

YOUNG ADULTS HAVE OCTOBER 3 MEETING

The Young Adults met at the First Methodist Church Oct. 3. Roland Worth, president, conducted the session.

An intensely interesting slide, "Our Town," was shown, narrated by George Shepard. After a brief business meeting, the group adjourned for refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Worth.

Among those present were: Chuck Carper, Beth Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Gere Hofsteads, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bogard, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. George Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Buswell and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horton.

Plans were made to hold a Halloween party Oct. 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Brown.

GREEN PTA HOLDS FIRST
FALL SESSION RECENTLY

Mrs. Shirley Sullivan presided over the October meeting of the Green PTA which was opened by community singing and the flag salute.

Mrs. Lois Miller, membership chairman, reported the unit has 40 memberships to date, and that the membership drive would begin Oct. 25 with the taking of the school census.

Mr. Ben Smith, co-chairman of the ways and means committee, announced a turkey dinner would be held Oct. 16 at the Grade School.

The eighth grade room won the room count.

After the meeting was adjourned W. Hall, from the Myrtle Creek High School, Rev. R. Knauf, pastor of the Green Community Church and Bob Adams, member of the Green School board, appeared on a panel discussing the Reorganization Act. Mr. Petersdorf, principal of Green School, acted as moderator. The discussion was followed by a question period from the audience.

Mr. Campbell, from the County Superintendent of Schools' office, briefly explained the other school measures being voted upon in November.

The final portion of the program was a tumbling act put on by Carmen Erskine, Janice DePriest, Veronica Maskala and Robin Hayes.

Coffee and cupcakes were served in the cafeteria, and a social hour was enjoyed by all.
