

LARGEST WEDDING OF THE YEAR took place Aug. 23 at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg, when Susan Motschenbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, became the bride of Donald K. Gerretsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, of this city. Above, the wedding party is pictured before the altar. Below, the bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake at the garden reception, which followed at the home of the bride's parents. (Pictures by Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

Susan Motschenbacher Bride At Large Wedding

Largest wedding of the year took place at eight o'clock the evening of Aug. 23 at the First Presbyterian Church, when Susan Jean Motschenbacher, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, of Roseburg, became the bride of Donald Knoss Gerretsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, of this city. Four-hundred and fifty guests attended the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Morris H. Roach.

A huge floor candle encircled with white dahlias and flanked by floor baskets of white gladioli, dahlias and baby's breath and candelabra holding tall white candles formed the setting for the ceremony. The candles were lighted by the ushers.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Harriet Booth, who sang, "At Dawning," and "I Love Thee."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a gown of white nylon net and Chantilly lace. Her cap was fashioned of lily of the valley and her fingertip veil was of nylon net. The cap headress was designed by Mrs. George Graham, who also loaned the bride a handmade handkerchief carried previously by 14 brides. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Janice Plummer of Roseburg was maid of honor and wore a ballerina length gown of deep purple tulle with a white net overskirt. Mrs. Archie Rutter, Roseburg; Miss Lenora Jan Peterson, Portland; and Miss Mary Anne McKy, Eugene, the latter two sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns in orchid designed to match the maid of honor's. They carried nosegay bouquets of white carnations.

Sally Elliott, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown of white satin trimmed with purple net and carried a basket of Esther Reed daisies.

Gordon H. Gerretsen, Portland, was best man for his brother and Richard Rice, Portland, and Dale Lander and Pat Sullivan, the latter three fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers. They wore dark suits with lily of the valley boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of pale blue with a white feather hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe floor-length dress with a pink hat and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the beautiful gardens at home of the bride's parents, 1038 Winchester Street. The tables were lighted with large lights. The bride's table, decorated all in white, was centered with a tiered cake decorated with lilies of the valley and circled with white tuberosus begonias.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor and Mrs. Merle Muncey, charge of the table decorations and Mrs. A. J. Ellison and Mrs. George Caskey had charge of the church decorations. The large bouquets of gladioli used about the garden were from the gardens of Mrs. George Wharton. Candid pictures were taken at the reception by the bride's brother, Elliott Motschenbacher.

Mrs. H. H. Turner and Mrs. Earl C. Plummer cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Bruce Elliott and Mrs. E. G. Randolph served the punch and Mrs. Robert Morley and Mrs. David Lee were in charge of the serving. Mrs. Elliott Motschenbacher, sister-in-law of the bride, had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Gordon Gerretsen, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, had charge of the many beautiful gifts.

For traveling the bride wore a natural raw silk Shantung suit with aqua accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Following a honeymoon to points of interest in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Gerretsen will be at home to their friends at 606 E. Lane Street, Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg High School. The bride attended Oregon State College and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. She is employed as a secretary in the offices of the Roseburg Lumber Co. The bridegroom was graduated from Oregon State College last spring and is a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. He is a salesman at Denn-Gerretsen Company in Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. Robert Morley, Miss Charlotte Bell, Mrs. F. L. Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Delvin L. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Muncey and daughter, Daria, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burgess and family of North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sturgess and family of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swensen, Mrs. James Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. K. Hutchinson, of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Motschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott and children, Robert, Jon and Sally; Mrs. E. L. Elliott and Miss Jackie Ackerman, all of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Dawson of Olympia, Wn.

Preceding the rehearsal the night before the wedding, a dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher at their home and besides Susan and Donald, those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Rutter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lander, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gerretsen, Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Roach, Dale Peterson, Miss Janice Plummer, Miss Mary Anne McKy, Miss Jane Peterson, Richard Rice and Miss Harriet Booth.

The table was decorated in Susan's sorority colors of mode and brown with pink carnations and tall tapers for a centerpiece. The dinner was served buffet style.

MISS WANDA WAGLER HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER PARTY FRIDAY

One of the most charming events of the early fall was the bridal shower given in honor of Miss Wanda Wagler of Brockway, Friday evening, Aug. 29, in the Dillard Methodist Church annex. Mrs. Virginia Post, Mrs. Ronald Burgess and Miss Sylvia Hill were hostesses assisted by other friends. Miss Wagler, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Wagler, of Brockway is to become the bride of Wesley Finnell of Tillamook Sunday, Sept. 14, at the Dillard church. The church annex was beautifully decorated with asters and gladioli. Several entertaining games were played with Miss Buelah Johnson winning one of the prizes. Many lovely gifts were presented to the bride-elect who has been active in the Dillard Methodist Youth Fellowship group.

A delicious dessert luncheon was served to 100 guests by the three hostesses, Mrs. Post, Mrs. Burgess and Miss Hill, to Mrs. V. V. Gray and daughter, Gatt; Mrs. Neva Conrad, Mrs. Leo Willis, Miss Patricia Callahan, Mrs. Gene Leshler, Libby and Barbara; Mrs. Frank Drew, Mrs. James Fosback, Mrs. Mercy Buell, Mrs. Evelyn Nickerson, Mrs. Harry Bratsch, Mrs. Ed Wagler, grandmother of the honored guest; Mrs. Lloyd Wagler, mother of the bride; Miss Buelah Johnson. Those sending gifts but unable to attend were:

Mrs. Beas Golgert, Mrs. Vivian Rutschman, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Post and family; R. Barney, Mrs. Bertha Rummel, Mrs. Paul Rummel, Mrs. Jean Nichols, Mrs. Ed Lewis, Mrs. Esther Dobbins, Miss Martha Doggins, Mrs. Olga Fullerton, Mrs. Stanford Buell, Mrs. Roy Gordon, Mrs. Myrtle Glenn, Mrs. Gene Sharral, Mrs. Mary White, Mrs. Emily Fosback and daughter, Lois; Mrs. Belle Clark, Mrs. Grace Barnes, Mrs. Rosa Heimbach, Mrs. Marie Buttler, Pat Donnelly and Miss Shirley Simms. Gifts received from out of town friends were from Mrs. H. Galbraith of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ursel Wagler of Trail, Ore.

TO CALIFORNIA

A. F. Micelli and daughter, Miss Eleanor, of Roseburg left this week for Eureka and Gerbersville, Calif., to attend to business, after which the latter went on to San Francisco for a few days. In Eureka, she took the State Department examinations to qualify for further examination as a Foreign Service Officer. Miss Micelli is currently employed as a stenographer by Horn and Slocum, attorneys in Roseburg.

REASON TO CELEBRATE—A double anniversary was the reason for much happiness on the part of the above four, from left, Charles W. Fox, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. A. N. Orcutt and Attorney A. N. Orcutt. Sept. 3, was the date of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fox and the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the Orcutts Mrs. Fox, nee Vivian Orcutt, is the younger daughter of the Orcutts. A dinner party was held at the Fox home on NW Albe-marle Terrace in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Fox celebrated also a second party given by them for friends the following Saturday evening at the Waverley Country Club. The Orcutts returned to their home in Roseburg later that week. (Picture courtesy of Oregon Journal Society Department).

Attorney and Mrs. Orcutt have been prominent residents of Roseburg since the fall of 1903. Mrs. Orcutt was formerly Dora Page, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Page of Oakland, Ore. Mr. Orcutt is the son of J. H. Orcutt, president of the state normal school at Drain, and Mrs. Orcutt. He was born in Iowa and while his father was president of the normal school, he came west to take a teaching position at the school. He taught there two years. Mr. and Mrs. Orcutt were married at the Page home in Oakland, Sept. 3, 1902. They resided one year at Drain and then moved to Roseburg. For 30 years, they resided at the corner of Chadwick and East Cass Streets, after which they purchased the residence at 929 N. Jackson Street. After coming to Roseburg, Mr. Orcutt was admitted to the State Bar Association and is still a practicing attorney in this city.

The Orcutts have two daughters, Mrs. Orrin Fisher, who with her husband, went to Portland for the celebration, and Mrs. Charles Fox.

Mrs. Fisher was formerly Dorothy Orcutt. Both of the girls were married at the Orcutt home here. Vivian was married to Charles Fox Sept. 3, 1927 and Dorothy and Orrin were married Oct. 12, 1929. The Orcutts have three grandchildren: Mrs. Phyllis (Joann Fox) Thorn, Portland; Mrs. J. D. (Gerry Fisher) Adler, Mt. Vernon, Wash., and Edward Fisher, Seattle. They have two great-grandsons, both ten-months of age, Bruce Charles Thorn, Portland, and James Randall Adler, Mt. Vernon.

MR. AND MRS. J. BUTTLER HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

A "going away" party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Leshler in Brockway, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Butler and family. The Butlers have recently sold their residence in Winston and are moving to Ventura, Calif. Gathering at eight o'clock, the group spent several social hours visiting and playing games. Farewell gifts were presented to the Butlers.

At the close of the pleasant evening, the hostess served a buffet supper to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Don Geddes and children, Donna and Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, Janice and Ronald; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harty, Mr.

and Mrs. Harvey Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albertus and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Butler and daughters, Ramona and Shirley, and the hosts and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Leshler and children, Jean, Barbara, Robert, Marilyn and Elizabeth.

VISITOR RETURNS

Mrs. David Lampard, who has been visiting a friend in San Francisco for several days, returned to Roseburg Wednesday to resume her visit at the J. F. Dillard home. Mrs. Lampard, a resident of Tokyo, is accompanying the Dillard's daughter, Mrs. Robert Snoddy, also of Tokyo, on a visit here. Mrs. Lampard and the friend she visited in San Francisco formerly attended school together in Kobe, Japan.

FAIR OAKS SUNDAY SCHOOL HELD ANNUAL PICNIC

The Fair Oaks Sunday School held the annual picnic in the beautiful front yard of the Hal Geider home east of Sutherland Sunday afternoon. A pollock dinner was served.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Gelfer and Bruce; Larry McCall, Jimmy McCall, Vernon Gurney, Lawrence Gurney, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Longbrake, Linden and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Edwards, Myrna, Jean, Arlys and Marlys; Mrs. Percy Edwards and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Stuempeges and Cedric; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Adams, Barbara and Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. Urlen Edwards and Karen; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gourley and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pelland and Joseph.

HERE FROM SAN DIEGO—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Geddes and son, Mike, above, spent the weekend in Roseburg from San Diego visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Geddes is the former Alice Hooper of this city. Mr. Geddes is a son of Judge and Mrs. A. J. Geddes and a brother of Attorney Paul Geddes, Mrs. Harrie W. Booth and Mrs. S. J. Cooper of this city. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

LADY LIONS HAVE FIRST DINNER MEETING MONDAY

The Lady Lions met Monday evening, Sept. 8, at Carl's Haven for the first fall meeting. Mrs. Glenn Clute, Mrs. Walter Welker, Mrs. I. J. Bean and Mrs. Edell Bryant were hostesses.

The tables were decorated with mixed bouquets of asters, Zinnias and marigolds in black containers. These were flanked by green candies. Following the dinner, Mrs. Heinline, guest speaker, gave a delightful account of her trip to Europe. A business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Edell Bryant. She expressed thanks to all members who donated their time helping with the costumes for the centennial pageant. Mrs. Roland Edie was unanimously elected as director to replace Mrs. Pat Manning. Members in attendance were the Meadames Claude Baker, I. J. Bean, Buckley Bell, Edell Bryant,

E. R. Buckingham, Glenn Clute, Roland Edie, Bruce Elliott, George Foster, Bruce Hetrick, LeRoy Inman, L. M. Lebrack, Frank Long, J. P. Motschenbacher, Frank Purdy, Bernard Saar, Charles Thomas, Bruce Tuck, Ralph Turner, Walter Welker and Mrs. Hector, a new prospective member. The next meeting will be held Oct. 13 with Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. Robert Allen and Mrs. Bruce Tuck as hostesses.

BETTY JANE PATERSON MARRIES-KEN-METZLER AT INTIMATE CEREMONY

Miss Betty Jane Paterson, daughter of Robert W. Paterson of Cleveland, O., became the lovely bride of Kenneth Metzler, son of Mrs. Walter Metzler, Sandy, Ore., at an intimate ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Roseburg Aug. 30. Rev. Meredith Groves officiated.

Following the nuptials, a reception was given by Mrs. C. R. Fream at her home on Stephens St. Twenty-five guests were present. Attending the bride was Annabel Rickard of Portland, and the best man was George Castillo, friend of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was dressed in a green lace dress and wore a black velvet hat. Her bouquet was a nosegay of a dozen pink rosebuds. The bride's beautiful gown was of royal blue lace. Her hat was of navy velvet, and she carried a dozen white rosebuds in a nosegay. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress and hat, complemented with a corsage of white rosebuds.

The new Mrs. Metzler attended schools at Kent State University in Kent, O., and is now employed by the Oregon State College Extension Service as county home extension agent. Mr. Metzler was graduated from the University of Oregon and is a reporter for the News-Review. For traveling, the bride wore a navy blue linen suit with matching accessories. Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, California, the Redwoods, Reno, Nev., and Lassen National Park, the couple is now at home at 1415 Cedar St. in Roseburg.

THE SMILING NEWLYWEDS pictured below are the new Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Metzler as they cut the first slice of the wedding cake. In the picture above are the matron of honor, Annabel Rickard, the bride and bridegroom and the best man, George Castillo.

