

Organization Of Cub Scouts In Dillard Planned At Meeting

By ROSA HEINBACH

There will be a meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 16, at 7:30 in the Dillard School auditorium to make plans for organizing a Cub Scout troop.

Walter Smith of Roseburg will be present to explain the principles of Cub Scout work. Parents are urged to attend these meetings as they are most essential in the promotion of Cub Scout ideals. Mothers are especially needed to carry on as "den mothers."

Attends Dental School

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and children, Janice Marie and Jimmy, are now located in Portland where Smith is attending a dental college. They were residents of the Posback Cabins where he was employed at the Hult Mill.

Mrs. Martin Halverson left Sunday for Coos Bay to be with her daughter, Mrs. Duane Manasco, for a few days.

Mrs. Everett Haumeser has been in the Community Hospital for the past week for medical attention.

Mrs. Mary Stoner who has been in the Community Hospital with double pneumonia is reported to be convalescing satisfactorily.

The Dillard PTA will sponsor two speakers at their next meeting Friday evening, Oct. 17, to explain the school reorganization bill. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Winnie Menegat of Lakeside, is now staying with her sister, Mrs. Belle Clark, while she is recuperating from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rummell and the former's mother, Mrs. Bertha Rummell were called to Eureka, Calif., the past week on account of the critical illness of Mrs. Phillip Rummell, wife of Dr. Rummell. Mrs. Rummell is in a Eureka hospital with a very severe case of polio. Dr. Phillip Rummell is also ill with a milder form of polio. Mrs. Bertha Rummell stayed to care for her grandson, two and half-year-old Harry Rummell. Although Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rummell returned to their home in Dillard they were summoned back to Eureka on Friday of last week.

Visits Old Friends

Miss Leona Brown, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. William C. Heinbach during the past week, returned to her home in Boise, Idaho. She had spent four weeks visiting former Boise friends in Southern California.

Mrs. Mason Davidson and children, Patty and Tommy, who have been living at Tyee for the summer months and so far into the winter, returned to their home for the weekend. The children are attending school at Tyee where their father is employed in the lumbering industry.

Glenda Jemeyson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jemeyson, former residents of Dillard, and now of Roberts Creek, has been ill at the Mercy Hospital. She has rheumatic fever and will be confined to her bed for some time.

Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middlestadt Sunday were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Romaine of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Harrington and baby daughter, Trudy, of Los Angeles visited over the weekend at the home of the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Folmsbee of Brookway motored to Toledo, Ore., last week to visit the former's brother, Virgil Folmsbee, and sister, Mrs. Viola Pepin. En route they visited old friends in Yachats, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Luderman, whom they had not seen in over 25 years. Returning home Sunday they reported the weather was very warm along the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Harryman have started construction of their new house on Kent Creek. Mrs. Harryman was ill last week with a cold.

R. B. Harryman, operator of the Dillard Super Service Station and John Fleck of Roseburg returned from a hunting trip in Mitchell, Ore. They report "no luck" as far as getting the deer but had a wonderful time visiting the 12 thousand acre stock ranch of Jim Nash of Mitchell.

Camas Valley

By JEAN YODER

An accident resulting in a broken foot, is making it necessary for Mrs. Gene Arnold to learn how to get around on crutches. The accident occurred last Tuesday evening when Mrs. Arnold fell off the back porch of her home. She expects to wear a cast for about six weeks. She is "at home" to visitors.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bossier, from San Bruno, Calif., spent their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham. They came to Camas Valley Oct. 7. Over the weekend the two couples took a trip to Vancouver, Wash., and returned to the Valley by the coast route. The Bossiers and Cunningham were old friends from the time when the Cunningham lived in California, and had not seen each other since the Bossiers' last trip to Camas Valley five years ago.

Mrs. Lee Clark, from Portland, a cousin of Mrs. M. A. Jones, visited the Jones recently in Camas Valley.

CV Students To Attend Oregon Conferences

Four Camas Valley student body officers, Joan Bartley, Glen Wafar, Margaret Barth and Kay White will attend the Oregon Conference of Student Councils in Klamath Falls, Oct. 21 and 22. They will be accompanied by Guy Lutz, vice principal.

Camas Valley will also send four students to the journalism conference in Eugene Oct. 24 and 25. Attending will be Irv Thrush, Digger editor; Glen Pasco, Digger business manager; Shirley Harmon, editor of the Camagon and Margaret Barth, junior assistant editor.

Mrs. Arnold Bartley has agreed to take the students to Eugene. Her daughter, Joan, will accompany them.

A beautiful specimen of a ginkgo tree, product of forests primeval and the Orient, is located on the edge of Salem, Oregon's Capitol Mall, in contrast to the modern state capital group around it. No groves of this tree now exist, though it once graced the tropical paradise of ancient Central Oregon.
