

RALPH PATTERSON STARTING NEW CLASS AT STUDIO

The fall term of dancing at Ralph Patterson's Roseburg school of dancing is well started, but arrangements can be made for late comers to enroll, according to an interview with Mr. Patterson.

Saturday, Oct. 11, at 12 noon, there is a new beginner class starting for children eight to 12 years of age. Mr. Patterson states this is a fine age to start and the dancing course does much to make growing children more graceful and they attain more confidence in themselves.

Tuesday, Oct. 14, at 7 p.m. Mr. Patterson will start a new class in ballet for adults. He states that ballet is a wonderful help to get muscles toned up and to help make a person feel and look better, besides offering considerable enjoyment. He reports that marvelous benefits are enjoyed from ballet. Persons interested are asked to call Mr. Patterson at his studio.
