

Women's Sweepstake Tournament Held At Roseburg Country Club

Sat., Sept. 13, 1952.—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 7

Sweepstakes Tournament Large Event Of Tuesday

THE SWEEPSTAKES Tournament of the Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon Women's Golf Association proved of much interest this week, when members of the association spent Monday and Tuesday as guests of the Roseburg Club. Added color to the clubhouse was accomplished by the use of numerous bouquets of mixed fall flowers in warm autumn shades. Two former Roseburg residents were welcomed by old friends. They were Mrs. Fred W. Saling of Corvallis and Mrs. Ralph Adams, who is now president of the Bend Club.

Willamette Valley Southern Oregon Golf Association Sweepstakes Tournament was attended by 100 golfers from Klamath Falls, Bend, Eugene, Grants Pass, Medford, Coos Bay, Corvallis and Roseburg Monday evening. Mrs. Ray Sims, team captain, presented Mrs. David B. Evans, president of the association, Eugene, who gave a short talk. During the banquet hour, Mrs. Roger Gee played incidental music. For the program, Peggy Ostrander played piano solos and Mrs. George Shepard gave a dramatic reading. Tuesday morning the tournament opened. Between nines, coffee was served. Luncheon was served between one and three o'clock in the afternoon in the main room of the clubhouse. Mrs. Evans announced the winners and presented the trophies. Winners included: Class A, low gross, Mrs. J. J. Steiger, Klamath Falls, and low net, Mrs. T. A. Culbertson Jr., of Medford. Class B, Mrs. J. W. McCracken, Eugene, low gross, and low net,

Mrs. Vern Martin, of Corvallis. Class C, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Roseburg, low gross, and Mrs. C. F. Rosenbaum, Roseburg, low net.

Class D, nine holes, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Grants Pass, low gross, and Mrs. Roy Sedell, Roseburg, low net.

Although most of Tuesday was stormy, the golfers teed off on time and went through the tournament in compliance with all plans for the affair.

Following the luncheon, visiting was enjoyed in the clubhouse. The Sweepstakes tournament is one of four tournaments sponsored by the association during the year.

1. Chatting in the lounge at the Country Club following the luncheon were: Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, left, wife of Congressman Ellsworth, Mrs. David B. Evans, retiring president of the Willamette Valley Southern Oregon Golf Association, Eugene; Mrs. H. A. Gray of the Corvallis Country Club, and Mrs. M. D. Miller, Medford, general manager of the Women's Golf Association of the Rogue Valley Country Club.
