

Miss Rosa B. Parrott's Home Scene Of Tea Sunday

The climax of events for the Business Women's Week was a lovely tea given at the home of Miss Rosa B. Parrott, first president of the Roseburg Club. The tea was held from three to five o'clock Sunday afternoon at Miss Parrott's home, one of Roseburg's landmark homes and a most interesting setting for entertaining.

One of the liveliest ornaments in Miss Parrott's home, is a large, braided brass lamp, which completely illuminates the room when lighted. It is always kept burning while company is present.

Elynor Massey was in charge of the tea and also in charge of the attractive decorations. The service table was covered with a beautiful ruffled lace cloth with the large punch bowl encircled with rosebuds. Fall flowers were attractively arranged about the spacious rooms. Mildred Herman assisted in arranging the decorations.

The hostesses, dressed in formal, were Gladys Foley, Vivian Pasmore, Virginia Ashcraft, Eleanor Carlson and Stella Spencer. Pouring were Mrs. Edith Landis and Mrs. Priscilla Clarenbach, club president.

Background music was arranged for the occasion by Mrs. Elizabeth Gilchrist. Mrs. Herman introduced Mrs. Golda Nickell, who in turn presented the club with a beautiful punch bowl set. Mrs. Clarenbach, in a few well-chosen words, accepted the gift for the club.

Enjoying the occasion were: Laura Iles, Flossie Virden, Mrs. R. B. Kellogg, Janet Morris, Hazel Jameson, Edna Keeling, Myrtle Baker, Vivian Pasmore, Jane Stephens, Eleanor Carlson, Edith

Landis, M. Hazel Dixon, Goldie Brunn, Priscilla Clarenbach, Mildred Horn, Edith Gilchrist, Joyce Corley, Elynor Massey, V. Vivian Logsdon, Golda Nickell, Stella Spencer, Ida Oerding, past president of the Coquille Club, and the hostess, Miss Parrott.

Effie Benona York Is Bride Of Don Hagedorn

The attractive Miss Effie Benona York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. York of Lebanon, became the bride of Don L. Hagedorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hagedorn of Salem, at a beautiful afternoon wedding Sept. 21, at the First Christian Church of Lebanon. Rev. Ivan Correll performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 175 relatives and friends.

The church was decorated with candles and salmon gladioli. Mrs. Ed Drapela sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me," preceding the nuptials.

Miss Barbara York, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a jade green nylon net gown over taffeta with a matching stole. Her bouquet was a colonial nosegay of lavender gladioli tips. Miss Bonnie Hilton, a bridesmaid, was dressed in pink nylon net over taffeta, fashioned after the maid of honor and her bouquet was of white gladioli tips, as was Miss Barbara Mason's, the second bridesmaid, who was in a duplicate creation of a yellow hue. Miss Sharon Gilliam, the flower girl, wore blue organdy. Gary Hilton was taper lighter; Boyd Morgan and Gene Engblom were ushers and James R. Loonie, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a ballerina length dress of Chantilly lace and nylon net over satin. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place with a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was a diamond shaped arrangement of white roses and stephanotis.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents for 100 guests in the church parlors.

For traveling, the bride wore an aqua suit with red accessories, and a corsage of white roses. Following a honeymoon trip to Bend, the new Mr. and Mrs. Hagedorn are now at home to their friends at 1118 Winchester, Roseburg.

Mrs. Hagedorn attended Lebanon High and the University of Oregon. Mr. Hagedorn was graduated from the University of Oregon and is now employed in the advertising department of the News-Review.
