace mitts and carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid and Stephanotis.

The flower girl, Helene Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jensen, wore a floor-length light blue tulle dress trimmed in ruffles. She carried a white basket filled with rose petals. She wore a tiny half crown of fluted net in her hair to match her dress. Kevin Low of Fortuna, Calif., nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. He was a replica in miniature of the older male members of the wedding party in a white dinner jacket and black trousers with a blue carnation boutonniere.

Miss Anne Mellis of Roseburg, life-time friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Maxwell and Mrs. Hal Lapp, McMinnville; Miss Louella Osgood of Eugene and Miss Marilyn Howard of The Dalles. They are all high school and college classmates of the bride. They wore identical frocks of light blue tulle fashioned floor-length with peplums and boleros. Their headpieces were fluted blue net trimmed with lily-of-the-valley. The maid of honor's dress was of a deeper shade of blue. They carried white net fans covered with white daisies.

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church with 150 guests attending. Baskets of gladioli formed the decorations. The wedding cake was encircled by white gladioli with yellow throats and flanked by tall tapers. Mrs. Lester Jensen presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Glen Betschart poured. Mrs. Bern

Wright cut the cake and Mrs. Jerrold Comfort had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Dennis Zikes had charge of the guest book. Assisting at the rooms were Miss Eileen Blaser and Miss Carmen Kendrick.

For the wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., the bride chose a teal blue faille suit with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. On their return, the couple will be at home in Stockton, Calif., and will attend school at College of the Pacific.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Linfield College for two years. The bride attended Roseburg schools and was graduated from The Dalles High School.

A reception was held Aug. 24 in Fortuna, Calif., for the bride and bridegroom and was given by the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Comfort.

Out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Comfort, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Low and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jabusch and David, all of Fortuna, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Comfort of Eureka, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Travis and Carla and Steven of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Travis, both of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Jabusch of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mellis and Barbara and Donald of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Huntington and Denise of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rainey of Bend, Mrs. Bern Wright and Mrs. D. A. Emerson of Salem.

MRS. STANFORD BUELL HAS DOUBLE BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION THURSDAY

Mrs. Stanford Buell was a charming hostess Thursday when she entertained with a 10:30 o'clock brunch at her home in Dillard. The birthdays of Mrs. Mary Umbarger and Mrs. Mercy Buell were the inspiration for the happy occasion.

The spacious rooms were attractively decorated by the hostess with gladioli and asters. The serving table was beautifully appointed with a grass linen cloth, centered with a low crystal bowl of colorful asters. The honored guest, Mrs. Umbarger, was presented with a starter set of chinaware, while Mrs. Buell was presented with a lovely rhinestone lapel pin.

Guests enjoying the affair were Mrs. Wilma Haumeser, Mrs. Bess Gogler, Mrs. Othel Barnes, Mrs. Mary Stoner, Mrs. Virginia Laurance, Mrs. Vivian Laurance, Mrs. Lena Burks, Mrs. Belle Clark, Mrs. Grace Barnes, Mrs. Bobby Baldwin, Mrs. Mercy Buell, Mrs. Mary Umbarger and the hostess, Mrs. Stanford Buell.

JO ANN LEE LARSEN FETED ON BIRTHDAY

Jo Ann Lee Larsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larsen, was the inspiration for a lovely birthday party August 20, given by her mother at the family home in Dillard.

Gathering at one o'clock, the group played games and were served delicious refreshments. The honored guest was presented with many lovely gifts. Those present were Darryl and Kevin Schellhammer of Roseburg; Kathy and Gene Tomlinson of Myrtle Creek; Marie and Linda Jo Harrison of Dillard; Linda Childers, Danielle, Jim and Mike Cotton; Judy, Penny, Rod and Roy Hillmick all of Dillard, and Frances and Kristine Larsen, sisters of the honored guest, Jo Ann.
