

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER
and NINA JOAN DAVIS

Sat., Oct. 11, 1952—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

*Fall Guest-Day Affair
Given At Country Club
Thursday, October 2nd*

Guests Honored At Fall Event

The fall guest-day bridge-luncheon given by the Women of the Roseburg Country Club proved a most delightful affair Thursday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Edward Murphy, retiring president, welcomed the members and guests and introduced Mrs. Paul Geddes, who, on behalf of the club presented gifts of appreciation to the retiring officers and to Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

1. Retiring board members of Women of the Roseburg Country Club pictured include left to right: Mrs. I. J. Bean, vice president; Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, director; Mrs. Alfred C. Anderson, chairman of cards; Mrs. Ernest L. Dawe, secretary; Mrs. Edward Murphy, president, and Mrs. Clyde Knight, director.

2. Chatting in the lounge were Mrs. Ted H. Wirak and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, seated, and Mrs. Hall Seely, standing.

3. A foursome enjoying the guest-day bridge-luncheon included from left to right: Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. John G. Verberkmoes, Mrs. Dudley Walton and Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn.

4. Enjoying the guest-day party at the Country Club were left to right: Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, Mrs. Jack Myers and Mrs. Paul Geddes. (The latter acted as mistress of ceremonies for the occasion).

5. New officers left to right: Mrs. Edward Murphy, director; Mrs. Frank Bistak, card chairman; Mrs. A. J. Murray, director; Mrs. I. J. Bean, president; Mrs. W. F. Amiot, director, and Mrs. H. C. Stearns, treasurer. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins).

(Continued on Page Eight)